P R E F A C E

IN presenting the first publication of the revived Eastern Church Association to its members, a few words are, perhaps, necessary to explain the object in view. The aim of the Association is to disseminate as accurate information as is possible about the Eastern Churches, whether concerning their history and formal teaching or their actual condition. The time is gone by when it is wise to be satisfied with half-truths or incorrect and one-sided information. There are no books which show more accurately the historical and doctrinal position of a Church than its Liturgies and other services. It is hoped, therefore, that the publication of this work will help to give a clear idea of the formal and professed teaching of what is by no means the least interesting of the separated Churches of the East—one, too, which the Archbishop of Canterbury's Mission has made familiar to many English Churchmen.

If these prayers can in any way add to the body of modern devotional literature any fresh element which may correct some popular tendencies, it will be a further gain to the Church.

Our best thanks are due to the Dean of Argyll and the Isles for putting at the disposal of the Association his translation of these offices, and for the care he has taken to render them into dignified and stately English.

A. C. HEADLAM,

Secretary of the Eastern Church Association.

INTRODUCTION

THE present work is a translation of the daily offices of the Eastern Syrians, who are also known as Nestorians. Their liturgies, baptismal office, and ordination service have long been given to the Western reader in the translations of Renaudot, Badger, and Denzinger. But as far as the writer of these pages knows, the daily offices have never been translated; and he desires, therefore, to present an English version of the complete non-liturgical services as far as they are contained in the East Syrian Psalter, and in the books known as Qdhamuwathar ('Before and after') and Takhsa ('Order'), a description of which is appended to this Introduction. These books contain, with very few exceptions, the whole of the ferial offices, and also the Sunday and festival offices, as far as they do not vary with the season or the day. The parts of the service proper to seasons and holy days are contained in the books known as Khudhra ('Cycle'), Geza or Gaza ('Treasury'), and Kashkul ('containing all'), three immense volumes, which it is impossible to translate if the limits proposed in this book are to be adhered to. But what is here given will be enough to show the nature of the daily services.

It must be borne in mind that Eastern office books differ greatly from Western in having no 'Order of Morning and Evening Prayer.' There is no arrangement, there are very few rubrics; the different parts of the service have to be sought for in different books, and the best-known parts of the service are traditional. The office books printed by the Archbishop of Canterbury's Mission at Urmi and by that of the Lazarists, which are described below, remedy this defect to a certain extent by giving the traditional arrangement. This translation follows these authorities, noting the points where they differ; and where they fail to be explicit (as happens not unfrequently), recourse has been had to information obtained from personal inquiries during a sojourn among the East Syrians. But the indulgence of all who remember the complication of the subject, the difference of usages, the chaotic state of the manuscripts, and the inherent dislike of being cross-examined which exists in every Oriental mind, is asked for this attempt to put before the European reader an orderly view of the East Syrian services.

The Sunhadus, or Book of Canon Law, orders four<sup>1</sup> services in the day for all men—the Evening Service, Compline, the Night Service, and the Morning Service. The first and last it recognises as having the greatest authority, and their length, it says, is not to be added to or taken from; but the other two are to be 'according to the rule of the monastery,' and there is no limit as to their length or shortness for laymen (v. § 2).

<sup>1</sup> There are also relics of Terce and Sext in the Fast (pages 219, 224). The Sunhadus orders seven hours of prayer for monks and for 'good priests and laymen' (Book vi. § 1).

Compline is now almost obsolete, except on certain days of the year, when it is usually joined on to the Evening Service.

The following is the structure of each of the three principal services :—

Evening Service.

Glory be to God, etc. Kiss of peace. Lord's prayer, farced.

Evening collect, different for (a) Sundays and festivals of our Lord ('feasts'); (b) saints' days ('memorials') and ferias.

First Marmitha<sup>1</sup> (psalms), different for (a) the various days of the week, one for each; (b) for memorials falling on Fridays; (c) for other memorials; (d) for feasts and Sundays, Advent to Epiphany; (e) for other feasts and Sundays.

Second Marmitha, ferias only, varying with the day of the week.

Collect, (a) Sundays and feasts; (b) memorials [not ferias].<sup>2</sup>

Prayer of incense, said by all, farced [not ferias;<sup>2</sup> on feasts five times, on Sun. and mem. thrice].

Collect of the censer [not ferias].<sup>2</sup>

Lakhumara (ascription of praise, said by all), farced, with collect preceding and following.

First Shuraya (short psalm), varies (a) on ferias with the day of the week, and according as the week is 'before' or 'after';<sup>3</sup> and (b) with the number of the Sunday in each Shawu'a (division of the year) [not feasts and memorials].

First Anthem, (a) varies on ferias as first Shuraya; (b) is fixed for Sundays [not said in the fast<sup>4</sup>].

<sup>1</sup> See Glossary for technical terms. It has seemed better to transliterate these into English than to borrow parallel technical terms from the Greek or other rituals.

<sup>4</sup> The services in the fast partake of the nature both of the ferial and of the festival offices. For their structure see page 205.

Fixed collect, four invariable psalms, and another fixed collect.

Second Shuraya, varies as the first.

Second Anthem, varies as the first.

Karuzutha (Litany) in two parts, said by the deacon, with special suffrages on Sundays, feasts, and memorials.

Fixed collect. Deacon's interjection. Holy God, said by all, farced with Gloria. Collect, (a) Sundays and feasts; (b) memorials and ferias. Deacon's interjection, etc.

Suyakhi (additional psalms), with two collects, feasts and memorials only.

Collect, (a) feasts; (b) Sundays and ferias.

Royal Anthem (Sundays, feasts, memorials), proper for the day, the last two verses being the same for each Sunday of a Shawu'a; or Evening Anthem (ferias), varying according to season, or only according to the day of the week.

Collect, (a) on ferias fixed, but distinct ones for Wed. and Fri.; (b) on Sundays, etc., proper to season or day.

Letter psalm (portion of cxix.) (M., T., Th., Sa.), or Third Shuraya (Sun., W., F., feasts, mem.), varying according to day of week on ferias, and according as week is 'before' or 'after'; otherwise according to season.

Lord's Prayer, farced. Two fixed collects.

Suba'a (Compline), on memorials and in the fast,<sup>1</sup> with one collect preceding and two following.

Martyrs' Anthem [in practice, ferias only], one for each day of the week, and two collects.

One or more fixed collects for help, according to the number of priests present, one for each; three fixed collects; Blessing, Kiss of peace, and Nicene Creed.

Night Service.

Glory be to God, etc. Kiss of peace. Lord's prayer, farced. Deacon's interjection.

Collect, (a) Sundays and feasts ; (b) ferias and memorials, and two fixed collects, with response after each of the three.

The Psalms (one-third of the psalter on ferias and Sundays, one-seventh on memorials, the whole on feasts), with appropriate collects. On feasts the psalms are said in three portions, with parts of the Motwa between, and a proper Canon, Tishbukhta, and Karuzutha, with collects and Madrasha (doctrinal hymn).

Qaltha (short psalm), on days when the liturgy is to be said, preceded by fixed collect (but not feasts and memorials).

Collect, (a) Sundays ; (b) feasts and memorials ; (c) ferias.

The Motwa (anthem sung sitting) varies with the season and day, except on Wednesdays, when special anthems are said, one for weeks 'before,' one for weeks 'after,' but the ending is the same for both weeks. On other ferias the last verse is invariable.

Proper collect, Canon, Tishbukhta on memorials ; on Sundays, collect of the season, three fixed Tishbukhyatha.

Proper Karuzutha and Madrasha, with collects (Sun., mem.).

Suyakhi (two additional hulali), on Sundays, with collects.

Qali d'Shahra, an additional hulala on Sundays, feasts, and memorials (as noted in Geza), with collects prefixed to each Marmitha.

Night Anthem, with collects (Sun., feasts, mem.) proper for day, the two last verses on Sundays being invariable.

Collect and Shubakha (short psalm, proper for the day), on Sundays only ; collect and Canon (proper for the day), on feasts and memorials ; collect and Shubakha, on ferias, one for each week-day.

Tishbukhta, on Sundays fixed ; on feasts proper ; on memorials as on ferial Fridays ; on ferias, one for each week-day.

Karuzutha, (a) Sun., feasts, mem., and in the fast in the 'weeks of the mysteries' ; (b) ferias. On some days a special Karuzutha is appointed.

Morning Service.

Two collects, (a) Sun., feasts, mem. ; (b) ferias.

Nine fixed psalms, with three collects, two of which are different on ferias and Sundays, feasts, memorials. The psalms are farced more simply on ferias than on other days.

Collect and Morning Anthem proper for day, with last verses invariable [Sun., feasts, mem.] ; collect and Lakhumara [ferias].

Collect and Ps. li. 1-18 [ferias].

Another Tishbukhta [Sun., feasts, mem.].

Benedicite [Sun., feasts, mem.].

Collect and Gloria in Excelsis [Sun., feasts], or collect of the season and proper Tishbukhta [mem.].

Collect, (a) Sundays and feasts ; (b) memorials ; (c) ferias.

Deacon's interjection, and Holy God, said by all (farced) ; Lord's prayer (farced). Kiss of peace (not ferias ?).

Two collects, (a) Sundays and feasts ; (b) memorials and ferias, with an extra collect on Sundays when the Martyrs' Anthem is said.

The Martyrs' Anthem, one for each morning of the week [in practice, ferias only].

Two fixed Morning Anthems [ferias].

Two collects when the Martyrs' Anthem has been said.

One or more fixed collects for help, and the rest as at the Evening Service.

The special feature of the Evening Service is that it has different forms for different weeks. Each week is called either 'before' or 'after,'<sup>1</sup> according as the first or second choir begins the service, and there is a different

<sup>1</sup> Or 'first' and 'last.' If the first choir begins one anthem, psalm, or hymn, the second choir begins the next, and so on alternately.

Evening Service for each day of each of these two weeks. The Morning Service, on the other hand, is in the main invariable throughout the year, although the festival and ferial services differ. The special feature of the Night Service, which is a very long one, and (if said at all) is joined on to the Morning Service, is the recitation of the psalter. Although several psalms are said at the other services, yet at the Night Service the psalter is recited complete, one-third on each week-day, so that the whole is said in full twice a week; on feasts of our Lord it is said complete; on Sundays and other holy days selections are made. It has been pointed out that this is approximately the Lenten arrangement of the Holy Eastern Church, which at other times of the year recites the psalter once only in the week.<sup>1</sup> The division of the psalter into twenty hulali (to which a twenty-first is added, made up of certain Old Testament canticles) also recalls the twenty καθίσματα of the Greeks. Two beautiful features in the East Syrian recitation of the psalms are the appropriate collects before each subdivision of the hulali, gathering up the thoughts of the psalms, and the giyuri, or 'farcings,' of each psalm, clauses introduced after the first or the first and second clauses, and at the end of the psalm, usually giving it a Christian application. In practice the psalms are said on week-days in monotone and antiphonally, one person on each side, not necessarily a priest or deacon, taking each clause. They are recited very rapidly. On Sundays and festivals several psalms are sung.

there are a large number at the various services. These are in metre, and are divided into verses or stanzas, each with the same number of lines—in some cases as few as two, in some as many as fourteen; and these lines roughly scan and occasionally rhyme. Before each verse or collection of verses is placed a clause, usually from the psalter, which is sung in monotone, and which gives it its keynote; this seems to be an unique feature. The two choirs sing the verses alternately to a chant. In this book the places where the choirs change are noted by an asterisk, and the lines of the verses are marked by full stops. The chants to which these anthems are sung are purely traditional, and are not written down. In the books we find names of tunes, but these are not more than names; and we also find a few passages in the manuscripts marked with lines in red ink, one, two, or three, which are said to be musical directions. These anthems are sung by all persons who can read Old Syriac—that is, generally speaking, by all who can read at all; for the people have a great idea of congregational worship, although the musical effect is not all that might be desired. Those who cannot read cannot, of course, join in the singing; but there are certain portions of the service, such as the Lord's Prayer, the Lakhumara, Holy God, and Nicene Creed, which all can say. The collects and 'conclusions,' or blessings, can be said by priests only; and if none are present, they are entirely omitted. Those who cannot join in the anthems give expression to their devotion by frequent prostrations and ejaculations. In the congregational character of their services, therefore, the East Syrians resemble the Russians rather than the Greeks, amongst whom the people remain silent. On the subject of these anthems it may be remarked that of all parts of the daily offices they are the most Eastern in tone. They are expressed in poetry, and are as different as possible from the logical and somewhat prosaic formularies of our own Communion and of the Church of Rome. They must be judged, therefore, as poetry, and not by the strict laws of logic; nor should we press every phrase home, and see superstition where no superstition is intended. When, for instance, in one of the beautiful 'Martyrs' Anthems' we read, 'We take refuge in the strength of your bones,' we may reflect that this method of speech to an Oriental conveys a very different sense from what it would convey to the more logical Western. This caution has not always been borne in mind by those who have criticised Greek devotions to the Blessed Virgin. At the same time, it may be remarked that the exuberance of poetical fancy which is found in many of the Greek offices is not a feature of the East Syrian. Their addresses to St. Mary (in devotion to whom they yield to none) and their invocations of saints are remarkably staid, and most carefully make a difference between Ora pro nobis and prayers which may be addressed to God alone. The invocations take three forms: we find prayers to God that the saints may pray for us; indirect wishes that they may pray for us; and direct invocations asking them to pray for us. The East Syrian says, 'Mary, pray for us; in thy prayers we take refuge,' but he never says, 'Mary, grant our request.'

An interesting question arises which it is not always easy to answer. When we find that these offices have certain features in common with the Greek, the West Syrian (Jacobite), or the Armenian offices, can we argue that these features are older than the schism which separated the East Syrians from these bodies? This question has often been answered in the affirmative, on the ground that after the various schisms none of these bodies would have borrowed from the others. Mr. Hammond, in the introduction to his Liturgies Eastern and Western, uses this argument to prove the antiquity of the so-called Liturgy of Nestorius (III. § 9); and so Dr. Salmon uses it to show the antiquity of books venerated by both Catholics and Valentinians (Introduction to the New Testament, v.). But although it may and does apply in some cases—(and on other grounds it is probable that the ‘Liturgy of Nestorius’ dates from before 431 A.D.)—it is not a rule that we can always use with certainty. It is quite possible for one of these separated Churches to adopt a feature of one of its rivals in a spirit of emulation. Thus it is hard to believe that all the festivals in the East Syrian kalendar which are common to it and the Greek or other kalendars, are more ancient than the schism. Let us take the festivals of the Blessed Virgin. That which falls just before the Epiphany is probably purely East Syrian: it is movable, in the peculiar East Syrian manner. But the festival on August 15th would seem to have come to them from without, probably from the Greeks; for it was only founded about 600 A.D. by the Emperor Maurice.<sup>1</sup> Similarly, the festival of the Nativity of the Virgin, which we find in this kalendar, is said to have been founded by Pope Sergius I. in the year 695 A.D.<sup>1</sup> Perhaps the East Syrian festival on May 15th is the Latin Sancta Maria ad Martyres of May 13th, a festival founded to commemorate the dedication of the Pantheon at the beginning of the seventh century.<sup>2</sup> We may notice in this connection that the East Syrians have no festivals of the Purification, Annunciation, Conception, or Visitation. The last two are of late and Western institution. We can draw no certain deduction from the fact that the East Syrians, unlike their neighbours, the Armenians, celebrate Christmas on December 25th, as a distinct festival from the Epiphany on January 6th; since the Greeks in the time of St. Chrysostom had already made the distinction, and it is possible that the East Syrians may have borrowed it before the schism. But (in view of the Armenian use) it is at least possible that they may have continued to join the two festivals till after that date, and that they may have copied the Greeks later. If this reasoning is correct, it follows that we cannot assert features of the East Syrian service books, which are also found in those of other Christian bodies, to be necessarily of an earlier date than the Council of Ephesus.

We may notice a few among many resemblances between the East Syrian and Greek services. The so-called Liturgy of Nestorius, while retaining the East Syrian structure, has a large number of phrases apparently borrowed from Constantinople, and its reputed authorship is probably due to this fact. It would seem to be the work of some East Syrian father, who had the Constantinople service books before him. This hypothesis is far more probable than that Nestorius, the Patriarch of Constantinople, should have written a liturgy on a model with which he was not familiar, for a people with whom he had no personal connection.<sup>1</sup> Again, if we turn to the general karuzutha, or litany, or to the other litanies used on various occasions, we cannot fail to see the great similarity between them and the Greek ectenes. The use of the general litany at almost all services, liturgical and non-liturgical, is one point of resemblance; the structure of the litanies is another. We may see this by comparing the general litany given below (page 6) with the following extracts<sup>2</sup> from Dr. Littledale's Offices of the Holy Eastern Church (page 123):—

Priest or Deacon. In peace let us beseech thee, Lord.
Ans. Lord, have mercy.

For the peace of the whole world, for the prosperity of the holy Churches of God, and for the unity of all, let us beseech the Lord, etc.

Deacon. Further we beseech thee for our Archbishop N, and for all our brotherhood in Christ. Ans. Lord, have mercy (thrice).

Let us ask of the Lord for the angel of peace, a faithful guide and guardian of our souls and bodies. Ans. Grant, O Lord.

Let us ask of the Lord for pardon and remission of our sins and offences.

Let us ask of the Lord for what is good and profitable to our souls, and for peace to the world.

Another resemblance we find in the ending of the collects. These frequently end among the Greeks, as among the East Syrians they almost always end, with the words, 'Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for ever,' without pleading the merits of our Saviour. Again, the invariable evening and morning psalms are the same in both rites, save only that in the evening the Greeks say 141, 142, 130, 117, when the East Syrians say 141, 142, 119 (one portion), 117; both say 148, 149, 150 in the morning.<sup>1</sup> Among minor points we may notice that the name, Motwa, of an anthem at the Night Service, sung sitting, corresponds exactly to the Greek κάθισμα, one meaning of which is 'an anthem sung while the people sit.' How great is the number of ecclesiastical words taken direct from the Greek may be seen by a reference to the Glossary.

The reader will notice several curious points in these daily services. One is the absence of any kind of lections. This defect is in theory partly remedied by the large number of lections in the liturgy, although in practice these also, except the Gospel, are generally omitted, owing to the extreme scarcity of lectionaries, or books containing the lections written in full, and to the difficulty of finding the lections when only the first and last few words are given, with the number of the ancient ṣkhakha, or section, as in the Khudhra. Another point is the love of tautology, especially in the collects. The same epithet is repeated again and again where we should have chosen a distinct one.<sup>1</sup> Exuberance of epithets and synonyms is a common characteristic of all Eastern offices, and occasions no little difficulty to the English translator. The arrangement of the kalendar and lectionary also presents several remarkable features. Almost all the saints' days ('memorials') which have special services, fall on Fridays, chiefly between Christmas and Lent, and not on fixed days of the month. We notice also the division of the year into shaww'i, or periods of about seven weeks each; the length (fifty days) of the Fast; the selection of three weeks of the Fast as 'weeks of the mysteries,' each day of which, except the Saturday, has special lections; the distinction between 'feasts of our Lord' and 'memorials of saints'; the fast of Advent or 'Annunciation' beginning on December 1st; the four rogations<sup>2</sup> of three days each in the spring; the grouping together of the saints' days, as the Four Evangelists, the Twelve Apostles, the Seventy Apostles, the Greek Doctors, the Syrian Doctors, and the like; the name 'Passover,' Piskha, for Maundy

<sup>1</sup> In the same way we notice how the psalms are repeated. Those said at the Night Service are said again, either at the same service or in the course of the day. Part of Ps. xii. is said twice on First Monday Evening; Ps. lxxv. and lxxvi. twice on certain Sunday evenings; Ps. cxvii. is said twice daily; Ps. xxviii. twice on Tuesdays; Ps. cl. five times on Saturdays (three times at the same service, that of the Night).

Thursday, while the Greek πάσχα is Easter Day; and the name of the last shawu'a of the ecclesiastical year—that before Advent—viz. the Hallowing of the Church. During this period the lections deal specially with the Church, in both senses of the word; and perhaps the dedication of some great church, such as the Patriarchal Church at Seleucia-Ctesiphon, is commemorated. But the tradition of this is lost.

The infrequent occurrence of Nestorian language will perhaps surprise the reader. If we put aside the mention of the names of Nestorius, Theodore the Interpreter, and Diodorus of Tarsus, and a very few passages (almost all of which are capable of an orthodox interpretation), we shall find no trace of heterodoxy in the following pages. In some of the anthems in the Khudhra proper to festivals, which do not fall within the scope of this book, more doubtful language is occasionally used. On the other hand, we find much that is quite inconsistent with true Nestorianism.

The texts used for this translation are as follows:—

1. (A.) A manuscript of the Qdhamuwathar<sup>1</sup> ('Before and after'), written A.D. 1738 in the village of Huwasan, in the district of Arni of the Pinyanshayi, in Kurdistan, and now in the possession of Mr. Athelstan Riley. Its contents are:—psalms at Evening Service in full; evening Shurayi, anthems, and Letter psalms for weeks 'before' and weeks 'after'; morning Shubakhi and Tishbukhyatha for each week-day; Shurayi for Sunday evenings, two for each Sunday of the shawu'a; the last verses of the Royal Anthem for Sunday evenings, one for each shawu'a throughout the year; Tishbukhyatha for Sunday night and morning service (among which are the Benedicite and Gloria in excelsis); the Martyrs' Anthems, one for the morning and one for the evening of each week-day; anthems in place of the Motwa at the night service on Wednesdays, one for the week 'before' and one for the week 'after'; the psalms of the Qaltha at Sunday night service; Canons for feasts and memorials. This book does not contain, as many copies do, the anthems for the blessing of the months, and the Martyrs' Anthems for Sundays, which are not now said in most places.

2. (U.) The printed edition of the Qdhamuwathar, issued by the press of the Archbishop of Canterbury's Mission at Urini, in red and black, in small 4to (1894). It is arranged in a convenient form for use; and in addition to the matter contained in the manuscripts of the Qdhamuwathar, the collects and benedictions are given from the Takhsa, the litanies from the Dawidha (Psalter), the Lakhumara, Holy God, Lord's prayer (as farced), several rubricks (and the whole arrangement) from tradition, and the services for the Fast, festival Litanies, and some anthems from the Khudhra and Abukhalim. The contents are as follows :—

Lord's prayer, collect, etc., beginning the service.

Marmyatha (psalms) for the six week-day evenings.

The rest of the service for first Monday evening in full (Martyrs' Anthem and the karuzutha excepted).

The service for other week-day evenings where it differs from First Monday.

Ferial Night and Morning Service in full, except the psalms at the former and their prayers<sup>1</sup> and the Motwa.

Evening Service on Sundays, feasts of our Lord, and memorials, excepting the proper anthems, etc., from the Khudhra or Geza.

Night and Morning Service for the same.

The Services of the Great Fast.

Short anthems for the Rogation of the Ninevites.

Anthems for the blessing of the months.

The Martyrs' Anthems, one for each morning and each evening (Sundays included).

The Compline Service.

Karuzwatha (litanies) for general use.

Special karuzwatha and collects for festivals, etc. (these are not given in this translation).

The special anthems for Wednesday Night Service.

In this edition no alteration is made from the texts of the manuscripts, except that a blank is left where the names of Nestorius, Theodore, and Diodorus occur. The present writer is indebted to his former colleagues, the missionaries at Urmi, for an advance copy of this book.<sup>2</sup>

3. (P.) The Psalter, printed by the same press in 1891, in octavo. This contains all the psalms, divided into hulali and marmyatha, and each psalm is divided into clauses as it is said or sung; at the end a twenty-first hulala is added from certain Old Testament canticles ; and the collects and farcings proper to the various marmyatha and psalms are printed in their proper places. The clauses of the psalms differ greatly from our divisions, and are usually shorter than our half-verses.

4. (T.) The Ṭakhṣa, issued by the same press in 1890 and 1892, red and black, large 4to, in two parts. The first part contains the three liturgies, special anthems on festivals, called Qanun dkhilat, and the baptismal office. The second part contains the collects and benedictions in the daily offices, and the occasional prayers (and in this translation its text of these is exclusively followed); offices of preparing the elements before the liturgy; of absolution; of renewal of the leaven; of consecration of Churches with and without oil; several long blessings or conclusions, and rules with regard to the Altar service. In the preparation of this edition of the Ṭakhṣa several comparatively modern manuscripts, the only ones available, were collated from different districts inhabited by the East Syrians. The oldest of these, written at Alqosh about 1500 A.D., was taken as the basis, and all matter taken from other manuscripts was included in brackets. We must specially notice that these printed books aim rather at representing the present use of the East Syrians than at sion of the Archbishop of Canterbury's Mission at Urmi ; copy in the possession of the Rev. Dr. Shedd, written by Qashisha Audishu of Alqosh, about 1730. (3) Abukhalim. Copy of Qudshanis, quite modern, but representing a very trustworthy old text ; copy belonging to Dr. Shedd, written in the Alqosh district about 1750 ; a third belonging to Mar Gabriel of Urmi, of the same date. (4) Dawidha or Psalter. Copy belonging to the Rev. W. H. Browne, written in Urmi about 1680. The Mart Mariam Khudhra best represents the litanies.

reproducing the most ancient text, and are published for practical rather than antiquarian purposes. It was thought better to err, if at all, on the side of fulness, so that the priests of every district might not miss prayers which they had been accustomed to, whatever they might find in the prints over and above the matter contained in their own copies.

5. (R. C.) The Roman Catholick print of the Psalter and Daily Offices (Paris, 1886), printed in 8vo, red and black, at Leipzig. It contains most of the matter comprised in A., U., and P. (but not the services of the fast, Compline, and Festival Litanies), and also has Thanksgivings after Communion (from the Ṭakhsa), and the service for the three days of the Rogation of the Ninevites from the book called Mimra d'Ba'utha. This print is intended for the use of those of the East Syrians who have conformed to Rome, and who are called the Uniat Chaldeans. The order of the services is indicated as in U. Several alterations from the manuscripts have been made, of which the most prominent is the substitution of other names for those of Diodorus of Tarsus, Nestorius, Theodore the Interpreter, and Narsai; in the Creed the words he died and and from the Son are added; the Psalms at the night service are greatly shortened; and the name Mother of God is often substituted for Mother of Christ. These changes,<sup>1</sup> as being devoid of manuscript authority, are not usually noted in the following pages; but where this book apparently follows other manuscript readings than those used for U., P., T., the difference is mentioned. This book is not used for the text of the collects and conclusions.

6. (L.) The Lectionary, printed by the Archbishop of Canterbury's Mission at Urmi in 1889, 8vo. This book gives a table of the Lectures, Epistle, and Gospel for each day in the year for which they are appointed in the Khudhra, the references being to the chapters and verses in the printed bibles, in classical and vernacular Syriac, now used by the East Syrians. These are issued by the American Bible Society. The compilation of this lectionary was a matter of considerable difficulty, as no manuscript lectionary, giving the lessons in full, was available; in the Khudhra only the first and last few words of each lesson are given, and the ancient shakha or section, chapters and verses not being used. As the number of the section was frequently incorrect in the Khudhras, much searching through the Bible and comparison of different Khudhras in villages at a distance was necessitated. It is to be regretted that, as this was the earliest work printed by the Mission press, and was executed before the workmen had learned their art, there are several misprints in the book; but it is hoped that these have all been corrected in the present translation. There probably remain, however, some errors due to the Khudhras themselves.

7. In the kalendar the Sundays and holy days are given as noted in the Khudhra. A few other days are given from tradition and from a list attached to a copy of the Kashkul, or book of variable ferial anthems, dated May 14, 1443 A.D. These are specially marked.

Lit. Literally.

An asterisk denotes the place where the choirs change.

A full stop in the anthems denotes the end of a line, where the chant is inflected.

In the references the verse last given is not included; in the Psalms the references are to the English Prayer Book version. The letter a after the number of a verse denotes the second half of the verse.

Transliteration.—Those proper names which are well known, as Joseph, Abraham, and the like, are given in their English form. The rest are transliterated directly from the Syriac. The object of this transliteration is to shew the exact pronunciation of the names as spoken by the East Syrians, and the following points should be noticed:—The two k sounds and the two t sounds of Syriac are totally different from one another; the two s sounds are almost the same; the aspirated kap and the letter kheith are exactly the same (kh). The hard k sound is represented by q; the hard t sound by t̄; the sharp s sound by s̄; the aspirated d (dh) is like th in then; the aspirated t (th) as in thin; kh is a hard, gh a soft, aspirate; the aspirated b becomes u or w, at the end of a word approaching v; and the vowels have their Continental sounds. A rough breathing is used to denote the Syriac letter 'E (Ayin), which has often the effect of modifying the vowel; this is then sounded further down the throat; when it has not this effect, the breathing is not written. A smooth breathing or apostrophe is used to denote the half-vowel after certain inseparable prepositions, to separate letters which would otherwise coalesce in English, and to mark a silent Alap at the beginning of a word. Otherwise, silent letters are not noted. In the pronunciation of the vowel long zlama, there is a variation between é and è in different districts and in different words; the latter sound is by far the more common, and it is therefore adopted here, except in words where the former sound is more usual. It may also be noticed that the Syrian short a (pthakha) is in some words pronounced like e in pet or pert.

Words in brackets in this translation are not in the Syriac.

heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day the bread of our need. And forgive us our debts. As we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation. But deliver us from the Evil one. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.* Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.* From everlasting to everlasting. Amen.<sup>1</sup>* Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come.* Holy, holy, holy art thou. Our Father which art in heaven. Heaven and earth are full of the greatness of thy glory. The watchful ones and men cry to thee, Holy, holy, holy art thou.

Deacon. Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Evening prayer. Let us confess, O my Lord, thy Godhead, and worship thy Majesty, and lift up perpetual praise without ceasing to thy glorious Trinity, at all times, Lord of all, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for ever.<sup>2</sup> They answer, Amen.

FIRST MARMITHA.<sup>3</sup> Ps. xi., xii., xiii., xiv. After the first clause of the first psalm of each Marmitha say, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, yea Hallelujah, and repeat the first clause. After each Marmitha, Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. From everlasting to everlasting. Amen.

SECOND MARMITHA. Ps. xv., xvi., xvii. Gloria. Then,<sup>4</sup> Hallelujah, Glory to thee, O God, thrice. O Lord, have mercy upon us. Deacon. Peace be with us.

<sup>2</sup> So almost all prayers end. R. C. rightly adds that in prayers addressed directly to our Lord the words Father, Son, and Holy Ghost must be omitted. Collects may only be said by a priest.

<sup>3</sup> If the week is 'before,' the first choir begins; if 'after,' the second choir. So alternately throughout the services. The psalms are not farced on week-days at Evensong.

Prayer of the Lakhumara.<sup>1</sup> For all thy helps and graces (given) to us, which cannot be repaid, let us confess and glorify thee without ceasing in thy crowned Church, which is full of all helps and all blessings. For thou art the Lord, and<sup>2</sup> Creator of all, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for ever. Amen.

They all say the Lakhumara. Thee, Lord of all, we confess. And thee, Jesus Christ, we glorify. For thou art the Quickener of our bodies. And thou art the Saviour of our souls. I was glad when they said unto me, We go into the house of the Lord.<sup>3</sup> Thee, Lord of all, etc. Glory be, etc. From everlasting, etc. Thee, Lord of all, etc. They say, Let us pray. Peace be with us.<sup>4</sup>

Prayer after the Lakhumara. Thou, O my Lord, art in truth the Quickener of our bodies; And thou art the good Saviour of our souls, and the perpetual Keeper of our life. And thee we are bound to confess, worship, and glorify at all times, Lord of all, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for ever. Amen.

FIRST SHURAYA. Ps. xii. 1-7.<sup>5</sup> Save, Lord, for the godly are come to an end. Hallelujah, Hallelujah, yea Hallelujah. Save, Lord, for the godly are come to an end.<sup>6</sup>* And the faithful, etc. Glory be, etc. From everlasting, etc. Hallelujah, Hallelujah, yea Hallelujah.

FIRST ANTHEM: to the tune Lo, he hath led me captive.<sup>7</sup>

Save, Lord, for the godly are come to an end. Lo, the godly are come to an end, and the faithful is minished, and the just is destroyed. And there is none good among men. With a double heart every man speaketh, and with dissembling lips. Each man with his neighbour. Of envy and guile and slander. Is our whole humanity<sup>1</sup> full. Love, the chief of the commandments. Is rooted out from our thoughts.<sup>2</sup> There is great fear lest we all be destroyed in thy anger. For thy justice is silent with us. And hath given place to thy lovingkindness.<sup>3</sup> O our Lord, have pity on us.

The Lord is faithful in his words. Our Saviour gave the promise of life to those that desire his love. Ps. cxlv. 13, Syr. And made them rich in his knowledge. And filled them with the wisdom of his power. And taught them to pray at all times. Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name. And<sup>4</sup> thy kingdom come to us. And<sup>4</sup> thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us the bread of our need. And lead us not into temptation. But deliver us from the Evil one. For thine is the kingdom. And the power and the glory.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. O Mary, who didst bear the medicine of life to the children of Adam. In thy petition we will take refuge. And in the confident hope of the prayers of St.<sup>5</sup> John. We will conquer the Evil one and his host. And by the prayer of the prophets, apostles, and martyrs. And fathers and teachers. And by the prayer of our holy father.<sup>6</sup> And of the confessors, and of St. George. And the great power of the Cross. And the hallowing of the holy Church. We will beseech Christ to have mercy and compassion. Upon our souls.

They say,<sup>1</sup> Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Prayer. Thy mercy, O our Lord and our God, and the care of thy good will towards us are we bound to confess, worship, and glorify at all times, Lord of all, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for ever. Amen.

PSALMS cxli., cxlii., cxix. 105-113, cxvii. Lord, I have called upon thee, answer thou me. Hearken to my words and receive my prayer. Lord, I have called upon thee, answer thou me.* Hearken to my words and receive.* My prayer as the incense before thee, etc.<sup>2*</sup> At the end of Ps. cxvii. say the Gloria. Then,<sup>3</sup> Lord, I have called upon thee, answer thou me. Hearken to my words and receive my prayer.

They say,<sup>4</sup> Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Prayer. Hear, O our Lord and our God, the prayer of thy servants in thy compassion, and receive the petition of thy worshippers in thy mercy; and have compassion on our sinfulness in thy lovingkindness<sup>5</sup> and mercies, O Physician of our bodies, and good Hope of our souls, Lord of all, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for ever. Amen.

SECOND SHURAYA. Ps. xv. 1-5.

SECOND ANTHEM: to the tune<sup>6</sup> He knoweth the thoughts.

He that is before the worlds. O compassionate Father and merciful Son. And pitiful Spirit, the Sanctifier of the unclean. Sanctify our bodies and our souls, and have mercy upon us.

Ps. lv. 20.

<sup>5</sup> The Syriac word 'ṭaiḥutha' is in this book rendered either by lovingkindness or grace. It appears to mean goodness in its outward aspect; if the word is used with special reference to God, the giver, it is most appropriately rendered lovingkindness; if with special reference to man, the recipient, it is grace.

Holy and terrible is his Name. May the praises<sup>1</sup> and singing of Hallelujahs of the heavenly hosts. And<sup>2</sup> the petition of the Son on the right hand of the Father. Beseech for us of thy righteousness, and do thou have mercy upon us.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. O Mary, Mother of the King, the King of kings. Beseech Christ, who shone forth from thy bosom. That he may pity us in his lovingkindness, and make us worthy of his kingdom.

From everlasting to everlasting. O Christ our Saviour, by the prayer of thy saints. The prophets and apostles and martyrs, and all the just. Keep the company of thy worshippers from all harm.

Let all the people say Amen and Amen. Our holy father,<sup>3</sup> be a guide to us. In good deeds which propitiate thy Lord. That by thy prayers we may be helped, and with thee have joy.

THE KARUZUTHA.

The deacon puts on stole and girdle, and standing just below the bema,<sup>4</sup> says the Karuzutha.<sup>5</sup> Let us all stand up, as is right, in sorrow and care. Let us make request and say, O our Lord, have mercy upon us. The people answer, O our Lord, have mercy upon us.

He proceeds. Father of mercies and God of all comfort, we make request. Answer. O our Lord, have mercy upon us. And so after each clause.

O our Saviour, who carest for us and suppliest all things, we, etc.

For the peace, safety, and security of all the world and all the Churches, we, etc.

<sup>5</sup> This 'litany' is also said in the Liturgy and at Baptism. Except at the litany, no vestments are ordinarily used in the daily offices.

For (this) our land and all lands, and those who live therein in faith, we, etc.

For a moderate climate and a rich year, the fruits and produce (of the earth), and the prosperity of all the world, we, etc.

For the welfare of our holy fathers NN,<sup>1</sup> and all those who serve under them, we, etc.

O merciful God, who in mercy governest all, we, etc.

O thou who art rich in mercies, and overflowing with compassion, we, etc.

O thou who art by nature good, and the giver of all good things, we, etc.

O thou who art glorified in heaven, and worshipped on earth, we, etc.

O thou who by nature hast immortality, and dwellest in the excellent light, we, etc.

Save us all, O Christ our Lord, in thy lovingkindness; and increase in us thy peace and tranquillity, and have mercy upon us.

ANOTHER.<sup>2</sup> Let us pray. Peace be with us. Let us pray and make request of God the Lord of all. They answer. Amen (so for every clause). That he may hear the voice of our prayer, and receive our petition, and have mercy upon us.

And<sup>3</sup> for the holy catholick Church here and in every place, let us pray, etc. That his peace and tranquillity may abide in it until the end of the world.

For our fathers the bishops, let us pray, etc. That they may stand at the head of their dioceses without blame or stain all the days of their life.

And<sup>3</sup> especially for the welfare of our holy fathers NN,<sup>1</sup> let us pray, etc. That he may keep and raise them at the head of all their dioceses; that they may feed, and serve, and make ready for the Lord, a perfect people zealous of good and beautiful works.

For presbyters<sup>1</sup> and deacons who are in this service of the truth, let us pray, etc. That with a good heart and pure thoughts they may serve before him.

For all the discreet and holy congregation, children of the holy catholic Church, let us pray, etc. That they may accomplish their good and holy course, and receive from the Lord a good<sup>2</sup> hope and promise in the land of life.

For the memorial of blessed St. Mary<sup>3</sup> the holy Virgin, Mother of Christ<sup>4</sup> our Saviour and Lifegiver, let us pray, etc. That the Holy Ghost who dwelt in her may sanctify us in his lovingkindness, and perfect his work in us, and seal in us his truth all the days of our life.

For the memorial of the prophets and apostles, martyrs and confessors, let us pray, etc. That by their prayers and sufferings he may give us with them a good hope and salvation, and make us worthy of their blessed memorial and their living and true promise in the kingdom of heaven.

For the memorial of our holy fathers, Mar Diodorus, Mar Theodorus, Mar Nestorius, bishops and teachers of the truth, and Mar Ephraim, Mar Nersai, and Mar Abraham, and all the holy, ancient, and true teachers, let us pray, etc. That by their prayers and petitions the pure truth of the doctrine of their religion and of their faith may be kept in all the holy catholic Church till the end of the world.

For the memorial of our fathers and brothers, faithful and true, who have departed and gone from this world in the<sup>5</sup> true faith and orthodox religion, let us pray, etc. That he may loose and forgive their transgressions and offences, and make them worthy to have joy with the just and righteous who were approved by thy will.

For this country and its inhabitants, for this house and those who care for it,<sup>1</sup> for this village and those that dwell in it,<sup>1</sup> and especially for this congregation, let us pray, etc. That he may take away from us in his loving-kindness, the sword, captivity, robbery, earthquakes, hail,<sup>2</sup> famine, pestilence, and all evil plagues which are against the body.

For those who err from this true faith and are held in the snares of Satan, let us pray, etc. That he may turn the hardness of their hearts and make them to know that God is one, the Father of truth, and his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

For those who are grievously sick and tempted by evil spirits, let us pray, etc. That our Lord and our God<sup>3</sup> may send to them his Angel of mercy and healing, to visit, cure, heal, help, and comfort them in the multitude of his loving-kindness and mercies.

For the poor and afflicted, orphans and widows, the harassed, troubled, and grieved in spirit in this world, let us pray, etc. That he may give them what they need in his lovingkindness, supply them in his mercy, comfort them in his compassion, and deliver them from him who despitefully useth them.

PRAY and make request to God the Lord of all. That ye may be to him a kingdom, holy priests, and people. Cry to the mighty Lord God with all your heart and all your soul. For he is God the Father of compassion, merciful and pitiful, who willeth not that those whom he hath fashioned should perish, but repent and live before him. And especially must we pray to, confess, worship, glorify, honour, and exalt the one God, the adorable Father, Lord of all, who by his Christ gave a good hope and salvation to our souls, that he may fulfil in us his lovingkindness, mercies, and compassion until the end. They answer, Amen.

He proceeds. With request and beseeching we ask for the Angel of peace and mercy. Answer. From thee, O Lord.

Night and day, throughout our life, we ask for continual peace for thy Church, and life without sin. Answer. From thee, O Lord.

We ask continual love, which is the bond of perfectness, with the confirmation of the Holy Ghost. Answer. From thee, O Lord.

We ask for forgiveness of sins, and those things which help our lives and please thy Godhead. Answer. From thee, O Lord.

We ask the mercy and compassion of the Lord continually and at all times. Answer. From thee, O Lord.

Let us commit our own souls, and one another's souls, to the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.<sup>1</sup>

Prayer. To thee, O Lord, mighty God, we entrust our bodies and souls; and of thee, O our Lord and our God, we ask forgiveness of trespasses and sins. Give us this in thy lovingkindness and mercies, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for ever. Amen.

Deacon.<sup>2</sup> Lift up your voices and glorify the living God, all ye people.

They all say, Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy upon us. Glory be. Holy God. From everlasting. Holy God. They add, Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Prayer. Holy and glorious, mighty and immortal, who dwellest in the saints, and whose will is pleased with them, we beseech thee, turn, O my Lord, and pity us, and have mercy upon us, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, etc. Amen.

Deacon. Bless, O my Lord. Bow your heads for the laying on of hands and receive a blessing.

Priest. May Christ make thy service glorious in the kingdom of heaven.

Prayer. May our souls be perfected in the one complete faith of thy glorious Trinity, and may we all in one union of love be worthy to raise to thee glory and honour, confession and worship, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Amen.

EVENING ANTHEM. [Varies according to the season: these anthems are contained in the Kashkul.]<sup>1</sup>

Or this invariable anthem: <sup>2</sup> to the tune Blessed martyrs.

I waited patiently for the Lord. The body of Christ and his precious blood. Are on the holy altar.

Ps. xl. 1.

In fear and love. Let us all approach to it.

And with the angels chant to him. Holy, holy, holy, Lord God.

The poor shall eat and be satisfied. The body of Christ, etc., as above.

Ps. xxii. 26.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. Christ the refuge and true hope of the afflicted. Be, O my Lord, a wall to thy worshippers. And keep them from the Evil one. And heal and salve their pains. In the compassion of thy Godhead. O Merciful one and Forgiver of sins.

Prayer. Pity us, O thou Compassionate one, in thy lovingkindness, and turn to us, O thou who art full of mercies, and delay not to look on us and care for us, O my Lord. For in thee is our hope and confident trust at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc. Amen.

They say,<sup>1</sup> Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Prayer. May thy Name, O our holy Lord and God, be glorified, and thy Godhead worshipped, and thy Majesty honoured, and thy Greatness celebrated, and thy Being exalted. And may the eternal mercies of thy glorious Trinity protect thy people and the sheep of thy pasture at all times, Lord of all, etc. Amen. Bless, O my Lord.<sup>1</sup>

Another. In heaven and on earth, O my Lord, thy Godhead is blessed and thy Majesty worshipped. Holy and glorious, and glorified and high and exalted, is the adorable and glorious Name of thy glorious Trinity at all times, Lord of all, etc. Amen. Bless, O my Lord.<sup>1</sup>

THE MARTYRS' ANTHEM.<sup>2</sup>

Glorify the Lord, O ye righteous. Holy martyrs, pray for peace. That we may celebrate your festivals with joy.
Ps. xxxiii. 1.

For praise becometh well the just. The martyrs who longed to see Christ. Obtained wings through the sword and flew to heaven.
Ib.

Sing lustily with the voice. The martyrs in their love say to Christ. For thee we die daily.
Ps. xxxiii. 3.

Seek the Lord and be strong. O ye martyrs, ask mercy for the world which taketh. True refuge in the strength of your bones.
Ps. cv. 4.

Who called upon the Lord, and he heard them. Let us call on the martyrs and take refuge in them. That they may pray for us.
Ps. xcix. 6.

<sup>2</sup> The Martyrs' Anthems are said in U. to be all by Mar Marutha, Bishop of Miparqat. The verses immediately preceding the Gloria, which vary much, seem to be of later date than the rest.

As a city surrounded with a wall. Ye fence in the breaches. Before the persecutors in the times of affliction. Ps. cxxii. 3.

From this time forth for evermore. May the prayers of the martyrs be a wall to us. And drive away from us the attacks of the crafty. Ps. cxv. 18.

Offer to Him the sacrifices of praise. O ye martyrs who were sacrifices to the high priests. May your prayer be a wall to our souls. Ps. cvii. 22.

I will always bless the Lord. Blessed is your contest, O holy martyrs. For by the blood of your necks ye gained the kingdom. Ps. xxxiv. 1.

His praises shall ever be in my mouth. Blessed is Christ, who strengthened his saints. Here on earth and above in heaven. Ib.

They that love the Lord hate the thing which is evil. Ye martyrs of the Son, that love the Only Begotten. Pray that there may be peace in creation. Ps. xcvi. 10.

Look on him and trust in him. The martyrs saw the Son crucified on the tree. And lowered their necks to the sword, and were crowned. Ps. xxxiv. 5.

Bow down thine ear, O Lord, and answer me. The cross of our Lord was stained with blood. The martyrs saw it and lowered their necks. Ps. lxxxvi. 1.

He divided the sea and let them go through. The cross of Christ was a bridge to the martyrs. And the just passed over by it to the country where there is no fear. Ps. lxxviii. 14.

And more to be desired are they than gold, and than precious stones. The martyrs are like pearls. For their images are fixed in the King's crown. Ps. xix. 10.

The King's daughter stood in glory. The faithful Church is a pearl. And the martyrs in it are propitiatory sacrifices. Ps. xlv. 10.

Within the ports of the daughter of Sion. The martyrs saw a pearl in Sion. And ran and bought it with the blood of their necks. Ps. ix. 14.

Fairer to look on than the children of men. The rose in the gardens is beautiful to behold. But more (beautiful) were the martyrs when they were killed.

Ps. xlv. 3. How good and beautiful. Precious stones and beryls. Are ye, O martyrs, in the crown of the Son of the King.

Sing to the Lord with harps, and with the sound of singing. I heard the voice of the martyrs singing praises. With the harps of David (going) round Paradise.

His praise is in earth and in heaven. Praise to that voice which said to the martyrs. Mingle your blood with my blood, and my life with your life.

O<sup>1</sup> hear ye this, all ye people. The martyrs were ears of corn, and the kings reaped them. And the Lord placed them in the garner of his kingdom.

He doubtless cometh with joy. The holy martyrs and priests go out. To meet our Lord in the day of his coming.

The<sup>2</sup> Lord shall give strength unto his people. May the strength which strengthened the martyr St. James. Be with us by night and by day.

And your prayers be on all of us. Holy martyrs, ask mercy for us. That by your prayers we may receive forgiveness.

And<sup>3</sup> I spake of peace. Peace to thee, Mar Pithiun, the chosen of Christ. Who didst bear all sufferings for the truth of thy Lord.

He reproveth kings for their sakes.<sup>4</sup> How fitting it is for the boy Cyriac. When for him (God) reproveth the unjust king.

Conclusion.

Glory to thee, Jesus our conquering King, the brightness of the eternal Father, begotten without beginning, before all times and things which came into being; we have no hope and expectation unless it be thou, the Creator. By the prayer of the just and elect who have been approved by thee from the beginning, pardon our sins and forgive our offences, deliver us from our afflictions, answer our requests and bring us to the excellent light, and deliver us by thy living sign from all harm, hidden and open, Christ the hope of our nature, now ✠ and at all times, and for ever and ever. Amen. He makes the sign of the cross over the people. They answer,<sup>4</sup> May Christ hear thy prayers. May Christ make thy priesthood famous in the kingdom of heaven.

Another. Blessed is God for ever, and glorified is his holy Name to all eternity. To him we make request, and of the overflowing sea of his mercy we beseech, that he will make us worthy of the excellent glory of his kingdom, and of joy

Another. May God the Lord of all, in whose house we have assembled, and before whose majesty we have prayed, in the great hope of his mercy, hear our prayer in his compassion, and receive our request in his pity; and may he wash and cleanse the filth of our trespasses and sins in the overflowing hyssop of his pitifulness, and give rest to the souls of the departed in the glorious mansions of his kingdom. May he sprinkle us all with the dew of his sweetness, and may the right hand of his care overshadow us and all creatures in his lovingkindness and mercies, Christ the hope, etc.

Another. May God the Lord of all, who hath entrusted his praises (to be sung) by our mouth, his songs by our tongue, his canticles by our throats, his religion by our lips, his faith by our hearts, hear our prayers and receive our requests, and be appeased by our beseechings, and return answer to our petitions if they be good and innocent; and from the great treasury of his mercy pour forth his mercies and compassion on us and on all the whole world, Christ the hope, etc.

Another. May the Name of God the Lord of all, who ordereth times and seasons, be glorified among us; and may the right hand of the care of his mercy overshadow us who are feeble and sinful, and all the whole world; the holy Church and its children; our fathers and masters and teachers; our departed who have been separated from us and have gone from among us, and all our brotherhood in Christ, Christ the hope, etc.

And also on us who are weak and sinful may the compassion and mercies of our adorable God come, and may they overshadow us, and be poured forth, and remain firm and reign continually, Christ the hope, etc.

Another. By the right hand of thy majesty, our Father which art in heaven, bless us all, O my Lord ; keep us all ; help us all ; assist and protect us all ; quicken the departed of us all ; let thy right hand overshadow us all, and thy mercies and compassion be poured forth on us all ; and may continual praise, honour, confession, worship, and thanksgiving ascend to thee from the mouth of us all, Christ the hope, etc.

Another.<sup>1</sup> May God the Lord of all bless our congregation in his lovingkindness, and keep us from falling in the overflowing multitude of his mercy ; answer our petitions from his treasury ; and on all the whole world, and on the holy Church and its children, and on this country and its inhabitants, and on this habitation and them that dwell in it, and on us all and every one of us together, may the compassion and mercies of our good God come and be poured forth continually, Christ the hope, etc.

We believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of all things visible and invisible. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the only begotten, the firstborn of all creatures. Begotten of his Father before all worlds and not made. Very God of very God. Son of the nature of his Father. By whose hands the worlds were fashioned and everything was created. Who for us sons of men and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost, and became son of man, and was conceived and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered and was crucified in the days of Pontius Pilate. And he was buried, and the third day he rose again, as it is written, and ascended unto heaven, and sat down on the right hand of his Father. And furthermore, he is ready to come to judge the dead and the quick. And in one Holy Ghost, Honour the day of their memorial. With songs of the Holy Ghost. From morn until even. And let us beg for mercies from their Lord. That he may make his peace to dwell in creation. And by their prayers. May the Church and its children be kept.

From everlasting to everlasting. Blessed is thy memorial, our illustrious father.<sup>1</sup> For because of the truth thou wast persecuted. And didst endure sufferings and afflictions. That thou mightest be an inheritor of the kingdom. And<sup>2</sup> who can tell. The dispensation of thy spiritual deeds? For thou wast adorned with virtue. With vigil, fast, and prayer. May thy prayer be a refuge. To sinners who take refuge in thee. And may we be worthy to raise. Glory to thy Lord who exalted thee.

And let all the people say Amen and Amen. As the censer which Aaron offered. May the sweet fragrance of our congregation please thee. And like the petition of the Ninevites. Receive the prayer of thy servants, O my Lord. And return an answer to our petitions in thy mercies. From thy rich treasury. And as thou didst answer Daniel. From the den of lions. Answer, O my Lord, and help thy worshippers. In these times of affliction. For in thee is our confident hope. O Lord, who dost love thy servants.

Ps. cvi. 46.

Prayer instead of Pity us, O thou Compassionate one (page 11):

Arm us, O our Lord and God, with strong and invincible armour, by the prayers of thy blessed Mother. And give us with her a portion and share in thy heavenly bridechamber, Lord of all, etc.

For thy loving mercy and for thy truth's sake. Ps. cxv. 1; and We give thee thanks, etc., as above. cxxxviii. 2.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. Open to us, O our Lord, the great treasury of thy mercy. That we may receive mercies and salvation for our poor race. And heal the pains of our sins by the great medicine of thy compassion. That our weak race by thy mercies may receive compassion.

LETTER PSALM, cxix. 49-65.

MARTYRS' ANTHEM.

Ye are the blessed of the Lord. The blessed martyrs counted death. As a great gain. And like honours and gifts.<sup>3</sup> Accepted stripes and torments. And Ps. cxv. 15. now after their deaths. They bestow on the world benefits. And storehouses full of helps.

Yea, they thought scorn of the pleasant land. The martyrs who saw the world passing away. And truth abiding. Left buildings and riches. And possessions, which are vanity. And desired the fear of God. And Ps. cvi. 24. gave their necks to the sword. And lo, they are about<sup>4</sup> to inherit the kingdom.

And sing lustily with the voice. The martyrs say, Our crown is fixed. And our recompense laid up. And Christ the King, whom we have loved. Maketh Ps. xxxiii. 3. us to enter his kingdom. And because we have suffered with fire and sword. Christ comforts our afflictions. In Paradise, which is full of joys.

FIRST SHURAYA. Ps. lxxv. 1-5.

FIRST ANTHEM : to the tune<sup>3</sup> The disciples of Christ.<sup>4</sup>

Confess him and bless his Name. Confess, O mortals, the Son who saved us. From the dominion of death.

Which held us in our sins. For the whole reason that he descended to Sheol. Was that he might bring the dead from the graves to life.<sup>5</sup> Who can repay the loving-kindness. Which he hath shewed to the race of mortals ?

Ps. c. 3.

My mouth shall speak of wisdom. Take refuge, O sinners, in repentance. For the time is short. The world flourisheth and passeth away. Blessing to the penitent. And judgment to the wicked who have not worked righteousness. For if thou, O my Lord, judgest justly. Who can overcome in the judgment ?

Ps. xlix. 3.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. We beseech thy lovingkindness, O Christ the King. Remember not the offences of<sup>6</sup> thy servants. Who have received the mystery of thy body. And may thy lovingkindness defend them in the day of the quickening. And may they be delivered from Gehenna. SHURAYA in place of a Letter Psalm (if there is no special one in the Kashkul<sup>1</sup>). Ps. cxvi. 11-13 to people.

MARTYRS' ANTHEM.

All these things be come upon us, and we have not wandered from thee. Christ the Saviour of the world.

The great King of glory. Did the martyrs love and have faith in. So they confounded the devil. And with the angels rejoice on high. And stand before God. And the Enemy and his host. Have they subdued under their feet.

Ps. xliv. 18.

Nor lied against thy covenant. Christ is the Saviour of the world. Who suffered for us in his lovingkindness. And trod the way to the kingdom.

1b.

And in his steps<sup>2</sup> went the martyrs. And gave their bodies to torments. And burnings and tortures. And gained by the blood of their necks. The promised life without end.

The voice of glory and salvation is in the dwelling of the righteous. At the voice of the holy martyrs.

Who sow peace in creation. The spiritual ones fly and descend. Quickly to the holy place. And companies of the spiritual ones cry. With the martyrs in their song of praise. Holy art thou, O Lord of all. Who hast exalted the race of mortals.

Ps. cxviii. 15.

For he hath done a marvellous thing. A great marvel hath been wrought for us. By the illustrious athletes and martyrs. Who saw the swords flashing. And the murderers threatening. And their mind moved not nor flinched. Because of their great love for their Lord. And they accepted death as a gift. And they relaxed not their confession of him.

Ps. xcvi. 1.

And they spared<sup>1</sup> not their souls from death. O murdered ones who loved your Creator. And received death of your own free will. And became propitiatory sacrifices. To Christ the King who crowneth you. Offer with us a petition. In the great day of searching. That we may be rescued from torment. And inherit life without end.

Offer to him the sacrifices of praise. O martyrs who are propitiatory sacrifices. Who yourselves propitiated your Lord. And with the blood which your necks poured forth. Gained the kingdom which passeth not away. Beseech and beg of the Lord. For sinners that they perish not. Who in your prayers take refuge. May peace and tranquillity be multiplied to them.

He sent his word and healed them. True physicians. Were the martyrs in creation. And cured and healed souls. Which were defiled with sin. Praise to the Lord who chose you. And made strength to dwell in your bones. That ye might be to the race of mortals. Havens of peace in the world.

He brought them unto the haven where they would be. A desired and advantageous haven. Is the treasure of the bones of the saints. A fountain of mercies and of healing. Hast thy will placed (there), O our Saviour. And may the strength which descendeth from on high. And alway visiteth their bones. Keep the assembly of thy worshippers. From the wiles of the Crafty one.

I will magnify thee, O my Lord the King. The King of the highest with his ministers. Helped the company of the faithful. The command went forth that the just martyrs. Should be killed with the sword. The Chaldeans<sup>2</sup> were astonished, standing. Lifting up their hands,<sup>3</sup> and saying. Great is the God of the faithful. Though he is not seen he saveth them.

A great King above all gods. The King of the highest heights. Built a citadel in heaven. And gave it the name Jerusalem. Of the firstborn written in heaven. He fixed a ladder of life in his Church. And leadeth them of his household, and raiseth them up. To the excellent habitation of heaven. That with the spiritual ones they may have joy.<sup>1</sup>

Ps. xciv. 3.

Lay<sup>2</sup> hand upon the shield and buckler, and stand up to help me. With the shield of the Holy Ghost. Were the martyrs armed in their conflict. When they bowed their necks. Before the swords of the persecutors. And despised stripes and tortures. For the love of Christ. And inherited by the blood of their necks. The kingdom which is not destroyed.

Ps. xxxv. 2.

The King's daughter stood in glory. The Church is like to the ark. And the holy altar to the throne. And the martyrs to the bands of principalities.<sup>3</sup> Who minister to Christ. It<sup>4</sup> is built with jasper stones. And sapphires and crystal. Its architects are Peter and Paul. And Theodore and Nestorius.

Ps. xlv. 10.

And I will speak peace of thee. Peace to thee, O martyr Cyriac. Athlete of Christ the King. And peace to thy tomb. Which giveth health to the sick. Peace be to thy limbs. From which flow forth helps. Peace to thee and peace to thy mother. And praise to him who gave thee the victory.

Ps. cxxii. 8.

Offer<sup>5</sup> to him the sacrifices of praise. Reasonable sacrifices were the martyrs. St. Cyriac and Julitta. In their own sufferings and tortures. For the truth of the love of their Lord. And they endured double afflictions. From the persecutors of the truth. That they might be partakers with him. In that kingdom which passeth not away.

MARTYRS' ANTHEM.

Their gospel is gone out unto all the earth. The holy martyrs clothed with light. Went out to the four quarters of the world to preach. The glorious Trinity. Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Ps. xix. 4.

And their words into the ends of the world. The martyrs were like the watchful ones.<sup>1</sup> For, while walking on earth in appearance like all men. In their minds above on high. They were dwelling among the angels. 1b.

O bless the Lord, ye angels of his. Like angels were they. Who despised all earthly things, and kept aloof from them. The martyrs, the friends of Christ. (Who) proclaimed the (Holy) Trinity. Ps. ciii. 20.

Sing to the Lord with harps and with the voice of singing. With songs and holy voices. The martyrs sing Hallelujah before the heavenly bridegroom. And cry to him, Holy, Holy. Holy, who givest victory to thy friends. Ps. xcvi. 6.

They that go down to the sea in ships. Hail, merchants, who with the blood of your necks. Obtained wealth that passeth not away for ever. Beseech and beg of the Lord.<sup>2</sup> That he make his peace to dwell in creation. Ps. cvii. 23.

Ye servants of his that do his pleasure. The watchful ones descend from the land of light. And sing a song of praise over the bones of the saints. Ps. ciii. 21.

WEEK 'AFTER'

MONDAY

All as on First Monday, except the following :—

FIRST SHURAYA. Ps. xlii. 1-5.

FIRST ANTHEM: to the tune Blessed martyrs.

Like as the hart crieth for the water brook. Who will give me a fountain of tears and a pure heart. To weep and lament and groan. With loud sighing. For the years of my life which are <sup>1</sup> wasted. In vanities without profit? And I was at fault in my conduct.

Ps. xlii. 1.

Woe is me that my sojourning is prolonged. Woe is me that it hath happened to me that the Evil one hath spread a snare for me and I have fallen in it. Thou, O my Lord, hast made me free.<sup>2</sup> And I have despised thy commandments. And when the Evil one saw that I was careless. He spread a snare for me, and I fell into it. Deliver me, O my Lord, from the Evil one who hath led me captive.

Ps. cxx. 4.

Glory be, etc. By the prayers of the Virgin Mary, the blessed Mother. May thy worshippers, O my Lord, be preserved. From the wiles of the Crafty one. And grant us to fulfil thy will. Both in words and deeds. And to sing to thee glory at all times.

From everlasting to everlasting. By the prayer of thy saints who have kept thy commandments, O Christ our Saviour.

From everlasting to everlasting. By thy ascension, O our Lord Jesus, thou hast exalted our dust. And hast caused us to sit on the right hand of the Father on high by thy love. By the descent of thy Spirit thou hast made our childhood wise. And by the cross of thy light thou hast illumined our knowledge. By the hallowing of the holy Church<sup>1</sup> thou hast hallowed our nature. Adorable is thy dispensation which was for our salvation.

EVENING ANTHEM. [Varies according to the season.]

Or this,<sup>2</sup> to its own tune.

O God, my heart is ready, my heart is ready. Let us be ready in fear and love. For the fear-inspiring gift of the mysteries of Christ. And adorn our souls with deeds. By which we may propitiate the Judge of all. That he may pity us when he judgeth the families of the earth.

Ps. cviii. 1.

And we are risen and are ready. Let us be ready, etc., as above.

Ps. xx. 8.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. Of our own free will the sufferings of sin have surrounded us.<sup>3</sup> Do thou in thy goodness open the door<sup>4</sup> to our prayer. Our nature is weak and inclined to sin. Give a hand now, for it is laid low. Peradventure it will understand its nature by the mercies of thy lovingkindness.

SECOND WEDNESDAY

All as on First Monday, except the following:—

FIRST MARMITHA. Ps. lxii., lxiii., lxiv., as on First Wednesday.

SECOND MARMITHA. Ps. lxv., lxvi., lxvii., as on First Wednesday.

FIRST SHURAYA. Ps. lxxii. 1-5.

FIRST ANTHEM: to the tune<sup>1</sup> The martyrs of the Son.

There shall I make the horn of David to arise. From the house of David and Abraham the Creator chose a virgin. And made his hidden power to dwell in her. By the power of the Holy Ghost. She conceived and bare Christ.<sup>2</sup> The Judge of the heights and the depths.

And hath chosen her to be an habitation for himself. From Ps. cxxxii. 18. the house, etc., as above.

Glory be, etc. How fitting is it that we should glorify this holy house. In which are prophets and apostles. And martyrs and priests and teachers. And in which is set up the holy table. For the pardon of the children of Adam.

From everlasting to everlasting. Blessed is he who traded as thou didst trade, O our father.<sup>3</sup> And who collected spiritual riches. And filled his ship with all blessings. And prospered,<sup>4</sup> and departed to the haven. To the place appointed for all the just.

And let all the people say Amen and Amen. O our Lord, thy kingdom come, and<sup>5</sup> thy will be done on earth. As it is in heaven. And give us the bread of our need. And lead us not into temptation. But deliver us from the Evil one.

SECOND SHURAYA. Ps. ci. 1-10.

SECOND ANTHEM: to the tune They are not oppressed.

Beg of him and beseech him that he have pity upon us. O Mary, etc., as above.

Glory be, etc. Peace to your company, O blessed ones. Merchants bearing life to the sons of men. Open the treasury of your prayers to the needy. And keep the land where ye dwelt from harm.

From everlasting to everlasting. Make request for us all to thy Lord. O our illustrious and holy father,<sup>1</sup> the friend of the Son. That by thy prayers may be helped and saved. All who are afflicted and distressed and take refuge in thee.

And let all the people say Amen and Amen. O God, who didst have pity on the Ninevites, have pity on us. And relax not thy watch over our evil generation. And if thou holdest thy door in the face of us sinners. Let whoso goeth knock at the door, O thou Friend of men. Ps. cvi. 46.

EVENING ANTHEM: to the tune Thee, O Judge.

Protect me from the wickedness of the froward. Under the wings of thy prayers, O pure Mary, we always take shelter. And may they stand before us at all times. And by them may we find. Compassion and mercies in the day of judgment. Ps. lxiv. 2.

Do thou protect me and preserve me from mine enemies. Under the wings, etc., as above. Ps. xxxiii. 8.

Glory be, etc. By the prayer of the prophets who foretold thy mysteries. And by the prayer of the apostles who preached thy gospel. And by the prayer of the martyrs and priests and teachers. O Christ, keep thy worshippers from harm.

From everlasting to everlasting. O our father,<sup>1</sup> pray that our Lord in his mercy. May make whole all pains. May thy prayer be as the smell of sweet incense. And a censer that propitiateth God on behalf of sinners.

who am dead. O Holy Ghost the Paraclete. Bring me to the land of light.

SECOND SHURAYA. Ps. cxlv. 18—end.

SECOND ANTHEM: to the tune<sup>1</sup> Let us be ready in fear.

His salvation is nigh them that fear him. The time of this world which passeth away is nigh. And all its desires are destroyed and come to nought. Ps. lxxxv. 9.

Hear, O mortals, and offer repentance. Before the day of remembrance come. And every man is recompensed according as he hath done; in the terrible judgment.

As it were a ramping and a roaring lion. When Death, overtaking every man and devouring him. Came unto me, I was greatly moved and disturbed. Ps. xxii. 13.

For I am persuaded of my trespasses that they are not as other men's. But that he saw that I was his portion. Thou art my help, my Saviour, and on thee I wait.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. Glory to thee, Jesus, our victorious King. Who by thy cross didst save our race from error. May thy great power renew our being. And may death be brought to nought and the quickening reign. And may we be made worthy of mercies by thy will, O King, the Quickener.

EVENING ANTHEM. [Varies with the season.]

Or this.<sup>2</sup> Royal Anthem: to the tune The great mystery.

Be telling of his salvation from day to day.<sup>3</sup> The gospel of peace and love in mercy hath been preached to us. By the glorious birth<sup>4</sup> of Christ. And by it have we learnt that the Creator is reconciled to us. And hath restored and given to us his glorious image which we had destroyed. By taking firstfruits<sup>5</sup> of us. And making our nature to partake. With his majesty in honour. Ps. xcvi. 2.

All as on First Monday, except the following:—

FIRST MARMITHA. Ps. cxlv., cxlvi., cxlvii. 1-12, as on First Saturday.

SECOND MARMITHA. Ps. cxlvii. 12, cxlviii., cxlix., cl., as on First Saturday.

FIRST SHURAYA. Ps. cxxiv. 1-6.

FIRST ANTHEM: to the tune O King, the Quickener.<sup>4</sup>

And our heart shall rejoice in him. May thy cross, O our Saviour, which made peace between the height Ps. xxxiii. 20. and the depth. By its great, adorable, and glorious power. Make peace in the world, which is disturbed and confused by its sins. And do thou make thy peace to dwell in (its) four quarters.

Because we have hoped in his holy Name.<sup>5</sup> May thy cross, ib. etc., as above.

Glory be, etc. Keep thy holy Church from harm. O Lord Christ, who didst come to save us. And make thy worshippers worthy in fear and trembling. To lift up praise to thy Godhead.

From everlasting to everlasting. Give us, O our Lifegiver,

SECOND SHURAYA. Ps. cxxv. 1-3.

SECOND ANTHEM: to the tune<sup>1</sup> Every breath.

That he might shew forth his power. O Cross, which didst shew wonderful miracles to the sons of men.

Keep harm away from the souls which are signed with thee.

Ps. cvi. 8.

Shew thy strength, and come and save us. O Cross, etc., as above.

Ps. lxxx. 2.

Glory be, etc. O my Lord, be a wall to the Churches in every land. And make thy truth to be a fence and strong bulwark before them.

From everlasting to everlasting. O our Lord, help (us), send peace, scatter the Evil ones. Keep thy Church, make free her children from harm.

Or this,<sup>2</sup> to its own tune.

I will always bless the Lord. Blessed is the High Priest who hath pardoned our trespasses. By the sacrifice of himself.

Ps. xxxiv. 1.

And blessed be the Name of his Majesty for ever. Blessed is, etc., as above.

Ps. lxxii. 19.

Glory be, etc. Glory<sup>3</sup> and confession. Let us raise to the Son, who hath saved us by his cross.

From everlasting to everlasting. May<sup>3</sup> our prayer, O my Lord. Please thy good will, all our days.

reigneth not. Neither distress nor sorrow. But the promised life without end.

All ye servants of God. Remember me, my beloved. In prayer in the holy temple. For I am separated from you, and for ever. When he setteth up the seat of judgment. And every man standeth to (give account of) his deeds. May our Lord have compassion on me there in his lovingkindness. Ps. lxvi.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. O Christ the King, our Saviour. Quicken me in the day of thy coming. And set me on thy right hand. With the just who were approved before thee. And believed and confessed thy majesty. That with them I may inherit life without end.

Thou hast cast me into the dust of death. Thou hast clothed us with a mortal nature, which (our) trespasses ever painfully oppress. And when we have put off the habitation of tribulations, by a groaning departure. The clothing of our actions defileth us. Have pity on us. Ps. xxii. 15.

It is become the head of the building. Thy coming, O my Lord, to our race. Was to turn sinners to the way of repentance. And me, who am the chiefest of all, let thy lovingkindness pardon. And may it stand before my sinfulness in the judgment. s. cxviii. 22.

For men. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. The trespasses and sins which I have committed Great is our Lord and exceeding glorious (Ps. cxlv. 3). Our confident hope is in God. Who formed our father Adam. The hope of our death and of our life. The world is nought. And nought are its pleasures. But quicken us and give us life in thy lovingkindness.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. O Christ the King, our Saviour. Quicken us in the day of thy coming. And set us on thy right hand. With the just who were approved before thee. And believed and confessed thy cross. That with them we may inherit life without end.

<sup>6</sup> See rubric and note on the First Anthem. The text of U. is followed here; A. omits all these anthems; R. C. has two anthems, one for weeks 'before,' which is the first three verses of the following anthem For Laymen, and one for weeks 'after,' which is as follows:—

Week 'after.'

For he cometh to judge the earth (Ps. xcvi. 13). The King, the Quickener, shineth forth in glory from on high. And giveth life to the dead, and raiseth them that were buried. And the departed rise from

The fruit which Adam plucked in Eden. Hath condemned me to die in my sins. And the Child of the Virgin Mary hath shone forth. He hath justified me, that I should live in thy lovingkindness. And give life at thy coming, O Christ, to thy servant who is fallen asleep. For thou alone hast compassion on sinners.

Ye that stand in the house of the Lord. My brethren and my beloved. And my friends, my companions.

Forget not my memory at the time of service. Which I and ye rendered. To God in the same temple. The way of (my) bodily feet hath ceased. At the spiritual goal. And (my) mouth, the door of praise, is silent. For Death, the slayer, hath closed it. Pray that I be rescued from the terrible judgment. Which is laid up for all transgressors. And that I may be worthy of the kingdom.

Glory be, etc. For them who are adorned with spiritual deeds. The bridechamber is prepared. Which is not made with hands. But hath been set up from the beginning. And is never destroyed. With excellency and beauty and glory are they clothed. Freedom from corruption do they receive. Happiness which hath not gone up into the heart of man. Do they inherit with the assemblies on high. Crowns of the Holy Ghost. Doth Christ the King in the day of his coming. Weave and set on their heads.

the grave together. And lift up praise to him who giveth life to the dead.

All ye servants of God (Ps. lxvi. 14). Remove sorrow from your heart, O mortals. For the day of our Lord cometh and giveth us joy. And awaketh us from sleep, when the watchful ones sing praises before him. And the angels rejoice in the day of quickening.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. Let our dead live, O my Lord, and let their bodies rise. As prophesied the prophet, the son of Amoz. That they that sleep should awake, and they that lie in the dust give glory. For thy dew is the dew of light and of truth.

The watchful ones sing Glory to him. The bodies of just and righteous men. Fly to him in the clouds. The voice of angels and of the sons of men. Thundereth forth a song of praise. Heaven and earth together. Tell the glory of his majesty. And we with them will sing glory to him.

For Laymen.

Bow down thine ear, O Lord, and answer me. O Christ the Son, who didst come for our salvation. To renew the image of Adam which was corrupted. And didst put on<sup>1</sup> our body, and in it didst save our race. And didst grant (us) to trust in the resurrection of the dead. Pardon thy servants in thy lovingkindness. In the day of thy coming.

Ps. lxxxvi. 1.

O God, for thy lovingkindness. In thy lovingkindness thou didst create our race at the beginning. And didst clothe it with excellent glory in Paradise. And because it was rebellious, and sinned, and fell from its glory. Thou didst send thy beloved Son to us. And he gave us in his compassion. The promised life which hath no end.

Ps. xxv. 6.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. Glory<sup>2</sup> to thee, Jesus, our victorious King. Who by thy cross didst save our race from error. May thy great power renew our being. And may death be brought to nought, and the quickening reign. And may we be made worthy of mercies by thy will. O King, the Quickener.

From everlasting to everlasting. With the just that were approved before thee, O Compassionate one. Who didst grant them to gain the kingdom as their recompense. Make thy servant who is fallen asleep in thy hope to be a partaker (with them). May he who hath received the sign of thy (cross) be numbered in thy flock. Join him, O my Lord, to the companies of them. That fulfil thy will.

IN THE SHAWU'A OF THE EPIPHANY. From everlasting to everlasting. There shone forth and were revealed in creation. Three existent Persons. In the latter days on Jordan. The Father who cried and made his voice to be heard from on high. This is my Son and my beloved. And the Spirit who taught us the true faith.

And let all the people say Amen and Amen. O Mary, the holy Virgin. Mother of Jesus our Saviour. Beseech and beg for mercy. Of the Child who shone forth from thy bosom. That he make to pass from us in his lovingkindness. Times full of tribulations. And settle among us peace and tranquillity. And by thy prayers may the Church and her children be preserved from the Evil one. And in the glorious day when his majesty is revealed. May we be worthy with thee to have joy in the bridechamber of light.

Ps. cvi. 46.

From the Great Fast to Pentecost these concluding verses are not said.

IN THE SHAWU'A OF THE APOSTLES. From everlasting to everlasting. O Christ, who didst choose thy apostles. And didst clothe them with the strength of the Spirit. That they might be preachers in the whole world. And reveal thy glory and Godhead in creation. By the mighty deeds (wrought) by their hands. Make glad thy Churches with peace and concord. And lift up the head of them that preach thy Name and keep thy commandments. By thy right hand, O my Lord, may our salvation be preserved. And in<sup>2</sup> the peace which (cometh) from thee, may they preach thy victory.* And let all the people, etc. O Mary, the holy Virgin, etc., as above.

IN THE SHAWU'A OF SUMMER AND TILL HOLY CROSS DAY. From everlasting to everlasting. Answer thy worshippers, O Christ. And send us from thy treasury. Compassion, mercy, and salvation. And forgiveness of trespasses. And as thou

Who like lions threaten to destroy us. By thy mighty power. Make peace in our confusion. And deliver us from their wickedness. And bring to nought their power. And make us to rejoice in thy salvation, O glorious King.* And let all the people, etc. O Mary, the holy Virgin, etc., as above.

FROM HOLY CROSS DAY TO THE HALLOWING OF THE CHURCH.<sup>1</sup> From everlasting to everlasting. By the great power of the cross. Doth the Church gain<sup>2</sup> confidence. Over death and over Satan. And rejoiceth in her<sup>3</sup> salvation. And celebrateth it with praise. In the sight of the enemies of the truth. For it hath exalted her lowliness. By the mighty deeds which it worked in her; and on the day when it was found, lo, her children laud it with songs of praise. O Great Power who wast the conqueror in her strifes. Keep thy promise to her, the boast of her children, the glory of thy revelation.* And let all, etc. O Mary, etc., as above.

SUNDAYS OF THE HALLOWING OF THE CHURCH. From everlasting to everlasting. Thou hast made, O Lord, this holy house. The foundation of thy throne. O Lord, establish it by thy hands. And in it let the prayers and tears of the distressed be accepted. And from it may all helps and gifts flow. To thy people and the sheep of thy pasture, who are saved by thy cross, and who take refuge in the Name of thy majesty.* And let all, etc. O Mary, etc., as above.<sup>4</sup> and propitiate thy majesty, that our will may be in thy law, and that we may meditate in it day and night, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 5, 6, 7. Hear the words of our prayer, O my Lord, and incline thine ear to the sound of our crying; and turn not thy face from the sound of our beseeching, O thou in whose goodness is our confident hope, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 8, 9, 10. Thee, O Lord our Lord, hidden in thy being, who from the mouth of boys and children hast perfected thy praise, are we bound to confess, worship, and glorify, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA II. Psalms 11, 12, 13, 14. Confirm, O my Lord, thy hope in us, and fill our soul with thy help; and may thy lovingkindness pardon our sins, and the eternal mercies of thy glorious Trinity come to the assistance of thy worshippers who call upon thee and beseech thee, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 15, 16, 17. Make us worthy, O our Lord and our God, with consciences pure and sanctified by thy truth, to dwell in thy holy tabernacle and walk in thy way blameless, all the days of our life, Lord of all, etc.

Or this. Grant us, O our Lord and our God, with a pure heart and good and beautiful deeds, to dwell in thy holy tabernacle, and to walk (therein); O Being who art from everlasting, we confess, worship, and glorify (thee) at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalm 18. Thee, O glorious strength of thy servants, and strong hope of thy worshippers, and mighty refuge of them that fear thee, helper and exalter of the horn of their salvation, we are bound to confess, worship, and glorify, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 19, 20, 21. Thee, who art hidden from all in thy being, and art revealed and shinest forth in wondrous deeds of thy dispensation, the power of whose might heaven and earth declare, we are bound, etc.

OF HULALA III. Psalms 22, 23, 24. Thy glorious Godhead, full of mercies and compassion, and hope, life, and salvation for all creatures, we are bound, etc.

Of Psalms 25, 26, 27. Lo, on thee, O our Lord and our God, hangeth the eye of our souls; in thee is our hope and confident trust; and of thee we ask forgiveness of our offences. Grant (this) in thy lovingkindness and mercies, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 28, 29, 30. Unto thee, O my Lord, do we cry, and in thee we take refuge, and of thee we ask forgiveness of trespasses and sins. Grant this in thy lovingkindness and mercies, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA IV. Of Psalms 31, 32. We beseech thee, who art our trust and confident hope, our help and our protection, and the great refuge of our weakness, turn, O my Lord, and pity us and have mercy upon us, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 33, 34. Thee, who art glorified by the righteous, and worshipped by the upright in heart, and confessed and blessed in heaven and in earth, are we bound to confess, worship, and glorify, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 35, 36. We beseech thee, who judgest right judgment, and whose searching is full of justice, whose vengeance is full of mercy and pity, turn, O my Lord, and pity us and have mercy upon us, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA V. Of Psalm 37. Thee, who art good and kind, compassionate and full of mercies, great King of glory, Being who art from everlasting, we confess, worship, and glorify, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA VI. Of Psalms 41, 42, 43. Thee, who art rich in thy love and overflowing with thy compassion, kind in thy goodness, unspeakable in thy glory, great King of glory, Being who art from everlasting, we confess, worship, and glorify, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 44, 45, 46. Thee, O our Creator, who givest us benefits, and holdest and rulest our souls by the mild purpose of thy will, great King of glory, etc.

Of Psalms 47, 48, 49. Thee, O excellent and glorious King, whose majesty the nations and peoples, clapping their hands, do worship, are we bound to confess, worship, and glorify, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA VII. Of Psalms 50, 51, 52. Thee, O God of gods and Lord of lords, great King of glory, Being who art from eternity, we confess, worship, and glorify, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 53, 54, 55. We beseech thee, who destroyest the ungodly, and scatterest the proud, and overthrowest the strong, who ever raisest in (thy) lovingkindness them that fear thy holy Name, turn, O my Lord, and pity and have mercy upon us, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 56, 57, 58. Have mercy upon us, O our Lord and our God, and pardon, wipe out, and take away our offences in the overflowing mercies of thy lovingkindness, O thou Merciful one, who forgivest trespasses and sins, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA VIII. Of Psalms 59, 60, 61. Deliver us, O our Lord and our God, from the wiles and snares of the apostate Enemy by thy great and strong power, and by thy high and invincible arm, O thou who art good, and on whom is placed our confident hope, at all times and seasons, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 62, 63, 64. On thee, O my Lord, our souls wait, and to thy compassion the eyes of our hearts look, and of thee we ask forgiveness of our offences. Grant this in thy lovingkindness and mercies, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 65, 66, 67. Thee beseemeth praise in thy chosen Church, and to thee is owed confession in glorious Zion; thee becometh worship in thine exalted dwelling-place, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA IX. Of Psalm 68. May the eternal mercies of thy glorious Trinity, O our Lord and our God, protect thy sinful and weak servants, who call on thee and beseech thee, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 69, 70. Save, O my Lord, thy people from the flood of destruction, and draw our souls out of the tempests of sin. And may thy truth support us, and make us to walk in the paths of righteousness, all the days of our life, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA X. Of Psalms 71, 72. In thee, O my Lord, do we put our hope, and in thy mercies do we place our confident trust, and of thy lovingkindness we make request; be, O my Lord, a helper to our weakness and a refuge to our confusion, a saviour to our affliction and a pardoner to our sinfulness, a gatherer together of our scattered state and an equipper of our need. And turn not thy face from the sound of our beseeching, O thou who art good, and in whom is placed our confident trust, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 73, 74. Thee, who art patient in spirit in thy lovingkindness and a two-fold avenger in thy justice, great King of glory, etc., as before.

Or this. Thee, O our good God and King, who art full of mercies, the power of whose majesty reigneth over all, whose mercies and compassion overflow, are we bound, etc.

Of Psalms 75, 76, 77. We confess, O our Lord and our God, the mercy of thy lovingkindness to us, and worship the care of thy goodwill towards us, and lift up to thee praise, and honour, and confession, and worship, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA XI. Of Psalm 78. We beseech thee, O wise Ruler and wondrous Governor of thy household, great Treasure who pourest forth all helps and benefits in thy mercy, turn, O my Lord, and pity, etc., as before.

Of Psalms 79, 80, 81. Save, O my Lord, thy people, and bless thine inheritance, and make thy glory to dwell in the temple which is set apart for thy honour, all the days of the world, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA XII. Of Psalms 82, 83, 84. Thee, O King whom kings worship, and the adorable honour of whose majesty companies and ten thousands of angels and archangels, standing with great fear and trembling, serve and celebrate, we are bound, etc.

Of Psalms 85, 86. Be gracious, O my Lord, to the prayer of thy servants, and be pleased with the service of thy worshippers; pardon the trespasses of them that glorify thee, and take away the heat of thine anger from them of thy household, O thou who art good and carest for our lives, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 87, 88. Confirm, O my Lord, the foundations of thy Church in thy compassion, and strengthen her bars in thy lovingkindness, and make thy glory to dwell in the temple which is set apart for the honour of thy service, all the days of the world, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA XIII. Of Psalm 89. Pour forth on us, O my Lord, thy graces, and multiply thy helps to us, and strengthen us, as thou art wont, to please thee according to thy will, and to walk after thy commandments and propitiate thy Godhead in good deeds of righteousness, all the days of our life, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 90, 91, 92. Thee, who holdest all by the power of thy word, and rulest the worlds and creatures by the mild purpose of thy will, great King of glory, etc., as before.

OF HULALA XIV. Of Psalms 93, 94, 95. Thee, adorable and glorious, excellent and magnificent, exalted above all in thy being, great King of glory, etc.

Of Psalms 96, 97, 98. A new praise, O my Lord, and exalted confession, suppliant worship, and continual thanksgiving are we bound to lift up to thy glorious Trinity, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 99, 100, 101. Thee, who sittest on the chariot of the cherubim, and art celebrated by the bands of angels, whose purpose moveth the earth, and whose commandment maketh the whole world to tremble, are we bound, etc.

OF HULALA XV. Of Psalms 102, 103. O thou who hast compassion on the trespasses of sins in the multitude of thy longsuffering, have compassion, O our Lord and our God, on the misery, desolation, and error of our feeble nature, in the overflowing mercies of thy lovingkindness, O Merciful one, who forgivest trespasses and sins, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalm 104. Thee, who art clothed with excellence and splendour and decked with unspeakable light, by whose purpose the worlds were created and created things set fast, are we bound, etc.

Of Psalm 105. Let us confess thee, O our good God, and call on thy Name to help us; and let our lips speak of thy glory, for thou art the Lord who art good to thy worshippers, and hast mercy on all, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA XVI. Of Psalm 106. Grant us, O my Lord, to confess thy lovingkindness, and make us worthy to relate thy wonders; and strengthen us to confess, worship, and glorify the hidden and glorious strength of thy glorious Trinity, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 107, 108. Thy lovingkindness, O my Lord, is everlasting, and in it both high and low take refuge. May it stand before our trespasses, and keep us from the Evil one and his hosts, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

Or this. May thy lovingkindness, O my Lord, hear the words with which we cry in our afflictions; and do thou rescue us from persecutors, and protect us under thy wings from the Evil one and his hosts, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 109, 110, 111. O my Lord, save thy people from the wicked, and deliver thy flock from the crafty; rescue thy Church from the haters and enemies of thy Name. For thou art the praise of our strength and the crown of our boasting, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA XVII. Of Psalms 112, 113, 114, 115. Grant us, O my Lord, to be thine and to fear thee; to be moved by thy word and to dread thy decree, to take heed to thy commandments and to appease thy Godhead with good deeds of righteousness, all the days of our life, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 116, 117, 118. May the overflowing, blessed, and unspeakable mercies of thy glorious Trinity come to the assistance of thy worshippers who call on thee and beseech thee, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Or this. Have mercy on us, O our Lord and our God, and hear our prayers and receive our request; turn not thy face from the sound of our beseeching, O thou who art good, and on whom rests our confident trust at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalm 119 (vv. 1-89). We beseech thee, who art good and givest good things to them that are good; who art just and lovest them that are just; who art holy and dwellest in the holy, and whose will is appeased (by them), turn, O my Lord, and pity and have mercy upon us, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA XVIII. Of Psalm 119 (from v. 89). Thee, O Being who hast neither beginning nor end, hidden and incomprehensible nature, everlasting and unbounded, Creator, Maker, and Ruler of all, are we bound, etc.

Of Psalms 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125. To thee we cry in our afflictions, in thee we take refuge in our distresses, of thee we ask forgiveness of our offences. Grant this in thy lovingkindness and mercies, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131. Turn us towards thee in thy compassion, and receive us into thy household, O good Shepherd, who didst go out to seek us, and didst find us when we were lost, and willest that we should return in thy lovingkindness and mercies, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA XIX. Of Psalms 132, 133, 134, 135. We beseech thee, who art the hope of the just, the confident trust of the righteous, the great refuge of the distressed, the help of them that call on thy holy Name, turn, O my Lord, and pity us and have mercy upon us, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 136, 137, 138. Thee, O our good God and King full of mercies, who didst order lights<sup>1</sup> for the joy of our service, that in their light we might rejoice and have joy all the days of our life, are we bound, etc.

Of Psalms 139, 140, 141. To thee, O Searcher of our thoughts and Investigator of our hearts, who dost know our secrets and dost furnish us with blessings, who dost establish the heights and the depths in thy lovingkindness and mercies, we lift up praise, and honour, and confession, and worship, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA XX. Of Psalms 142, 143, 144. To thee, O my Lord, we cry, that thou mayest come to assist us ; in thee we take refuge, that thou mayest be found to help us ; and of thee we beg that thou mayest aid our weakness, that we may keep thy lifegiving and divine commandments. Grant this in thy lovingkindness and mercies, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Of Psalms 145, 146, 147 (vv. 1-12). Thee, O King of kings and Lord of lords, the power of whose majesty holdeth and ruleth heaven and earth and all that is in them, are we bound, etc.

Of Psalms 147 (from v. 12), 148, 149, 150. O my Lord, answer thy Church, which calleth to thee with contrition, and receive the beseeching of thy flock, which knocketh at the door of thy majesty. Fulfil in her the promise which (thou madest) to her, that the doors of Sheol and its tyrants should not prevail against her for ever. Confirm in her thy only begotten word, (spoken) to Peter, who planted her, in Jerusalem which is above, Lord of all, etc.

OF HULALA XXI. Of Exodus xv. 1-22 and Isaiah xlii. 10-14, xlv. 8. Thee, O excellent and magnificent, strong and glorious, mighty and warlike, powerful and full of mercies, great King of glory, etc., as before.

Of Deut. xxxii. 1-21.<sup>2</sup> Pour into our hearts, O my Lord, the good seed of thy doctrine, and cause to descend on us the dew of thy lovingkindness, that we may grow according to thy will, and bring forth fruits which please thy majesty, all the days of our life, Lord of all, etc.

Of Deut. xxxii. 21<sup>1</sup>-44. We beseech thee, O jealous and just one, who in thy jealousy destroyest the wicked, and in thy wrath rootest out the evildoers, and keepest (thy) promise and lovingkindness to them that fear thy holy Name, turn, O my Lord, and pity and have mercy on us, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Prayer<sup>2</sup> for all days when the Eucharist is to be celebrated. For thy nature, which is hidden and incomprehensible, and unbounded by the thought and folly of all creatures, O my Lord, glory is fitting and the sound of praise is right. Worship is seemly and due from all whom thou hast created and formed in heaven and in earth, Lord of all, etc.

If the Eucharist is celebrated, they add the Qaltha.<sup>3</sup>

QALTA.<sup>4</sup> Monday. The habitation that is apart amidst the woods<sup>5</sup> floateth and passeth by. And the overflowings of water convey it to the mountains of Qardu. Ps. xv., xvi., xvii., under one Gloria. (Each side says two clauses at a time.)

Tuesday. O thou who cultivatest the earth and makest the mountains to hang with richness. Cultivate our minds, that they may bear (thy) kindly yoke. Ps. xxv., xxvi., xxvii.

Wednesday. By the prayers of thy Mother, O our Lord, have pity on our lives. And by the request of the just and chaste, answer those who call on thy Name. Ps. xlv.

Thursday. What is this that the nations have left their gods. And swear in the name of a man,<sup>6</sup> who is not as thou sayest? Ps. xcvi., xcvi., xcvi.

Prayer before the Motwa. May the prayer of our feebleness please thee, O our Lord and our God, and may the request of our weakness enter before thee, and may thy mercies greatly intercede for our sinfulness; and from the great treasury of thy compassion may the petitions of our need be answered, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

THE MOTWA,<sup>1</sup> an anthem which varies according to the season, except on Wednesdays, when the Special Anthems are said.<sup>2</sup> The Motwa (which is found in the Kashkul for ferias) begins on Mondays with the Sunday evening Royal Anthem; on Tuesdays with the Sunday Night Anthem; on Thursdays with the Sunday Morning Anthem; on Saturdays with the Sunday Anthem of the Mysteries, as used at the Liturgy. It ends daily on ferias as follows, except on Wednesdays, and except in the Fast and the Rogation of the Ninevites:

From<sup>3</sup> everlasting to everlasting. O merciful God, pity thy people. And make not thine inheritance a scorn and mockery to the nations. Look from thine abode and see the oppression. Which we suffer from the enemies. And let thy lovingkindness quickly shine forth upon us. That the nations say not, Where is their God? O merciful God, keep thy servants. From them that hate (us) without a cause, and wish to seize that which is not their own. Fence us round with thy strong truth. That they which hate us may see and be confounded. Surround us with thy care as with a wall. That we may be protected within it and confess thy lovingkindness.* By the prayer of her who bore thee, O our Lord Jesus. Give peace to all the world, which is disturbed and

TISHBUKHTA.<sup>2</sup>

Monday, by Mar Abraham, Doctor.<sup>3</sup> Turn to the prayer of thy servants, O our Saviour. And receive our request and return answer to our petitions.* Because thou art the refuge and hope of the weak. By thy help may we conquer the wiles of the Evil one.* For lo, he at all times setteth snares for our souls. And wisheth, in his cunning, to defile us with his wickedness.* Send, O my Lord, thy strength, and let it destroy his enticements. That he may not pursue after us, and that we fall not into the gulf of sin.* May the strength of thy lovingkindness strengthen our weakness. That we may<sup>4</sup> be approved before thee in our deeds, O Compassionate one.* And make us worthy to sing to thee in the day of thy coming. The praise that ceaseth not for ever and ever, Amen.

Tuesday, by<sup>3</sup> Mar Awa, Catholicos, or, as some say, by Mar Thomas of Urhai.<sup>5</sup> The heights and the depths, and all that is in them, are not sufficient. To confess thine Essence, O Being who fashionest all.* They are too small to tell thy love towards us. And the greatness of thy lovingkindness and thy manifold mercies.* Which thou didst grant to our race, unworthy though we were. O thou who art good and kind, and didst put on<sup>6</sup> our nature.* And didst save it<sup>7</sup> from death and raise it<sup>8</sup> to heaven. And didst make it<sup>9</sup> higher than every lord and ruler.* And lo, the assemblies of angels worship before thee. And cry without ceasing, all with one accord.* Holy art thou, O Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. To thee be glory from all, for ever and ever. Amen.

And remove from us the canker of our wickedness.* Because thou knowest the suffering of our race. With thy good medicine heal our wounds.* Bestow thy compassion on our scars. And heal us, O our Lord, as thou art wont.* And with the dew of thy lovingkindness. Let us cleanse our stains according to thy will.* And grant us with one accord to confess thy Name. Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.* Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.<sup>2</sup> For ever and ever, Amen and Amen.

Thursday, by Mar Ephraim.<sup>1</sup> Receive, O our Lord, the request of us all. Who make our offerings to thee with beseeching.* Hear, O God, the voice of thy servants. And the entreaty of them that glorify thee.* For thou art our King, and in thy great Name. We have hope and confidence.* Grant us to gain unanimity. Without doubting, in the faith.* While we confess that by thy will. All things were fashioned from nought.* The nature of thine existence cannot be understood. By creatures, O hidden Being.* Who dwellest in light, and like whom there is none. And whom men cannot approach.* By thy fashionings, O my Lord, is made known. The greatness of thy wealth, to the work of thy hands.* For thou art Lord and Maker. Who art all-powerful and suppliest all.* We earnestly desire forgiveness of trespasses. Bestow (it) on us, as thou art wont.* And grant us from our souls. To apply medicines to our wounds.* We ask for mercies, O Lord of all. Supply thy wealth to our need.* And if any waver and go astray. In the error of the wile of the enemy.* May thy compassion be their guide. And tread out the way for their consciences.* That they may know that it is by thy care. That our captive nature hath gained freedom.* And that with one, perfect, and pure heart. We may serve before thee according to thy will.*

THE MORNING MARTYRS' ANTHEMS

MONDAY MORNING.

My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord. At morning time, when are opened. The doors on high to prayer. Receive, O our Lord, our request. Ps. v. 3.
And return answer to our petitions in thy mercies. And grant hope and salvation. To the souls who wait for thee.

And in the morning will I be ready, and will appear before thee. The morning of our Lord hath seen him come. Ib.
And suddenly our Saviour shineth forth. And giveth a reward to the just. Blessed is he who hath prospered. And hath worked in the vineyard of Christ. And hath received his reward abundantly.

O let us hear thy lovingkindness in the morning. Make us worthy, O our Lord, of that morning. When heaven and earth rejoice. And<sup>3</sup> the just Ps. cxliiii. 8.
rejoice in their labours. And the righteous in their recompense. And the martyrs also in their crowns. And the nations in the forgiveness of their trespasses.

And in the morning shall my prayer come before thee. At morning time prayed. Moses the chosen, on the top of the mount. And there God Ps. lxxxviii. 13.
answered him. And gave him the staff of help. That he might descend and save Israel. From the subjection of the Egyptians.

To show thy lovingkindness in the morning. At morning time Moses saw. A terrible vision on the top of the mount. God praised with processions. Cherubim bearing his throne. Seraphim singing Holy in his honour. And angels serving him.

Sing to the Lord with harps and with a voice of singing. At morning time sang. David the boy with his harp. Songs of the Holy Ghost. And the beasts assembled and came. To the sweet sound of his words. When he sang Hallelujah.

And let us praise him with songs. At morning time the martyrs sang. A new song in the judgment hall. We will not deny Christ. Who for us endured. Suffering and death and the cross. And saved our race from error.

God hath sent forth his lovingkindness and truth. At morning time the dove. Was sent forth by perfect Noah. Because of the waters of the flood. And she turned and came to the ark. Bearing an olive leaf. A sign of peace and tranquillity.

Thou hast given a token for such as fear thee. At morning time a sign. Of peace and tranquillity was seen. The bow of our Lord in the clouds. And the mouth of the Creator sware. I will not cause a flood. Henceforward and for ever.

In the sight of all the people. In the morning the martyrs in the judgment hall. Raised and lifted up their voices. We do not worship idols. We worship one God. And confess his Son Jesus. He will deliver<sup>1</sup> us from the fire.

Be strong, and your heart shall be established. In the morning the martyrs in the judgment hall. Comfort one another and say. The Lord (is) our helper, we will not fear. What man doeth unto us. Whose crown and power come to nought. But the kingdom of the Lord is for ever.

O hear ye this, all ye people. At morning time was heard. The voice which said to the athletes. Take up your crosses and come after me. For I am your Lord and your Master. Your God and Strengthener. And ye are my disciples. Ps. xlix. 1.

He executeth judgment for them that suffer wrong. In the morning the faithful Shmuni.<sup>1</sup> Offered prayer to God. O God, execute judgment for me. Against the unrighteous Antiochus. Who killeth my sons as lambs. And threateneth me as a lion. Ps. cxlvi. 6.

And your prayers be on all of us. Gadai and Maccabæus, with Tersai. Hebron and Khiusun, with Bakus. And the seventh son, Jonadab. And their teacher, Eleazar. And their mother, faithful Shmuni. May their<sup>2</sup> prayer be a wall to us.

The camp of the angels of the Lord. At morning time the martyrs went forth. Many a company of saints. From the prison, saying. Hasten, O king, to cut off our heads.<sup>3</sup> That we may depart and go up to heaven. To our Lord who waiteth for us. Ps. xxxiv. 7.

For he hath done a marvellous thing. That which was wrought was a marvel. From one end of the world to the other. In the beloved boy Cyriac. Whom at the age of three years. Grace overshadowed. And he was strengthened in the faith. Ps. xcvi. 1.

Righteous and upright. May<sup>4</sup> thy prayer, O martyr, be to us. A high wall and refuge. That<sup>5</sup> the arrows of the Evil one may go astray. That he pierce us not with his barb. Who hateth our race at all times. And ever wisheth for our destruction. Deut. xxxii. 4.

O come and hearken, and I will tell you. Hearken and wonder, ye discerners. A Virgin hath borne Ps. lxvi. 14. in Bethlehem. The light of the whole world. And lo, her memorial is celebrated with processions. In the four quarters of creation. And in heaven amongst the angels.

Glory be, etc. Glory to thee at morning time. From high and low. O Son who sittest on the right hand. For with the sound of the horn are awaked. Old men and young men and children. Whom thou hast created for thy glory.

From everlasting to everlasting. Blessed is he who hath traded. As thou, O our father,<sup>2</sup> hast traded. And hath collected spiritual riches. And hath filled his ship with all good things. And hath prospered and come to the haven. To the set place of all just men.

And let all the people say Amen and Amen. O our Lord, thy kingdom come. And thy will be done on earth. Ps. cvi. 46. As it is in heaven. Give us the bread of our need. And lead us not into temptation. But deliver us from the Evil one.* May the help which followed. Moses, the firstborn of the prophets. And which divided the sea before the people. Follow thy worshippers. Who have come to ask forgiveness. From the treasury of thy kindness.

TUESDAY MORNING.

They went from one nation to another. Ye departed from country to country. But departed not from your Lord. And in every country that ye entered.<sup>1</sup> Ye placed a storehouse of life.

Ps. cv. 13.

The Lord will abide in it for ever. In the country where your bones are laid. Dwell peace and tranquillity. And the camp of the watchful ones on high. Keepeth it and its inhabitants.

Ps. lxxviii. 16.

Happy are the people that are in such a case. Happy is the country where are laid. Your bones as storehouses. And when the light of the sun is darkened. The light from your bones shineth forth.<sup>2</sup>

Ps. cxliv. 15.

Unto the godly hath shone forth light in the darkness. A light hath shone forth from your bones. And hath made my captive mind (to follow) after you. And I went forth to see your deaths. And wondered in myself at your crowns.

Ps. cxii. 4.

More to be desired are they than gold and than precious stones. Your bones are pearls. And your bodies are the fragrance of incense. The blood which flowed from your necks. Brought favour<sup>3</sup> to all creation.

Ps. xix. 10.

Shall they that are in the graves show thy lovingkindness? Lo, in the Church are your bones. And ye have the keys of the heights. O blessed ones, open your treasures. And give help to the needy.

Ps. lxxxviii. 11.

 his peace to dwell in the four quarters (of the earth). And when our Lord is revealed and the clouds bear up your bodies. Pray that with you we may inherit the kingdom.

My<sup>1</sup> voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord. In the Ps. v. 3. morning the martyrs cried in the judgment hall before the persecutors. We will not deny the heavenly Bridegroom. For he it is who delivereth us from the hands of the ungodly. And clotheth our bodies with glory in his kingdom.

And<sup>1</sup> in the morning I will be ready, and will appear before thee.

 crowneth you, shineth forth. O prophets, apostles, martyrs, and confessors. And placeth on your heads crowns of glory which fade not. Pray that with you we may inherit the kingdom.

Unto the godly hath shone forth light in the darkness. O martyrs, Ps. cxii. 4. sons of light, who hated the world and its good things. And desired and loved the heavenly Bridegroom. Make request and beseech for us your Lord whom ye desired. That he have pity on us and save our souls.

Blessed are those that are blameless in the way. Blessed
 Ps. cxix. 1. are ye martyrs who conquered Satan.
 And trod under foot the sting of death and of sin. May your prayer be to us a high wall and house of refuge. From the wiles of the Evil one, the Enemy.

And walk in the law of the Lord. A blessing that passeth not away, and a kingdom that is not destroyed. Hath our Saviour promised to the friends

FRIDAY MORNING.

I will always bless the Lord. Blessed is the hidden power which dwelt in the bones of the martyrs. For they are laid in their graves. And drive away devils from the world. By their teaching they brought to nought all the error of carved (idols). And they secretly visit creation, and teach (men) to worship thee. For thou art Lord alone.

Ps. xxxiv. 1.

And his praises are ever in my mouth. Blessed is Christ, who clothed his Twelve with strong armour. And they went forth to the four quarters (of the earth). And preached in the world his doctrine. And they destroyed the power of the enemy by the sword of the Spirit. And turned the nations from error. To the truth of their faith.

1b.

Great is our Lord, and exceeding glorious. Great is the truth of the holy martyrs, which is preached in all regions. Whom neither fire nor sword. Nor the wrath of the heathen king. Nor any other thing did move nor terrify. For God alone did they confess. And despised all tortures.

Ps. cxlv. 3.

Faithful is the Lord in his words. The just martyrs, who conquered and overcame, meditated on the faith. For they knew that that word was true. Which our Lord spake. Every one that confesseth me before judges and rulers. I will cause to inherit the kingdom on high, which is in heaven. And I will confess him before the Father.

Look to him and trust in him. With the eye of the Spirit, the sons of the right hand looked, and verily Ps. xxxiv. 5. saw. The country which is above. Within the veil of the Holy of Holies. And they desired it, and ran towards it by the way of the tortures of their persecutors. And, as by a bridge, they crossed the sea of the world by the cross. To Eden,<sup>1</sup> which is their dwelling.

Stretch forth thy right hand upon me. May the right hand of our Lord, which calleth all to the kingdom, bless Ps. cxxxviii. 7. our assembly. That we may keep vigil on the memorial of the martyrs. And that we also may be helped by their prayers. That they may be to our race a high wall in the last day. When the heights and the depths are amazed. And<sup>2</sup> the will of the Creator shall reign.

The camp of the angels of the Lord. My mind wondered at the blessed company of athletes, the famous Ps. xxxiv. 7. martyrs. How they despised and scorned. This world and its desires. In the glorious brightness of the pearl which is at the head of the cross.<sup>3</sup> With piercing eye they looked and saw it. And desired to seize it.

And your prayers be on all of us. By your prayers give help to the needy, O famous martyrs. For ye have filled the earth. With the good seed of your victories. And ye have dug up the thorn-bush which the Evil one sowed with his tares. And ye sowed therein good seed. O athletes, workers of truth.

How good and beautiful. The athletes saw a pearl without flaw on the top of Golgotha. And desired Ps. cxxxiii. 1. earnestly to attain to it. And bought it with their own blood. And they endured sufferings and dire tortures for it. And lo, the reward of their labours is laid up (for them).<sup>4</sup> Joy without end.

While they cry to him with the voice of Hallelujahs, and say. Blessed is he who hath exalted his saints.

He<sup>1</sup> set my feet upon the rock, and ordered my goings. On the foundation of the truth of Simon Peter. Built the true Diodorus and Theodorus. With Nestorius and great Ephraim. And Mar Nersai and Mar Bar-Şoma, a blessed pair. With Abraham and Job and John. And Michael, heirs of the Church. Ps. xl. 2.

That<sup>1</sup> it never should move at any time. On the foundation of the truth of Mar Antony the saints built. Mar Saurishu, and Mar Khnanishu, and Mar John, son of the Seers. And Maran-'amih<sup>2</sup> of Zin, and Mar Shuwkha-l'maran,<sup>3</sup> peace be to him. And Raban<sup>4</sup> Pransi, and Mar Joseph, and Mar Abraham.<sup>5</sup> And Mar Qnuwaya, and Ishu-sauran,<sup>6</sup> and Raban<sup>4</sup> Hurmizd. May their prayer be a wall to us. Ps. civ. 5.

Blessed are those that are blameless in the way. On the foundation of the twelve and the seventy apostles the noble ones built. Mar Augin and Mar Shalita. And Mar Kudhahwai, with Mar Babai.<sup>7</sup> And the pious Mar James of Şuwa. And Mar Abraham,<sup>8</sup> and Mar Akha, and Mar John. May their prayer be a wall to us. Ps. cxix. 1.

I will always bless the Lord. Blessed is Christ who strengthened the martyr Mar Cyriac in his contest. Ps. xxxiv. 1. To stand against the persecutor. And he waxed strong and conquered the kings who contended with him. And by the strength of the Spirit he did valiantly. And endured stripes, and became a sacrifice for his Lord. And received the crown of victory.

Rejoice, sing and glorify. With rejoicing the famous martyr Mar George gave up his soul to all afflictions. For he heard Paul saying. That the sufferings of this time are not to be compared. To that glory which the just inherit at the last day. And he who here laboureth and doeth nobly. Even he shall be an inheritor of it.

Ps. xvi. 12.

The eyes of all hang on thee. On thee, O Christ our Saviour. Lo, the eyes<sup>2</sup> of the distressed hang. And heal thou the pains and sicknesses. Of those who have fallen into temptations. As thou didst promise in thy Gospel. Which is full of life and joys. Whoso diligently knocketh. At the door of my majesty, it is opened to him. Ps. cxlv. 15.

Thou art merciful, O Lord, and righteous. Thou art compassionate from everlasting. And merciful for all generations. How great is the iniquity of creation. In the overflowing mercies of thy lovingkindness. Sprinkle the face of our nature. With the dew of mercy and pity. And rescue us from the hand of the Evil one. And from the tares, the sons of error. Ps. cxvi. 5.

A great King above all gods. O King of kings, our helper. Thou art Christ our Saviour. Pity thy servants who call to thee. In these times of affliction. For lo, sorrows surround us. And terrors on all sides. Let thy mercies quickly prevent us. And make thy face to shine and save us. Ps. xcvi. 3.

The Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace. Bless our assembly, O our Saviour. And make thy grace to dwell in it. And give us strength to glorify thee. The assemblies of them that are above with them that are below. And (grant) us all to love one another. And obtain love and concord. Even as the Spiritual ones obtained. The one wish, to be approved by thee.

We that are thy people and sheep of thy pasture. Keep, O our Lord, in thy compassion. The great assembly of thy flock. That the devil be not puffed up and attack it. As of old time. Send thy power from on high. And let it be a wall to our camp. And let it stand before us, that we be not harmed. And may the sheep of thy pasture be kept safe.

Great is the power of prayer which a righteous man prayeth. Great is the power of prayer. To which love and peace are joined. And it wipeth out a multitude of sins. (And) bringeth (us) to the knowledge of the Lord. And giveth a reward and recompense. And openness of face to the faithful. In the great day of searching. When the good are separated from the evil.

O let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee. Prayer is the key of creation. It openeth the door of the kingdom. And giveth a reward and recompense. From the treasury which enricheth all. By it, O my Lord, let thy grace open. The door of thy gift to the needy. And pour forth thy mercies on thy servants. Who take refuge in thee and call on thy Name.

Thus he speaketh in visions with his saints. Thou spakest by the prophets. O Lord of the prophets and apostles. I desire not your deaths. O sinners, turn from your iniquity. In the evening and morning, and at noonday. To work in the spiritual vineyard. Hast thou called us, O our Lord, in thy lovingkindness. Grant us to fulfil thy will. In perfecting the fruits of thy commandments. For thou art the true vine. And thy Father is the vine-dresser. And we all are the branches. Receive the fruits of our lips. Ps. lv. 18.

Show thy servant the light of thy countenance, and save me in thy lovingkindness. Show unto our souls, O Father. The light of the brightness of thy Only-begotten. And let our minds ever be illuminated. By the beams of thy lovingkindness. And let the fire of thy love burn in us. And be kindled thereby at all times. And without ceasing let us raise to thee. Glory, O Being who art Lord of all. Ps. xxxi. 18.

I have gone astray like a sheep that is lost ; O seek thy servant. From the number of the hundred of thy flock. O good and true shepherd. I alone have gone astray. And by my wickednesses I have provoked thee. O my Lord, neglect not my request. For thou alone hast compassion on all. But seek me in thy compassion. And forgive my trespasses in thy lovingkindness. Ps. cxix. 176.

Holy and reverend is his name. O our Lord, thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth. As it is in heaven. Among the Spiritual ones who serve thee. Give us the bread of our need. And lead us not into temptation. But deliver us from the Evil one. For thine is the kingdom. Ps. cxi. 9.

He sitteth on high and beholdeth the depth. O thou that sittest on the right hand of the Father. With thy right hand bless our assembly. And with thy mighty arm. Keep them that are bought with thy blood. Let thy light drive out from thy Church. The darkness of ignorance. With the just who were approved before thee. Make us worthy to inherit the kingdom. ## FEASTS OF OUR LORD

On Feasts of our Lord they recite the Psalter from the beginning, and say eleven Hulali (Ps. i. to lxxxix. incl.), with farcings and the proper prayers before each Hulala and each Marmitha (see above, page 86). But they do not say Hallelujah between each Hulala; and each side says two clauses at a time.<sup>2</sup> They say Ps. lxxviii., farced thus: between each pair of clauses Hallelu, four times, Hallelujah in the Nativity of Christ [or Baptism, etc.].<sup>3</sup>

Prayer before the Motwa on Feasts. We beseech thee, O Treasure of helps and Fountain of all benefits, overflowing Sea of compassion and mercy, great Abyss of pardon and pity, turn, O my Lord, and have pity and mercy upon us, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

They say the FIRST MOTWA as in the Geza.

At the end of the Motwa they pray. To thy wonderful and unspeakable dispensation, as at the Evening Service, page 80.

They say the proper CANON, TISHBUKHTA, and KARUZUTHA<sup>4</sup> for the day.

Prayer. Of thee, who art full of mercies and compassion, and of the great riches of the kindness of thy love, and the overflowing treasure of thy compassion, we ask help and

Feasts of our Lord and Memorials, Hulali 12, 13, 14, farced.

Christmas and Epiphany, add Hulala 15.

First Sunday 'before,' Hulali 5, 6, 7; and Ps. lxxxix., sung.

Second Sunday 'before,' Hulali 9, 10, 11; Ps. lxxxix. is sung.

First Sunday 'after,' Hulali 12, 13, 14; and Ps. cxxx., sung.

Second Sunday 'after,' Hulali 16, 17, 18; Ps. cxxx. is sung.

In consequence of these simplifications, the whole of the first part of the office is somewhat altered in R. C., especially on feasts, to the end of the Motwa.

<sup>3</sup> In practice the farcing is sometimes only said after each second, or fourth, or even each sixth clause.

strength, deliverance, preservation, and healing for the pains of our bodies and souls. Grant this to us in thy loving-kindness and mercies, as thou art wont, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Another. Blessed and adorable, high and exalted and incomprehensible, are the eternal mercies of thy glorious Trinity, which freely have compassion on sinners, O our good Hope and Refuge full of mercies, who forgivest trespasses and sins, Lord of all, etc.

They say six Hulali (Ps. lxxxii. to cxix. 88 incl.) in the same manner as before.

Prayer. O thou who openest thy door, etc.

SECOND MOTWA and CANONS from the Geza.

In the THIRD MOTWA of The Company of the Catholici they say the rest of the Psalter, but Deut. xxxii. 21a-44 is said with proper farcings from the Khudhra.

QALI D'SHAHRA.<sup>3</sup>

They say another Hulala, with the following prayers:—

Prayer of the First Qala. May the sounds of our Hallelujahs please thee, O our Lord and our God, and the melodies of our songs; and accept from us in thy lovingkindness the spoken<sup>4</sup> fruits of our lips, which with praise we offer to thy glorious Trinity, night and day, Lord of all, etc.

Prayer of the Second Qala. Make us worthy, O our Lord and our God, with the watchful ones and the companies of angels, with voices full of confession to sing praise to thy glorious Trinity, night and day, Lord of all, etc.

Prayer of the Third Qala. Continual glory, O my Lord, and unceasing Hallelujahs and endless praises, and voices full of confession, every nature of rational beings whom thou hast created is bound to raise to thy glorious Trinity, night and day, Lord of all, etc.

The Qali d'Shahra for Feasts are found in the Geza. Two clauses are said at a time by each side, and Hallelujah between the clauses of each pair; some say Hallelujah twice, some thrice. They say the Gloria in the same way. If the Feast does not fall on a Sunday, they kneel down between the Qali.

NIGHT ANTHEMS.

Prayer of the first Night Anthem. By the speaking mouths, O my Lord, which thou hast created, and by the glorifying tongues which thou hast appointed, and by all the companies on high and below, may the Name of thy Godhead and of thy majesty be worshipped, glorified, honoured, exalted, confessed, and blessed in heaven and earth, Lord of all, etc.

Prayer<sup>1</sup> of the second Anthem. May thy Godhead, O my Lord, be pleased with our service, and may our prayers be received before thee, and may thy mercies greatly intercede for our wickedness, and from thy great treasury may our petitions be answered in our need, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Prayer<sup>1</sup> of the third Anthem. Come, O my Lord, to the help of thy worshippers, who keep vigil on the festival of N; and reveal thyself to us in thy mercy, and hearken to the words of our prayers, which on thy holy festival we offer to thee, Lord of all.

Prayer<sup>1</sup> after the Night Anthem. Make us worthy, O our Lord and our God, by pure thoughts and sweet and holy melodies, with the heavenly hosts and the Wise Men and the Shepherds, to celebrate the holy festival of the Nativity of Christ our Lord and Saviour, in thy lovingkindness and mercy, Lord of all, etc.

Or<sup>1</sup> this. Answer, O my Lord, them that keep vigil in thy

They say the proper CANON<sup>1</sup> and its Continuation, and the TISHBUKHTA, Praise to him who is good, as below (page 161). Then the proper KARUZUTHA.<sup>2</sup>

SUNDAYS

THE HULALI.<sup>3</sup>

On Sundays 'before' they say Hulali 5 to 11 inclusive (Ps. xxxvii. to lxxxi. incl.), without farcings or prayers of the Marmyatha. But the prayers of the Hulali are said, as on ferias. Between each Hulala they sing slowly, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, yea, Hallelujah. Glory be to thee, O God, twice. Hallelujah, Hallelujah, yea Hallelujah. O Lord, have mercy upon us. Let us pray, Peace be with us. Ps. lxxviii. and lxxxi. are farced with Hallelujah between each clause; these are sung slowly.

On Sundays 'after' they say Hulali 12 to 18 inclusive (Ps. lxxxii. to cxxxi. incl.), as before, farcing Ps. cxix. v. 89 to the end<sup>4</sup> and Ps. cxxx., with Hallelujah between each clause. These are sung slowly.

They sing the Qaltha of the day, as in the Khudhra, and the Psalms that follow.

Sundays throughout the year 'before.' Ps. lxxxvi. farced after the first clause, and then after every second clause, with Hallelujah. Then Ps. cxxi. ; then lxxxviii. 10, 11 ; then cxxxviii. 7, 8, from Stretch forth thy hand and save me ; each psalm farced as above, and so all that follow. Then Glory be, etc. Hallelujah, Hallelujah, yea, Hallelujah. From everlasting, etc. Repeat the first two clauses of Ps. lxxxvi., with Hallelujah, Hallelujah, yea, Hallelujah between them. So on all Sundays.

Sundays throughout the year 'after.' Ps. xci., cxxiii. 1-4 (omitting the last clause of v. 3), cii. 26, 27, cxxxviii. part of 7, 8, as above (ending as above).

Sundays of the Hallowing of the Church 'after.' Substitute Ps. lxxxiv. for Ps. xci. above.

Palm<sup>2</sup> Sunday. Ps. xcvi., xcvi., xcvi., then cxxi., etc., as on Sundays 'before.'

MOTWA.

Prayer before the Motwa for Sundays. May our prayer, O my Lord, please thee, and may our request come before thee, and from the great treasury of thy compassion may our petitions be answered in our need, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

They say the proper Motwa as given in the Khudhra ; then the prayer for the season as at the Evening Prayer. (Prayers after the Royal Anthem, page 80.)

MORNING SERVICE

FOR

SUNDAYS, FEASTS OF OUR LORD, AND MEMORIALS OF SAINTS<sup>1</sup>

Prayer before the Morning Psalms. Make us worthy, O our Lord and our God, according to the will of thy Godhead and thy glorious Majesty, to serve before thee purely and diligently, wakefully and earnestly, justly and uprightly, honestly and in holiness, and without blame. And may our service, O my Lord, please thee, and our prayer and vigil persuade thee, and our request propitiate thee, our beseeching honour thee, and our entreaty appease thee. And may the mercies and compassion of thy Godhead be for the pardon of the trespasses of thy people, and for the forgiveness of the sins of all the sheep of thy pasture, whom thou hast chosen for thyself in thy lovingkindness and mercies, O thou good Friend of the sons of men, Lord of all, etc.

They answer, Amen. Bless, O my Lord.

Another. Enlighten us, O my Lord, with thy light, and gladden us by thy coming; cause us to rejoice in thy salvation, and make us partakers of thy mysteries. And grant and vouchsafe<sup>2</sup> that, together with the heavenly companies clothed in light, and the bands of angels, with voices full of confession, we may sing praise to thy glorious Trinity, O Creator who rulest all, O Creator who needest not the service of creatures,

SUNDAY MORNING 'BEFORE.'

And ye are all the children of the most Highest. Or,<sup>4</sup> Ye are the martyrs of the Son and his chosen ones. The Ps. lxxxii. 6. martyrs of the holy Son. In a good course were crowned. By the preaching of the truth. And with <sup>1</sup> So T.; om. R. C., U. In practice the Martyrs' Anthem is seldom said on Sundays and festivals. Neither R. C. nor A. give these Anthems for Sundays, but in a few of the fuller manuscripts of the 'Before and after' they are to be found, and they are therefore given here.

the angels in heaven. Rejoice and glorify God. Being made intercessors on our behalf.

And praise becometh well the just. Famed and holy martyrs. Athletes of the faith. Beg for mercies from God. That he may send us help. Ps. xxxiii. 1.
And strengthen our weakness. By the overflowing mercies of his lovingkindness.

And sing<sup>1</sup> lustily with the voice. Tell me, martyrs, for whom. Ye endure torments and stripes. And have reckoned death but as sleep? We heard that our Saviour said. He who shall love his life<sup>2</sup> for my sake. Hath everlasting life. Ps. xxxiii. 3.

Let thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us. May that loving-kindness which preserved. The boy David from Saul. Keep the Church and its children. May priests have concord. Among kings may reconciliation prevail. And may martyrs have the crown of (their) confession. Ps. xxxiii. 21.

He divided<sup>3</sup> the rock and the water gushed out. Moses the Captain of the Hebrews. Caused water to gush out from the stone. And gave the rebellious people to drink. How much (more) then shall the bones. Of the martyrs which are placed in the Churches. Cause help to gush out to the sons of men? Ps. lxxviii. 21.

Open me the gates of righteousness. Open is the gate of Paradise. And the righteous enter in and dwell. By the fountain of help. And the Right hand receiveth them. Which planted Paradise. And placeth crowns on their heads. Ps. cxviii. 19.

headed Of the text, i.e. from the Bible (outside the Psalter), but many are not from the Bible at all. The style of these two anthems is very different from the other Martyrs' Anthems, and they seem to be of a later date.

Unto the godly hath shone forth light in the darkness. With light Ps. cxii. 4. 'which shone from the sun. As with a garment brighter than snow. Are the righteous clothed in Eden. And are glad and rejoice and exult. Among the trees of Paradise. When they hear the voice of the Son.

The light which shone forth for the righteous. Lamps of Ps. xcvi. 11. resplendent light. The martyrs hold in their hands. And wait for the Bridegroom of the Highest. That they may go in with him to the bridechamber.
 And their lamps go not out. On which their necks sprinkle blood.

Look unto him and trust in him. Ye martyrs saw Christ.
 Ps. xxxiv. 5. Bearing his cross<sup>1</sup> on his shoulder. And ye bore your crosses.<sup>1</sup> (And) went out to the four quarters (of the world). And made disciples of (all) creation.
 In the name of the Trinity.

They are not in the labours of other folk. The just who lay Ps. lxxiii. 5. down in thy hope. Sleep and are in peace, and at rest. And the watchful ones keep their bodies. And power descendeth from on high. And ever visiteth their bones. Until the day of resurrection.

For at the head of the book it is written of me. The company
 Ps. xl. 10. of Ananias in the furnace. Wrote an epistle to Daniel. Come, arise with us in prayer.
 Daniel wrote its answer. Fear ye not the fire. Which the persecutors have kindled for you.

O come, hearken, and I will tell you. Tell us, O Daniel, Ps. lxvi. 14. Child beloved of God. How thou didst see the Son. I saw him flying on the clouds. And like unto the Ancient of days. And his dominion is heaven and earth.

His tongue talketh of judgment. Tell us, O Robber. Of the Ps. xxxvii. 31. brightness of Paradise. And show us the tree of life. That we may pluck a benefit from it.
 Love, and hope, and salvation. An offering to the King of kings.

The king's daughter stood in glory. The Church is like unto Paradise. And the martyrs within her to trees. And their deaths to precious buds. Ps. xlv. 10. And blessed is he who hath drawn near. To the bones of the saints. And hath received help from them.

And the queen on her right hand. The Church went forth with hosannas. To meet the heavenly Bridegroom. And spake with him and said unto him. Come to me, for I have loved thee. And cast off Sion which hath hated thee. And I and my children will worship thee. 1b.

How good and beautiful. How seemly it is to sing praises. In this holy house. In which are prophets and apostles. And martyrs, and priests, and teachers. And in which is set up the Holy Table. For the pardon of the children of Adam. Ps. cxxxiii. 1.

As an eagle that flieth over his nest. Ye martyrs are like eagles. And more harmless than doves. And lighter than air. When on the sea he calleth, ye answer. And when on dry land, ye neglect (him) not. Deut. xxxii. 11. May your prayer be a wall to us.

Stretch forth thy hand and save me. O our Lord, O our Lord, was the cry. Of Simon Peter in the waves. Deliver me, O my Lord, for lo, I sink. Ps. cxxxviii. 7. Our Saviour stretched forth his right hand. And held him by the hand, and said unto him. Be strong, and be not in doubt.

In the days of old. A cherub with a sword and spear. Went around Paradise. Lest Adam, who had sinned, should enter in. And our Lord opened it by his cross. And prophets and apostles entered in. And Adam entered in as the son of the King. Ps. xlv. 1.

Give ear, Lord, unto my prayer. On the mount of Horeb, Elijah. Prayed before God. For the people who had trodden down the law. And he bound the doors of heaven. That rain should not come down in its season. On a people who had offended and done wickedly. Ps. lxxxvi. 6.

He spread on them a cloud, and overshadowed them. A cloud of fire went. Before the rebellious people. Ps. cv. 38. When they went out of Egypt. And while they rejected Christ. The holy martyrs received him. And lo, their memorial is in creation.

How good and beautiful. How beautiful are the companies. And how sweet the voices of the choirs. Of the martyrs who are laid in the churches. And who ask for mercies and compassion. And forgiveness of trespasses and sins. For the children of Adam (who was) of dust.

For he hath done a marvellous thing. That which was wrought, etc., as above, page 111.

O hear ye this, all ye people. In the morning faithful Shmuni, etc., as above, page 111.

And your prayers be on all of us. Gadai and Maccabæus, etc., as above, page 111.

Like as the arrow in the hand of the giant. How hard was the arrow, etc., as above, page 112.

There shall I make the horn to spring forth for David. From the house of David and Abraham. The Creator chose a Virgin. And caused his hidden power to dwell in her. And by the power of the Holy Ghost. She conceived and bore Christ. The Judge of the heights and the depths.

Glory be, etc. Glory be to thee, O my Lord, for that thou wast pleased. With the fragrance of the death of thy saints. The martyrs who suffered for thee. And because they loved thee on the earth. Thou didst exalt them in heaven. Glory be to thee, who exaltest thy servants.

From everlasting to everlasting. Above in the heights among the watchful ones. Is appointed thy memorial, O our father.<sup>1</sup> With the just who prevailed and conquered. And also with the martyrs who were crowned. Christ the King, whom thou didst love. Maketh thee an heir of the bride-chamber on high.

And let all the people say Amen and Amen. O our Lord may thy kingdōm come. And may thy will be done on earth. As it is in heaven. And give us the bread of our need. And lead us not into temptation. But deliver us from the Evil one.* On the first day<sup>1</sup> there is no affliction. Nor torments for the wicked. The fire of Gehenna is extinguished. And every one remaineth at ease. And all cry with one voice. Great is the first day of the week.* Great is the first day of the week. And great is it in heaven. For on it our Lord rose from the grave. And on it the departed are quickened. And put off mortality. And put on the vesture of the resurrection.

Ps. cvi. 46.

MARTYRS' ANTHEM.

SUNDAY MORNING 'AFTER.'

He executeth judgment for them that are despised. Or,<sup>2</sup> Verily, verily I say unto you, He that heareth you, heareth me; and he that despiseth you, despiseth me; and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me. Your labours are not despised, O martyrs. And Christ the King, whom ye loved, passeth not away. On the earth are laid your bones, for ye have conquered. And in the book of life are your names, O friends of the Son.

Ps. cxlvi. 6.

St. Luke x. 16.

For the glory of thy name. Or, Because they saw that the world passeth away and is destroyed, and that its desirable things are as vanity, and are destroyed and come to nought and are lost, they all said to one another, Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses. Not for the wealth of the world have we loved thee. Say the martyrs to Christ with openness of face.<sup>3</sup> But because we have truly learnt. That thy kingdom and Godhead may not be fathomed.

Ps. lxxix. 9.

St. Matt. x. 9.

And sing lustily with the voice. Or, Because we have a God who helpeth us, and in the name of his authority we work mighty deeds and signs, and in his Name we throw down high walls. The martyrs say one to another, Come, let us go forth. And bring to nought the error which hath waxed strong in the four quarters (of the world). And in the Name of Jesus we will reprove Satan. And like the walls of Jericho he will fall before us.

They sing among the mountains. Or, A report went forth and a decree was heard, Whoso is a Christian, and secretly worshippeth God, shall have his limbs cut off one by one, and shall be cast out to the mountains and hills and seas and islands. Among the mountains and hills the king commanded. That the limbs of the blessed martyrs should be cut off. And the Holy Ghost entered with them to the contest. And gave them the victory in the judgment before the persecutors.

The land shall give her increase. Or, In the beginning the Lord blessed the earth, which was cursed by the blood of Abel; and when the blood of the saints was shed, it was drunken therewith, and was blessed that it might give good fruits to God. The earth which was drunken with the blood of the martyrs. Shall give fruits thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and an hundredfold. And in the Church, which hath carried their bones in processions with honour. May the peace of our Lord reign for ever.

The righteous cried, and the Lord heard them and delivered them. Or, And they fixed their gaze above, and worshipped the living Father, and lifted up praise to the Son, and entreated the Holy Ghost to weave a crown and place it on their heads. The martyrs cried from the fire to God. For thy sake we die, come thou and help us. And send a watcher from on high to us. The fire saw the spiritual one, and sprinkled dew.

Look unto him and trust in him. Or, They cease not from fighting with us, and give no sleep to our eyes; and we put not our armour off from us, and deny not Christ the Son, who suffered for us, and we fear not the fire nor the sword, until the evening of death come. The martyrs saw the terrible swords glittering, and the slayers threatening them, and thus they spoke. By the power which came down and abode on Mount Sinai, and the staff that divided the sea in the hands of Moses. And by him who said, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani. We will not deny Christ, who suffered for us.

For thy sake we have been killed daily. Or, Who shall tell your victories, and relate your deeds, O famous martyrs who stood mightily in the contest, and conquered the Evil one valiantly, and endured bitter torments? O martyrs killed for the hope of innocence. May your prayer be a wall to us at all times. And by that power by which ye conquered in the contest. May we conquer the Enemy who fighteth with us.

Ps. xliv. 22.

His salvation is nigh them that fear him. Or, The saints heard that voice, and the martyrs hearkened: Whoso confesseth me before the judges of this world, and beareth his cross, and followeth me uprightly, I (will) confess him before God and them that minister to him. The martyrs drew near to entreat God, and this entreaty the just offered to him who is good. By the right hand which divided the sea before the people, and made firm the waves under the feet of Simon Peter. By the majesty which was buffeted in the judgment-hall. Send not the rod of wrath on the inhabited (world).

Ps. lxxxv. 9.

I will speak peace of thee. Or, Thine is the sword, and dire sufferings and torments for a season, and ours are our necks,<sup>1</sup> and the blood of our lives<sup>2</sup> until the evening of death come. Peace to the Company that was crowned. In the days of Sapor, the king of the city of Lidan. In tens they came in (to be slain) by the sword. And their mouth ceased not (to sing) praise.

Ps. cxxii. 8.

And sixthly he was stoned with stones by the accursed ones. And seventhly they crushed his bones and cast him out. May our Lord make us worthy to have joy among their companies.

Righteous and upright. The king Constantine went forth to war. And spake thus in his prayer before God. When I return in conquest and victory. I will reverence<sup>4</sup> the cross of Christ the King.

As a city surrounded by a wall. As a merchant our Lord entered creation. And bought therein a holy Church, and dwelt within it. And raised up in it four wondrous scribes. The altar, and the priesthood,<sup>5</sup> and the cross, and baptism.

In the seas and in all deep places. I passed through the seas and trode on the waves. Yet my eyes have seen nought like the ship of Mar Anthony. Which bare prophets and guided apostles. Which bare martyrs and confessors, and went to Eden.

From the mouth of young men and boys. Peace to thee, O martyr Mar Pithiun. Who wast a father to many in the faith. Peace to thee, who didst love Christ. With a pure and true heart and perfect love.

Ps. viii. 2.

My spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. Mary, who bare Christ, rejoiced. And John when he baptized him in the river Jordan. Heaven and earth and all that is in them rejoice. In the Star which shone forth out of Jacob for the salvation of all.

St. Luke i. 47.

Glory be, etc. Peace to your camp, O blessed ones. Merchants bearing life to the sons of men. Open the treasure of your prayers to the needy. And preserve the country where ye dwell from harm.

From everlasting to everlasting. Beg for us all of thy Lord. O our famous and holy father,<sup>1</sup> the friend of the Son. That by thy prayers may be helped and saved. All who are afflicted and distressed, and who take refuge in thee.

And let all the people say Amen and Amen. O God, who didst have pity on Nineveh, have pity on us.

Ps. cvi. 46.

And cease not to look on our evil generation. For if thou shuttest thy door in the face of us sinners. To whose door shall we go and knock, O thou Friend of men? * Let the voice of our prayer, O Lord, be. As the fragrance of sweet incense before thy greatness. And may our request be the key of the heavenly treasure. To open and bring forth help to the sons of men.* On the first day<sup>2</sup> there is no affliction or torment. For the wicked who have transgressed and wrought wickedness in their deeds. The fire and flame of Gehenna is extinguished. And every one remaineth at ease, and confesseth the Lord.* Blessed is the first and holy day.<sup>2</sup> For on it our Lord rose from the grave in great glory. And on it the departed arise in the quickening. And put off mortality and put on glory.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. At the door of thy mercies, O our Lord Jesus. Thy servants knock, beseeching. And asking of thee compassion, and mercies, and forgiveness of trespasses. Return answer to them when they pray.* By the prayer of Mary the blessed mother, and John, who baptized his Lord. The apostles, who made disciples of all nations, and the teachers, who preached the truth. And the martyrs, who endured all afflictions, for the love of Christ the King. May thy worshippers be preserved.

TISHBUKHTA. At that hour when thy judgment-seat instituteth the searching. Enter not, O Lord, into judgment with thy servants.* At that hour when thy will visiteth them that have lain down. Cast us not out, O Lord, into outer darkness.* O Christ, who forsakest not any who cry to thee. In thy mercy reject not the request of thy worshippers.

The deacon says the KARUZUTHA. Let us all stand up, etc. (page 6).

O Living one, who didst descend among the dead, and didst preach a good hope to the souls that were held in Sheol, we, etc.

O thou by whose wounds our scars have been healed, and who by thy death didst slay the Slayer, we, etc.

O thou at whose passion the lights (of heaven) were darkened, and all creatures clothed themselves with weeping and sorrow, we, etc.

O thou at whose crucifixion the spiritual beings groaned, when the will of thy Father restrained them, that they should not destroy them that crucified thee, we, etc.

O thou who by thy death didst burst the graves, and didst quicken the dead, to reprove them that crucified thee, we, etc.

O thou who didst mingle thy blood with our blood, and didst redeem our trespasses with the sacrifice of thyself on Golgotha, we, etc.

For the welfare of our holy fathers NN,<sup>1</sup> and all those who serve under them, we, etc.

O Christ the King, have, etc.* And build thou its walls, which have been thrown down and have fallen by wickedness and sin. O Christ the King, glory, etc.* Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, and with perfect burnt-offerings. O Christ the King, have, etc.* And then shall they lift up to thee the fruits of glory and praise. O Christ the King, glory, etc.* Glory be, etc. O Christ the King, have, etc.* From everlasting, etc. O Christ the King, glory, etc.* Have mercy upon me, O God, after thy lovingkindness. O Christ the King, have, etc.* And according to the multitude of thy mercies do away mine offences. O Christ the King, glory, etc.*

TISHBUKHTA. O Christ, who in thy mercies hast compassion on sinners. Turn to the prayer of thy weak servants.* And as thou hast kept us in the day which is past. May thy lovingkindness keep us in the night which is full of terror.* And drive away from us the Evil one, our Enemy. And may thy cross be a wall to our souls.* And waken us when we sleep in the multitude of thy compassion. That we may stand and glorify thee, who in thy goodness dost preserve us.* Let us kneel and worship thee. For ever and ever, Amen.

They proceed. In thy cross I have taken refuge, O our Saviour. Under its wings protect me from the Evil one and his host.* With the publican we ask mercy. Have compassion on us, and have mercy upon us.* O our Lord, with thy right hand overthrow Satan. Who maketh (men) drunken without wine, and causeth them to slip without mud.* At thy hands, O God, whose mercies are manifold. May our correction be, and not at the hands of man.* O Christ, who forsakest not any who call to thee. In thy mercies reject not the request of thy worshippers.

TISHBUKHTA by the holy Mar Ephraim. Grant me, O my Lord, that if I wake. I may stand watchfully before thee. And that if I lie down. My sleep may be without sin.* And if I grow slothful in watching. May I be pardoned by thy lovingkindness. And if I sin in lying down. May thy compassion forgive me.* And by the cross of thy humiliation. Grant me restful sleep. And deliver me from evil dreams. And from abominable phantoms.<sup>1</sup>* And in peaceful sleep. Lead me all the night. And let not the Evil ones have dominion over me. And thoughts full of wickedness.* And from hateful desires. May I be delivered by thy body with which thou hast fed me. And may I lie down and rest in quietness. And may sleep be my preserver.* And make the wall of thy mercies to surround. The soul which is thy image. And may thy right hand overshadow. The body which thy hands have fashioned.* And surround me with the wall of thy mercies. As with a mighty shield. That when (my) body is at rest and in quiet. Thy power may be its preserver.* And as the fragrance of incense. May my sleep be before thy greatness. And let not the Evil one approach my bed. By the supplication of her who bare thee.* And by thy sacrifice for us. Stay Satan, that he harm us not. And fulfil in me thy promise. And by thy cross preserve my life.* That when I wake I may confess thee. For that thou hast shown thy love to my feebleness. And that I may lift up glory to thee and to thy Father. And to the Holy Ghost who sanctifieth.* Both now and always. For ever and ever.

They say, Holy God (p. 10), and Our Father.

Prayer. May thy living and life-giving voice, O my Lord, which called and raised Lazarus unto a resurrection for a season, call and raise thy servants (to be) on thy right hand, in the great and glorious day when thy justice is revealed from heaven, O just Judge, who art full of mercy, and who forgivest trespasses and sins, Lord of all, etc.

Another. Quicken them that have fallen asleep, in thy compassion, and preserve them that are alive, in the overflowing abundance of thy mercy; and grant a good resurrection to the departed who have fallen asleep in the hope of the quickening, that they may lift up to thee praise, and honour, and confession, and worship, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Or this. Be with us, O my Lord, continually, in thy mercies, and lead us according to the goodwill of thy Godhead, and protect and help our life under the wings of thy care; and save and rescue our bodies and our souls from the Evil one and his hosts, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

Then follow the prayers for help, and the rest, page 16.

AT COMPLINE*

SUNDAY

Bow down thine ear, O Lord, and answer me. O Christ the

Ps. lxxxvi. 1. Son, who didst come for our salvation. That thou mightest renew the image of Adam which was destroyed. And didst put on our flesh,<sup>1</sup> and in it didst save our race. And didst give us a good expectation of the resurrection of the dead. In thy lovingkindness pardon thy servants in the day of thy coming.

For thy lovingkindness, O God. In thy lovingkindness thou didst create our race in the beginning. And Ps. xxv. 6. didst clothe it with excellent glory in Paradise. And because it did foolishly, and sinned and fell from glory. Thou didst send thy beloved Son to us. And he gave us in his compassion the promised life which hath no end.

For I put my trust in thee. In the abundance of thy mercy I put my trust. O God, and beseech thy lovingkindness. Give me in thy mercies forgiveness of (my) trespasses. By which I offend before thee. And (may) peace and tranquillity lead me all (my) days.

Give ear, Lord, unto my prayer. At the time when thou callest the dead from the graves. That thou mayest pay to every man according to his deeds. The Ps. lxxxvi. 6. books are opened to bear witness to (men's) works. And he that openeth (his) mouth<sup>1</sup> fleeth, and is hidden. Let thy mercies pity thy servant, that he may not utterly perish.

Until thou have mercy upon us. At the door of thy mercy I knocked. That I might enter, but thy justice answereth me not. In thy mercies have pity Ps. cxxiii. 2. on me, for as the prophet I cry. That if thou judgest justly, O my God. Our humanity cannot be justified in the terrible judgment.

Let us go before him with praise. Let us all offer praise to God. In the memorial of Mary, the mother of Ps. xciv. 2. Christ. And in her name let us take refuge, that we may receive help. And by her prayers may our congregation be preserved from the harm (wrought by) the Apostate. Who hateth our nature.

Seek the Lord and be strong. O saints, prophets, apostles, and teachers. And confessors, and martyrs, Ps. cv. 4. and priests, and monks. Beseech for us all of Christ, who gave you the victory. That by your prayers we may receive from his treasury. An answer to all our petitions in the way that may best help us.

Glory be, etc. Glory to thee, Jesus, our victorious King. Who by thy cross hast saved our race from error. May thy great power renew our nature.<sup>2</sup> And may death be brought to naught, and the quickening reign. And may we be worthy of mercies by thy will, O King the Quickener.

From everlasting, etc. O Compassionate one, whose door is open to the penitent. And who careth that sinners should repent. Pardon my trespasses and make my offences to pass away. And grant and vouchsafe that I may inherit the kingdom. In the great day when thou comest with all thy saints.

MADRASHA. Antiphon. O just Judge, who hast no respect of persons. Make me worthy in thy mercies to see thee in the day of judgment. Verses. O thou who helpst me, and art full of mercies, have compassion on me when I am lost. And grant me to have a share among the companies of the saints.* In lovingkindness thou hast fashioned our dust, and hast called us thine image. In thy mercies mingle our lives with the life which endeth not.

MONDAY

Praise the Lord, O ye righteous. The souls of the righteous are in the hands of the Lord. For they loved him, and believed him, and kept his commandments.

Ps. xxxiii. 1.

O glorify him with a new song of praise. Because thou didst please Christ, he hath taken thee from the world. That thou mightest go and have joy in the bridechamber of the kingdom.

Ps. xcvi. 1.

God is my hope, even from my youth. My hope from my youth is he who quickeneth me. That in the day of thy coming I may stand and confess thee.

Ps. lxxi. 4.

These pass away, but thou endurest. This world now passeth away. Come, let us beg for mercies and forgiveness of trespasses.

Ps. cii. 26.

Both behind and before. All generations and families of the house of Adam. Look to, and wait for the Epiphany of thy coming.

Ps. cxxxix. 4.

Both small and great. Lo, all the departed<sup>1</sup> have lain down in thy hope. That by thy glorious resurrection thou mayest raise them in glory.

Ps. cxv. 13.

O hear ye this, all ye peoples. Adam among the dead was made subject to death. For eating of the tree took away his independence of it.<sup>2</sup>

Ps. xlix. 1.

He lifted up his voice, and the earth was moved. Adam among the dead heard a voice saying. Be of good courage, for the penalty is taken away by the Son. Ps. xlvi. 6.

Blessed is he in whom thou art well pleased. Blessed is he whose countenance shineth.<sup>1</sup> In the hour when the judgment seat of the kingdom is set. Ps. lxxv. 4.

All ye servants of God. Famous priests and holy nation. Pray for me, that I may go (hence) and be accepted. Ps. lxxvi. 14.

Turn thee unto me and have mercy upon me. At that hour when thy judgment seat is set for the searching. Enter not into judgment, O Lord, with thy servants. Ps. xxv. 15.

And show some token upon me for good. In that hour when thy will visiteth them that have lain down. Cast us not out, O Lord, into outer darkness. Ps. lxxxvi. 17.

Open me the gates of righteousness. O Gate of truth, which art open to them that are lost. Call us to enter into thy treasury above. Ps. cxviii. 19.

Unto the godly hath shone forth a light in the darkness. Make thy light, O our Lord, to dwell in our souls. And bring to nought among us the wars of the Crafty one. Ps. cxii. 4.

By day and by night. May the prayer of the Virgin be a wall to us. And drive away from us the wars of the Crafty one. Ps. xlii. 3.

Seek the Lord and be strengthened. Prophets and apostles and martyrs and teachers. Seek of God mercies for the world. Ps. cv. 4.

At all seasons and times. O our holy father,<sup>2</sup> beseech Christ. That he may make his peace to dwell in the four quarters (of the world).

Beg of the Lord, and pray before him. Ask of thy Lord for us, O martyr George. Compassion and mercies and forgiveness of trespasses. Ps. xxxvii. 7.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. Praise to thee, Jesus our Saviour. For death is in thy hands, and life at thy will.

MADRASHA. Antiphon. May our Lord, whose cross thou didst confess. Give rest to thy spirit, O our brother. And when he cometh in great glory. May he give thee joy with him in the kingdom. Verses. O our brother, go thou in peace. May our Lord be with thee. May the cherub who keepeth Paradise. Open the door before thee.* In the service wherein I have served with you. Let not my love be forgotten by your love. And when ye stand in the sanctuary. Remember me in prayer.

TUESDAY

O Lord God of my salvation. O Lord God, the Lord of death and mortality. May thy sweet Spirit Ps. lxxxviii. 1. lead me. In the way of life. When thou comest in thy kingdom.

I will alway bless the Lord. Blessed is Christ, who condescended and tasted death. And gave us his Ps. xxxiv. 1. body and his blood. And gave life to Adam. And saved his children by his cross.

Ascribe ye praise unto God. The children of Adam lauded the Son with hosannas. And with voices of Ps. lxxviii. 34. praise. Glorified him and sang to him. For he is the Quickener of our departed.

And I have stretched forth my hands unto thee. Grant and vouchsafe to me that in the day when thy Ps. lxxxviii. 9. mercies shine forth. I may go forth to meet thee with hosannas. And with all thy saints. Make me worthy to inherit the kingdom.

He lifted up his voice, and the earth was moved. O Voice, which saidst to the sinful woman, Thy trespasses are Ps. xlv. 6. forgiven. Forgive me my trespasses in thy judgment. That I may stand and confess thee. With the just who were approved before thee.

How good and beautiful. The Voice, which called Lazarus from the grave. Calleth thee and quickeneth thee. And placeth thee at his right hand. In the day when his greatness shineth forth. Ps. cxxxiii. 1.

Thou hast brought me down to the lowest pit. Death hath brought me and cast me into devouring Sheol. And hath caused me to tremble exceedingly. And hath terrified my mind. And hath separated (my) soul from (my) body. Ps. lxxxviii. 5.

As the embers of an oak tree. Bitter is death, and dire is the day of departure. Which divideth brother from brother. And parents also. From speech with their loved ones.

Both small and great. Pray for me, all ye my friends and beloved ones. That I may be worthy of Abraham's bosom. And with Lazarus. Have joy there in the kingdom. Ps. cxv. 13.

VERSE OF PRAYER. And sinners shall be converted unto thee. Pardon and save all sinners. For thou art merciful and canst forgive trespasses. And takest away the offences of the sons of men. Who come to thee in repentance. Ps. li. 13.

Glory be, etc. O Mary, the holy Virgin, mother of Jesus our Saviour. Beseech and beg for mercies for sinners that they perish not. For they take refuge in thy prayers. May thy prayer be a wall to us in this world and in that which is to come.

From everlasting, etc. By the prayer of the just, who propitiated thee, and the righteous, who were approved before thee. The prophets, and apostles, and teachers, and martyrs, and priests and monks. Keep the congregation of thy worshippers, that they may lift up to thee a new (song of) glory. Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

MADRASHA. Antiphon. Blessed is he, who, in (his) loving-kindness, created our nature in the beginning. And in his love accomplished our renewal in the end of times. Verses.

Remain in peace, O habitation which is but for a season, (and is) full of distresses. For lo, the weight of my trespasses hindereth me from the kingdom.* In the morning when all creatures rise for the searching of the judgment. Let me not be confounded, O my Lord, (but let me stand) among the congregations that are clothed with light.

WEDNESDAY

From this time forth for evermore. Remain in peace, O habitation which is but for a season. Which cannot save them that possess it. For I will depart and see the country of light. Where the just who have laboured, do dwell.

Ps. cxv. 18.

For there is no salvation in his hand. Remain in peace, O transitory world. Whose pride cometh to nought, and whose glory vanisheth away. For I will depart and see the city of the just. Jerusalem which is above.

Ps. cxlvi. 2.

And all my bones shall say. Blessed is thy day, O Son of the Lord of all. Who comest and rendest the bosom of Sheol. Glorious is thy quickening, which is looked for. By the generations who have passed away, and (by those) which remain.

Ps. xxxv. 10.

They pass away, but thou abidest. Lo, this world passeth away. And all its desires come to nought. And blessed is he who hath prepared for himself. Provision for the world which passeth not away.

Ps. cii. 26.

Praise him with the voice and with crying. At the sound<sup>1</sup> of the horn and of the trumpet. All the departed rise. And lift up glory to the Father, and to the Son. And to the Holy Ghost, for he quickeneth us.

Ps. cl. 5.

Both small and great. All men tread the way of death. And not even the just remain behind. And each of them runneth that he may obtain. According to his deeds in this world.

Ps. cxv. 13.

My lovers and my neighbours did stand looking upon my trouble.
 My lovers have left me, and have gone far from me. And also my possessions have remained Ps. xxxviii. 11. for others. And my trespasses alone surround me. And (their) penalty maketh me tremble.

The hope of all the ends of the earth. We have no hope in which we can boast. But thy cross which pardoneth our trespasses. For it is a high Ps. lxxv. 5.
 wall to us. And delivereth us from harm.

Excellency and glory are before him. In the day when Christ the King shineth forth. He giveth life to the dead and changeth the living. And the just Ps. xcvi. 6. fly to meet him in the air. Pray for me that I may be with them.

And I sought him, but I found him not. I saw that the world faded away and perished. Through this wickedness which reigned in it. And I ran Cant. iii. 1. and took refuge. In the living cross of the Son of the Lord of all.

From this time forth for evermore. Remain in peace, my brethren and my companions. Our Lord re-compensate (you) with a reward for your love. Ps. cxv. 18.
 And when ye stand in the sanctuary. Remember me in your prayers.

Glory be, etc. The archangel flew and came down. To the holy one, the daughter of David. And gave her the message by which was typified. Peace and tranquillity to the race of man.

From everlasting, etc. May the prayers of the apostles, who were blessed fountains. In the thirsty and distressed world.
 And who gave the world to drink of a spiritual drink. Be a wall to our race.

MADRASHA. Antiphon. Glory to the voice which cried on the tree. And took away the penalty of the transgression of the commandment. Verses. May that voice which called Lazarus call thee. And make thee to dwell in the country where the just dwell.* May the voice of the horn call thee,

May the trumpet waken thee. May the Holy Ghost join thee to the ranks of the Saints.

THURSDAY

Unto thee, O Lord, I lifted up my soul. O Christ the King, our Saviour. In the day of thy coming quicken us. And raise us to thy right hand.

Ps. xxv. 1.

In the day when thy greatness shineth forth.

O God, in thee have I trusted, let me not be confounded. We venerate<sup>1</sup> thy cross, O my Lord. By which we are raised and quickened. And by which our departed are quickened. And their bodies are clothed with glory.

Ib.

Such as are gentle, them doth he learn his way. Lo, in the prophets is our quickening. And in the apostles our recompense. And in the gospel of our Lord is the way. Which leadeth to the kingdom.

Ps. xxv. 8.

He lifted up his voice, and the earth was moved. The voice of the Son quickeneth. Adam, who lay in sorrow.

Ps. xlv. 6.

And instead of the promised land. Giveth him a bride-chamber on high for an inheritance.

How good and beautiful. The voice, which called Lazarus. And the maiden, the daughter of Jairus.

Ps. cxxxiii. 1.

Calleth and quickeneth thee. And placeth thee at his right hand.

Mine eyes have looked for thy salvation, and for the word of thy righteousness. Mine eyes have looked for thy salvation. And the word of thy righteousness. Leave thou me not in Sheol. O thou good Hope of them that are in the graves.

Ps. cxix. 123.

And let my soul be joyful in God. And let my soul be joyful in God. And have pleasure in his salvation.

Ps. xxxv. 9.

And all my bones shall say. Lord, in thy lovingkindness give me life.

Because I am in trouble answer me speedily. Because I am in trouble answer me speedily. Bring my soul near to thy salvation. When I have lain down, may thy voice awaken me. From the grave (to enter) the kingdom. Ps. lxxix. 18.

They shall rejoice and sing. May the bodies of the departed, who have clothed themselves with thee, O our Lord. In the waters of baptism. Be made clean by thee. From the stains of sin. Ps. lxxv. 14.

Let them be glad in his joy. To the departed, who have eaten thy body. And have had joy in thy living blood. Grant, O our Lord, memorials. In the land where the just dwell. Ps. lxxviii. 3.

The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine. Both worlds are thine, O my Lord. This world and that hereafter<sup>1</sup> alike. Preserve the living in thy compassion. And grant a quickening to the dead. Ps. lxxxix. 12.

The Lord is faithful in his words. May our departed, O my Lord. Who have confessed thy Trinity. Receive the promise which the robber. Received from thee on Golgotha. Ps. cxlv. 13, Syr.

Fear hath fallen upon me. It is not an (earthly) judgment that I fear. Nor am I troubled that I have fallen asleep. But I fear thy judgment, O my Lord. For God judgeth by fire. Ps. lv. 5.

VERSES OF PRAYER. O Lord, heal me, for my bones are vexed. In dire sickness of body. Am I tormented, O Lord. Heal my pain in thy compassion. As (thou didst heal) just Hezekiah. On whom the prophet placed a cake of figs and he was healed. So place on me, O my Lord, the medicine of thy mercies. Ps. vi. 2.

Give ear to my words and receive (them). As the censer which Aaron offered. May the savour of our assembly please thee. And as the request of the Ninevites. Receive the prayer of thy servants, O my Lord. And as thou didst answer Daniel in the pit. Answer, O my Lord, and help thy worshippers. Ps. cxli. 1.

Glory be, etc. Blessed art thou, O holy Virgin. Blessed art thou, Mother of Christ. Blessed art thou, whom all generations. And peoples call blessed. And because of thy Child thy name is exalted in creation. As the prophet said.

From everlasting, etc. By the prayer of the just, who propitiated thee. O Christ our King and our Lifegiver. Rescue thy Church from the evil ones. And preserve her children by thy cross. And bring to nought in her wars, and strifes, and divisions. For she hath been bought by thy living blood.

MADRASHA: to the tune Blessed is he who in lovingkindness. Antiphon. Flee from the world, flee from its riches, and also from its wickedness. And look and find out how bitter is the way of death. Verses. Look on me, my brethren (and see), that though I have run my course and have worked. Yet lo, I depart, and none of my possessions have accompanied me.* The wealth of the world saveth not the race of men. And not even that which clotheth him entereth with him into the kingdom.

FRIDAY

Tune: Thou hast named thy vineyard.

He that is before the worlds. The Father, who formed Adam.

Ps. lv. 20. Called him also his image. And because he rebelled and transgressed the commandment.

He brought him in his turn under death. Over which he had had dominion.

In the days of old. In the beginning thou didst fashion our image, O Creator. And because (man) sinned

Ps. xliv. 1. and broke<sup>1</sup> thy law. Thou didst dissolve his form. And he turned again to his earth.

Thou hast fashioned me, and laid thine hand upon me. Thy command hath fashioned us and brought us into being. And thou hast set us in Eden, in

Paradise. And because we have transgressed thy word. We have inherited a land of thorns.

Thou hast brought me down to the lowest pit. Lo, death hath taken me and hidden me in his clefts. Bring thou my soul out of the house of bondage. Ps. lxxxviii. 5.
That I may confess and praise thee. O Quickener of the dead.

We have sinned with our fathers and have done amiss and dealt wickedly. We have trodden down thy commandment, and have transgressed thy word. Ps. cvi. 6.
And have been condemned because we sinned and dealt wickedly. And now we beseech (thee). In thy mercies forgive our trespasses.

Thou art merciful, O Lord, and righteous. O just Judge, Creator of the world. Quickener of all the departed. Quicken us who are dead. In thy great mercies. Ps. cxvi. 5.

O come, let us praise the Lord. Life that is not destroyed and blessings that fade not. And joy that lasteth for all generations. Do the righteous inherit. Ps. xcv. 1.
In the day of thy coming.

VERSES OF PRAYER. Our God is our strong refuge. O Christ, the true refuge and hope. Neglect us not at any time. And pardon our trespasses. And cleanse our stains. Ps. xli. 1.

Hear my voice, O God, when I beseech thee. O thou that hearest, and neglectest not, and savest, and rescuest. Hear, O my Lord, the request of thy worshippers. And return answer to our requests. From the treasure of thy mercies. Ps. lxiv. 1.

In the evening, and morning, and at noonday. Thou hast called us to the vineyard of thy Gospel, O Lord of all. Strengthen us, that we may do thy will. And may thy mercies preserve us. By night and by day. Ps. lxx. 18.

Glory be, etc. By the prayer of her who bare thee, O Christ our Saviour. Pardon our trespasses in thy lovingkindness.

And forgive our offences. According to the multitude of thy mercies.

From everlasting, etc. O prophets and apostles and martyrs and teachers. Beseech and make requests for us all. That we may be worthy of forgiveness of trespasses. In the judgment.

And let all the people say Amen and Amen. A blessing which passeth not away is kept for thee in heaven. O our holy father,<sup>1</sup> the dwelling-place of the Holy Ghost. Pray for our assembly. That we may be worthy of forgiveness.

MADRASHA: to the tune At the door of thy mercies. Antiphon. O El, O God, hear our request, which is audible to thee. And in thy mercies return answer to the petition of our soul by which thou art persuaded. Verses. At the door of thy mercies thy servants knock, O thou who willest that we should live. Open to us that we may enter and receive an alms as poor men.* O thou who art overflowing with compassion, show thy love as thou art wont. Lest the hater of man mock the work of thy hands.* O thou who art mighty in the worlds, support that which thou hast fashioned by the force of thy power. For lo, it is disturbed by evil sufferings and by demons.

SATURDAY

I was glad when they said unto me. Our Lord cometh and quickeneth the dead. And giveth hope to all the departed.

Ps. cxxii. 1.

I will always bless the Lord. Blessed is he who made death to come but once. Which taketh both good and bad alike.

Ps. xxxiv. 1.

And let my soul be joyful in God. Let my soul, which hath taken refuge in thy cross. See thy compassion in the day of thy coming.

Ps. xxxv. 9.

Thou hast fashioned me, and laid thine hand upon me. When I was not thou didst fashion me from the dust. And, now that I have lain down, give me life that I may confess thee. Ps. cxxxix. 4.

I will magnify thee, O my Lord the King. Christ our King shineth forth from on high. And giveth life to the dead, and raiseth them that are in the graves. Ps. cxlv. 1.

Turn thee unto me and have mercy upon me. O Son of God, quicken our departed. And clothe them with glory in thy kingdom. Ps. xxv. 15.

He lifted up his voice, and the earth was moved. At the voice of the Son the graves are rent. And the dead rise and give glory. Ps. xlv. 6.

Unto the godly hath shone forth light in the darkness. A new sun shineth forth on them that are in the graves. And from their graves they shall confess thy majesty. Ps. cxii. 4.

Turn thee unto me and have mercy upon me. Have compassion on me and give me life, and forgive me my trespasses. That I may see thy compassion in the day of thy coming. Ps. xxv. 15.

And show a token upon me for good. Thy will is accomplished, and thy commandment hath led me. In thy mercies give me life, that I may stand and confess thee. Ps. lxxxvi. 17.

Both small and great. At the mouth of the graves stand the souls. And look on the Son, who shineth forth from on high. Ps. cxv. 13.

Blessed be the Name of the Lord. Blessed is Christ, who quickened us when we were dead. And hath promised hope and life to the departed. Ps. cxiii. 2.

From this time forth for ever more. Remain in peace, O Church with thy children. May our Lord be a wall to thy flock. Ps. cxxxi. 4.

And they shall bear thee in their arms. Moses and Elijah go forth to meet thee. And receive thee in tabernacles of fire. Ps. xci. 12.

For ever and ever. Remain in peace, O habitation, and ye Ps. xlviii. 13. that dwell therein. May peace increase in thee from whom I have gone out.

There shall be thy habitation and thy rest. Among the desirable trees of Paradise. Shall be thy habitation and thy rest.

Glory be, etc. Glory to the Father, and confession to the Son. And to the Holy Ghost who quickeneth us.

From everlasting, etc. Praise to thee, Jesu our Saviour. In whose hands is death, and at whose will is life.

MADRASHA : to the tune Blessed is he who in lovingkindness.
Antiphon. Where is Adam, whom the Lord formed from dust.
 And called him his image, and made heaven and earth subject to him? Verses. Where is Moses, who on the Mount of Sinai saw his Maker. And the power of the Lord spake with him face to face.* Where is David, the prophet and king, the heart of the Lord. Of whom the Lord who chose him bore witness, that there was none like him.

THE SERVICES OF THE GREAT FAST<sup>1</sup>

ON SUNDAYS

AT THE NIGHT SERVICE

All the services as on other Sundays of the year (pp. 151, 155), except as is here provided; and except that the Qali d'Shahra are said in inverted order, those for weeks 'after' being said on weeks 'before,' and those for weeks 'before' on weeks 'after.'

On the five Sundays of the Fast<sup>2</sup> the priest, after Glory be to God (p. 151), puts incense in the censer and vests himself in the ma'apra,<sup>3</sup> and holding the censer in his hand, stands before the shkhinta<sup>4</sup> and says this Canon. The people repeat it, and it is said five times, and the priest says the prayer that follows it.<sup>5</sup>

CANON. In the middle of the night I have arisen to confess thee for thy judgments, O Righteous one.* In the night with the watchful ones. Let us sing glory to him. To him who watcheth and sleepeth not. Whom the watchful ones serve. In the night when are silent. The voices of all conditions

(of men). May our prayer please thee. O Lord, who hast goodwill to the penitent. Who hearest and neglectest not. Who answerest, and savest, and rescuest. Hear, O my Lord, our request. And return answer in thy mercies to our petitions. For thou alone. Art full of mercy and forgivest trespasses.

He proceeds. In<sup>1</sup> the middle of the night I have arisen to confess thee for thy judgments, O righteous one. They answer,<sup>2</sup> I am the friend of all that fear thee and keep thy commandments. By night with the watchful ones.<sup>3</sup>* The earth, O Lord, is full of thy mercies, O teach me thy commandments. By night with the watchful ones.<sup>3</sup>* Glory be to the Father, etc. By night, etc.<sup>3</sup>* From everlasting to everlasting. By night, etc.<sup>3</sup>

Prayer. In the middle of the night we arise, O my Lord, wakefully to serve thee. Repeat. When the voices of all conditions (of men) are alike silent, let us sing praise to thy glorious Trinity without ceasing, O thou Watchful one, who art continually served by the watchful ones, O thou Holy one, who dwellest in thy holy ones, and art willingly propitiated. Pardon, O my Lord, our trespasses in thy compassion, and enlighten the eyes of our hearts with the light of thy knowledge. That we may know how to offer to thee in pureness of thought pure sacrifices of our minds, with the spoken<sup>4</sup> fruits of our lips, with praises which befit thy holy Name, Lord of all, etc.

He proceeds. Our Father, etc. (page 151).

On all Sundays of the Fast they say after the Motwa this TISHBUKHTA by Mar Saurishu Catholicos. Our Father which art in heaven. Holy in thy nature. Make thy worshippers worthy. To sing Holy to thy Name.* May thy kingdom come. In a mystery before the times. As though already.

We lived in it.* Let us fulfil thy will. On earth without fear. As in heaven. There is none that (can) harm us.* The bread of our need. Give us all the days. Of the nature of mortals. For it is ever needy.* Before we are fashioned. Thou knowest our wickedness. In thy love thou hast fashioned us. In thy mercies wipe out our trespasses.* We have trespassed against thy being. And have offended against one another. May we forgive each other. And do thou, O Lord, (forgive) us all.* That we stand not in temptations. Of demons and lusts. Which chastise us. For we are weak.* In thy pity, O Compassionate one. Save us from the Evil one. For thou alone art able. To overcome his cruelty.* Thine is the kingdom. And the power, and the glory. Grant that we may be. Heirs of thy Beloved.* And with thy saints. May we pay to thy majesty. The glory which is meet for thee. For ever and ever, Amen.

AT THE MORNING SERVICE

Prayer before the Morning Psalms. Grant us, O our Lord and our God, although we are not worthy. Repeat. And make us worthy, although we deserve it not, to bear the yoke of the holy fast, with a meek heart boiling over with true love towards thee. And take away from us slothfulness, which is a barren mother, and forbidden to virtuous sons; and sow in us diligence, and energy, and watchfulness, lest one of our senses break the fast while another keepeth it, and confusion reign over that which we have begun. But when the body fasteth from food, may the soul also fast from evil and hateful (deeds), that our fast may be perfect and complete; and when we are watchful and cautious, and when we sing Holy, purely and circumspectly and in holiness, may we serve before thee with Moses, and Joshua, and Elijah, and Daniel, and the company of Ananias, and all other just men who have striven in this contest. And may our service please thee, O my Lord, and our prayer persuade thee ; may our beseeching honour thee, and our entreating propitiate thee. And may the mercies and compassion of thy Godhead pardon the trespasses of thy people, and forgive the sins of all the sheep of thy pasture, which thou hast chosen to thyself in thy lovingkindness and mercies, Lord of all, etc.

Another. Receive, O our Lord and our God, the pure fast of thy servants, in thy lovingkindness, and be propitiated by them in the greatness of thy mercy, as thou wast propitiated by the just, who kept the fast purely and circumspectly, and strove therein in watchfulness and holiness. And may their prayers by night and by day be heard before the terrible judgment-seat of thy greatness, and may their alms, which they pour forth for the poor, obtain a good memorial before the high throne of thy majesty, and be unto them as armour and a shield to drive away from them tribulations which take hold on them ; and as (their gifts) are openly made use of in abundance, so may they be heard secretly in pureness and righteousness, that thou mayest shed forth on them (that gave them) thy mercies and compassion, and continually sprinkle their hearts (therewith), O thou who didst create the light in thy lovingkindness, and didst order the darkness in thy wisdom, and in the knowledge of thy Godhead, which cannot be fathomed by spiritual beings, or by those that are in the body, Lord of all, etc.

THE PSALMS are said thus on Sundays and week-days :—

Ps. c., as on ferias, page 103.

Prayer. To thee, O my Lord, all creatures, page 165.

Ps. xci., Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High. And is made glorious in the shadow of God. Thou art my confident hope : O Christ, may I never be confounded. Whoso dwelleth . . . and show him my salvation (two clauses by each side). *Thou art my confident hope, etc.** Glory be.* From everlasting.* *When thou didst create the light which is poured forth, the spiritual ones glorified thee. And it was made known to them that he who created the light, created them also.** Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High. And is made glorious in the shadow of God. By angels thou art glorified. And by the sons of men thou art praised. And all together with one accord cry and say, Blessed is thy fast, O Christ our Saviour. Let us pray, Peace be with us.

Prayer. Glorious, O my Lord, page 104.

Ps. civ. 1-15a. Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, thou art become exceeding great. The glory of the Lord shall be for ever. Bless the Lord, O my soul . . . out of the earth (two clauses at a time). *The glory, etc.** Glory be.* From everlasting.* The glory of the Lord shall be for ever.

Prayer. To thee, O Creator of all natures, and Maker of all beings, Fashioner of the height and depth in thy loving-kindness and mercies, we lift up praise, and honour, and confession, and worship, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

The following psalms are said, two clauses at a time, with farcings at the beginning and end, in the weeks of the mysteries.<sup>1</sup> In other weeks they are said as on [ordinary Sundays<sup>2</sup> and] ferias (pages 166, 104).

Ps. cxiii. Praise the Lord, ye his servants. O praise the Name of the Lord. Glory to him who created the light. Praise the Lord, ye his servants . . . joyful mother of children. (No Gloria.) Glory to him who created the light.

Ps. xciii. The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel. The Lord hath put on strength and hath waxed strong. We worship thy Godhead, O my Lord. The Lord is King . . . becometh thine house. O Lord, for ever. (No Gloria.) We worship, etc.

Ps. cxlviii. 1-7. O praise the Lord of heaven. Praise him in the height. Let them praise God. O praise the Lord of heaven . . . shall not be broken. (No Gloria.) Let them praise God.

Ps. cxlviii. 7—end. Praise the Lord upon earth. Ye dragons and all deeps. Give praise to God. Praise the Lord upon earth . . . even the people that draweth near to him.

<sup>2</sup> But on Sundays Psalm cxiii. is apparently said as above, and is not followed by a prayer. The rubrick is very ambiguous.

(No Gloria.) Give praise to God.

Ps. cxlix. O praise the Lord with a new song of praise. His song of praise in the congregation of the saints. For him praise is meet. O praise the Lord with a new song of praise . . . all his saints. (No Gloria.) O Son of God, have pity on us.

Ps. cl. O praise the Lord in his holiness. Praise him in the firmament of his power. Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. O praise the Lord in his holiness . . . praise the Lord. (No Gloria.) Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Ps. cxvii. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen. Praise him, all ye nations. O Christ the Light, we praise thee. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen. Praise him, all ye nations.* For his merciful kindness is strong upon us. Truly he is the Lord for ever. *O Christ the Light, we praise thee.** Glory be, etc. From everlasting, etc. O Christ the Light, we praise thee.

They add, Glorify the Lord, all the whole earth.* O Giver of light, O Lord, even to thee do we lift up glory.

Deacon. Let us pray, Peace be with us.

WEEKS OF THE MYSTERIES IN THE FAST

[ON WEEK DAYS]

EVENING SERVICE

Glory be to God in the highest, etc. Our Father, etc., as on ferias, page 1.

Evening Prayer. Let us confess, O my Lord, page 2.

They say the proper Hulala, with its prayer (pp. 86 to 95).

They proceed. Glorious art thou, O our Lord, and it is meet that we should lift up glory to thee. Every day, for ever and ever, Amen.* Glory to Christ, and confession to him who hath opened our mouth. And hath granted us to chant hallelujahs in his praises.* Glory to Christ, and confession to him who hath opened our mouth. And granted us to sing in his praises.* Glory to Christ and confession to him who hath opened our mouth. And granted us to glorify (him) in his praises.* To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Let us lift up glory, for ever, Amen. Repeat thrice.

Our mouth is not sufficient to confess thee, O our Lord. All the days of our life, for thy lovingkindness.* Our mouth is not sufficient to praise thee, O our Lord. All the days of our life, for thy lovingkindness.* Our mouth is not sufficient to glorify thee, O our Lord. All the days of our life, for thy lovingkindness.

O Lord, who art merciful to mortals. Have compassion on us in thy lovingkindness, and have mercy on us.* For none that liveth among (thy) creatures is justified before thee.

Thou, O my Lord, hast turned us from all error, for thou art God, and for thee glory is fitting, for ever and ever, Amen.

Prayer. To thee, O Lord, mighty God, page 10.

Prayer. Holy and glorious, page 10.

Priest.<sup>4</sup> May Christ make, etc.

Prayer. May our souls be perfected, page 11.

Prayer. Pity us, O thou Compassionate one, page 11.

THIRD SHURAYA from the Khudhra, and the SUBA'A<sup>5</sup> (if it is said here), with its proper collect, but without Our Father, and its collects, May thy Name, and In heaven and on earth (as on Memorials in the Festival Service, page 82);<sup>6</sup> the Martyrs' Anthem is not said in the Fast.

Prayer. Make us worthy, page 82.

They say the verses appointed in the Khudhra; then the prayer of the Shuraya and the CANON and TISHBUKHTA in the Khudhra.

<sup>6</sup> U. has a rubrick saying that custom differs in this matter. The practice is usually to say Compline, as here, in the middle of Evening Service; but some say it directly after Evening Service, in which case U. directs Our Father and the rest, as on pages 12, 16, to be said directly after the Shuraya. The former custom was to separate the services by an interval, and to say Compline at bedtime (see page 185).

KARUZUTHA. O mighty Lord, Almighty, page 82.

They say, Holy God (page 10) and Our Father.

Prayer. Of thee who art full of mercies, as at the Festival Night Service, page 152.

Then follow the prayers for help, and the rest as before (page 16).

NIGHT SERVICE

Priest. Glory be to God in the highest, etc. (page 85).

CANON.<sup>1</sup> Psalm iii. 5—end. I laid me down and slept, and rose up again. For the Lord sustained me. It is meet and right that we should sing Holy to thee and glorify thee, O our Saviour, and that we should chant with the angels, with voices full of praise, Glory be to thee, O God. I laid me down . . . upon thy people. It is meet and right, etc.

Ps. cxxxiv. Bless the Lord, all ye servants of the Lord. Ye that by night stand in the house of the Lord. The saints sing Glory by night with the watchful ones, and tens of thousands of the companies on high repeat the glory of the greatness of Jesus our victorious King. Bless the Lord, all ye servants . . . out of Sion. The saints sing, etc.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. To him whom the Cherubim surround. To whose honour Seraphim sing Holy. The glory of whose greatness angels and the sons of men repeat. Jesus our victorious King.* Who came and saved us by his cross. And promised us the kingdom, which passeth not away, and is not destroyed. And joy without end. To him be glory, and on us be his mercies.

They proceed. I laid me down and slept and rose up again.* For the Lord sustained me.* As those that are on high are watchful. And cease not from praising thee. Make us also that are below to be watchful. That we may glorify thee with the angels.* Glory and honour are fitting. For Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. From those that are on high and those that are below. From spiritual ones and them that are in the body. And especially from the sons of the Church. Whom he hath made worthy to praise him. That they may glorify him in threefold wise. With a threefold song of his holiness. To him be glory from all and in all.* And I laid me down in my sins. And slept the sleep of wickedness. And now I have risen up again by thy will. And have obtained a portion with them that glorify thee. Forgive me all my sins and offences. And make me worthy to glorify thee. Whom I have loved. Glory to thee who dost waken us. Glory to thee who dost raise us. Glory to thee who dost quicken us. Glory to thee who dost renew us.

Of thee, who wakenest them that sleep, and raisest the fallen, who comfortest the afflicted and pardonest sinners, who art the great refuge of the repentant, we beseech and ask, Waken us who sleep, O my Lord, in thy compassion, and lighten the weight of our sloth in thy pity. And grant that we may be made worthy to arise and serve before thee, purely and circumspectly, watchfully and diligently. O Watchful one, whom<sup>2</sup> the watchful ones serve with their hallelujahs, and Seraphim with their crying of Holy, and those that are below<sup>3</sup> with their songs, and all nations with their adorations, Lord of all, etc.

Deacon. Let us arise to prayer. Let us pray, Peace be with us.

Prayer. Let us arise, as on ordinary ferias, page 85.

They say, Hallelujah, etc.

Prayer. Strengthen, O our Lord (page 85).

They say, Hallelujah, etc.

Prayer. May the secret strength (page 86).

They say the HULALI according to the directions of the Khudhra, and between them they say, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, yea Hallelujah, Glory be to thee, O God; repeat thrice. O Lord, have mercy upon us. Let us arise to prayer. Let us pray, Peace be with us.

They say the MOTWA as directed in the Khudhra.

Prayer of the Shubakha. To thee be glory, page 97.

They say the SHUBAKHA (page 97) to a sad<sup>1</sup> tone. Between each clause they say, Glory be to thee, O God. They add the Gloria.

*TISHBUKHTA, by Mar Abraham of Izla. Glory be to thee, O God. Repeat. By day and by night. Glory be to thee, O God.* At all seasons and times. In thy mercy have compassion on us, O God. We ask mercy of thee. And forgiveness of sins.* Remove from us the Evil one. Who always layeth snares for us. Keep us by thy living sign. That the Evil one may see (it) and depart.* Make thy right hand which is full of mercies. O Lord, to overshadow us. O Lord, thy mercies are everlasting. Forsake not the work of thy hands.* May thy cross be a wall to us. O Christ, who by it<sup>2</sup> hast saved us. Glory to thee, O our Lord Jesus. And praise to the Father who sent thee.* And to the Holy Ghost be sung hallelujahs. For ever and ever. For ever and ever. And for evermore. Amen.*

Prayer of the third psalm. Thee who art hidden in thy being, page 160.

The prayers of the Qali d'Shahra are as on Feasts (page 153), and the Qali d'Shahra are as in the Khudhra.

They say the proper CANON, and TISHBUKHTA for the day, and the KARUZUTHA, O thou who didst teach us, as on page 162.

MORNING SERVICE

Prayer before the Morning Psalms. Vouchsafe,<sup>1</sup> O our Lord and our God, that our services and prayers may be joined with those of the monks who pleased thee in their fasts, and of the Nazarites who propitiated thee by their life, and caused<sup>2</sup> the will of thy majesty to be well pleased with their services, and prayers, and supplications. Receive our little fast, and our scanty prayers and weak requests; and return answer to our petitions in thy mercies from thy rich and overflowing treasury. And may the service of our weakness, O my Lord, please thee, and the prayer of our poverty persuade thee, and the fast of our sinfulness propitiate thee; and may the mercies and compassion of thy Godhead grant the pardon of the trespasses of thy people, and the forgiveness of the sins of all the sheep of thy pasture, which thou hast chosen to thyself, in thy lovingkindness and mercies, Lord of all, etc.

Another. Thee, O Christ, the true Light of all lights, who feedest lights from thy light, and dwellest in the excellent light, which no son of man hath seen nor can approach unto, we beseech and ask thee, even we who are weak and sinful, to enlighten the darkness of our minds by the brightness of

Prayer before the Morning Psalms on Fridays of the Fast. Blessed art thou who art worshipped in thy Church on earth by earthly worshippers ; and glorious art thou who art to be worshipped in thy Church in heaven by heavenly worshippers ; and adorable is the nature of thy Being, one in essence, and three in attributes, by all intelligences and minds of beings of fire and spirit, who around the appointed place of the Shechinah<sup>2</sup> of thy greatness, in noiseless cries, sing Holy and Hallelujah with mouths of fire, and in the mountains where they meditate<sup>3</sup> on thy glory, kneel and worship continually without inclining, O thou who art worshipped by true worshippers, who worship thy majesty in spirit and in truth. And may the service of our weakness, etc., as in the former of the above prayers.

Another for the same. Hear, O our Lord and our God, the prayer of thy people who wait for thee ; and receive the supplication of (the sheep of) thy pasture which knock at the door of thy majesty, and pity and have mercy on thine offending servants. Bring back, O my Lord, the erring and the lost, save the captives and the persecuted ; have mercy on the oppressed and tormented ; turn to the miserable and poor, and pity the strangers and exiles ; provide for the orphans and give sustenance to the widows ; loosen (the bonds of) those that are bound and are held in the grasp of iniquity ;

Psalm li., with the proper farcings, from the Khudhra.

Prayer. Sprinkle us, O our Lord and our God, with the refreshing dew of the kindness of thy love, and wash us with it from the defilements of sin, O good Shepherd who camest forth to seek us, and didst find us when we were lost: who willest that we should return, in thy lovingkindness and mercies, Lord of all, etc.

The officiant<sup>2</sup> says, My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord: and in the morning I will be prepared, and will appear before thee. The people answer the same.

And they go on to the Verses [of the MORNING ANTHEM] in the Khudhra.

The deacon says the KARUZUTHA. He that openeth the gate of repentance, and that which follows it. [From the Khudhra.]

At the end of the Karuzuthu the deacon says. Let us commit our own souls and one another's souls to the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Prayer. To thee, O Lord, mighty God, page 10.

TISHBUKHTA. To thee be glory, O our God, page 105.

ORDINARY WEEKS OF THE FAST

EVENING SERVICE

This is as in the weeks of the mysteries (page 211), except that before the Sub'a they always say the Lord's Prayer and its collects (page 212).

NIGHT SERVICE

Priest. Glory to God in the highest, etc. (page 85).

CANON. Ps. cxix. 57-65. In the portion of the Lord I have resolved to keep thy statutes. And I have looked for thy presence with my whole heart, O save me, according to thy word. At this time I have risen to confess thee, O our Lord, for thy judgments, and I wonder at the deeds of thy wisdom, and confess thy Name. In the portion . . . O teach me thy statutes. At this time, etc.

Ps. xcii. 1, 2. It is a good thing to confess the Lord. And to sing unto thy Name, O most Highest. In the night, with the watchful ones, let us sing praise to him that watcheth and sleepeth not; and in the night, when all is<sup>1</sup> silent, let us chant a song of glory to him. It is a good thing to confess the Lord. And to sing unto thy Name, O most Highest. To show forth thy lovingkindness in the morning. And thy faith in the night season. In the night, etc.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. Glory to thee, O our Saviour. Who didst give us rest in the night, and didst preserve us. And in the morning didst awaken us, that with the watchful ones we might sing to thee a song of glory.* In the portion of the Lord I have resolved to keep thy statutes.* And I have looked for thy presence with my whole heart. O save me, according to thy word.* Not by us are our ways determined, O Christ our Saviour. But thou art the Fashioner of our deeds in thy power and wisdom.* Send us from thy presence help and healing, O Christ our Saviour. That by the power of thy grace we may please thee in words and in deeds.* At the door of thy lovingkindness we knock, O Christ our Saviour. And we ask for forgiveness for our offences, have pity on us in thy mercies.* To thee, O our Lord, we call, and ask for compassion and mercies from thy treasury. For we know that thou art compassionate and merciful, and forgivest (our) trespasses.* O feeble soul, how long hast thou lain in thy bed in the sleep of ease!<sup>1</sup> Arise, put oil in thy lamp, for lo, the bridegroom is come.* Lo, the virgins, thy fellows, are ready to enter with the bridegroom. And thou, why art thou careless, and remainest in the filth of thine (ill) deeds? * Come, my brethren, let us take refuge in prayer, for it is a strong armour. And by it we will conquer Satan, our enemy, who hateth our nature.

Then Our Father, farced, and the rest in order (page 85).

The HULALI are as marked in the Khudhra.

SHUBAKHA, as in Ferial Service (page 97).

*TISHBUKHTA, by Mar Shimun Bar Saba'i, Patriarch ; or, as some say, by Mar Ephraim. Glory to thee, O my Lord, who didst create us. Though not moved thereto by any from the beginning.* Glory to thee, O my Lord, who didst call us. Thy living image and likeness.* Glory to thee, O my Lord, who didst nurture us. In freedom and as reasonable beings.* Glory to thee, O just Father. Whose love was pleased to fashion us.* Glory to thee, O holy Son. Who didst put on our flesh,<sup>2</sup> and didst save us.* Glory to thee, O living Spirit. Who didst enrich us with thy gifts.**

Glory to thee, O hidden Nature. Who didst reveal thy qnumi<sup>1</sup> in our manhood.* Glory to thee, O my Lord, who didst draw us. From the error of idols.* Glory to thee, O my Lord, who didst bring us. To the knowledge of thy Godhead.* Glory to thee, O my Lord, who didst make us. Reasonable<sup>2</sup> instruments for thy service.* Glory to thee, O my Lord, who didst invite us. To the exalted habitation of heaven.* Glory to thee, O my Lord, who didst teach us. The orders of the heavenly beings.* Glory to thee, O my Lord, who didst make us worthy. To glorify thee with the angels.* Glory to thee from all mouths. Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.* From those that are above and those that are below. Glory to thy Trinity.* In both worlds glory to thee. From the spiritual beings and from them that are in the body.* From everlasting to everlasting. And for ever and ever, Amen.

KARUZUTHA. O mighty Lord, eternal Being, page 101.

Prayers. Of thee who art full of mercies and Blessed and adorable, as in the Festival Night Service, page 152.

They say the MADRASHA, and the SUYAKHI, as in the Khudhra.

Prayer of the first Suyakha. Grant us, O my Lord, in thy compassion, and vouchsafe<sup>3</sup> in thy mercy, that with the watchful ones and the companies of the angels we may sing praise, with voices full of confession, to thy glorious Trinity, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Of the second. Thee, who art hidden from all in thy being, page 159.

Of the third. May thy Godhead, O my Lord, be pleased with our service, and may our prayers be received before thee, and may our petitions be answered from the treasury of thy compassion, at all seasons and times, Lord of all, etc.

Prayer of the Night Anthem. By the speaking mouths, page 154.

Or this.<sup>4</sup> By every mouth mayest thou be glorified, and by every tongue confessed, and in the heart mayest thou be believed. And with lips of glory may those in heaven and those on earth glorify thee, O thou Cause of our life and good Hope of our souls, Lord of all, etc.

They say the NIGHT ANTHEM and the prayer Pity us, O thou Compassionate one, page 11, then the proper CANON, and TISHBUKHTA for the day.

KARUZUTHA. O thou who didst teach us, page 162.

MORNING SERVICE

The prayers before the Psalms as in the ordinary Ferial Service (page 103), and the Psalms as noted under Sundays in the Fast (page 208); and the Lakhumara and Ps. li. are said as on ordinary ferias (page 104).

KARUZUTHA. O Father, who in thy mercy from the Khudhra.

Prayer. To thee, O Lord, mighty God, page 10.

TISHBUKHTA. To thee be glory, O our God, page 105.

Prayer. O Christ, the good Hope; and Holy God, as on page 106.

[Prayer Holy and glorious, deacon's interjection, and prayer May our souls, as on page 218.<sup>1</sup>]

PRAYER AT NOON IN THE FAST

They begin in the usual manner (pages 1, 2), and say three Hurali as noted in the Khudhra.

They proceed. Glorious art thou, etc., as at Evening Service of the Fast, page 211 ; then the NIGHT ANTHEM with its Prayer and CANON, and the proper TISHBUKHTA.

KARUZUTHA. O thou who didst teach us, page 162.

Prayers. O thou who openest thy door and O thou who hearest, page 83.

Prayers for help, and the rest as at Evening Service throughout the year (page 16).

AN OCCASIONAL KARUZUTHA <sup>1</sup>

Let us all stand up, etc., page 6.

O our God, abounding in mercies, who justifiest sinners without recompense, we, etc.

O good Shepherd, who wentest forth to seek our race, and didst give thyself for us, we, etc.

O Physician of our nature, who didst come, and wast revealed in the flesh, and didst pardon our trespasses and heal our wounds, we, etc.

O true Judge, who art not alway angry, but art long-suffering with us, in the hope that we may repent, we, etc.

O Lord, who didst grant to the penitent hope and comfort, by (the example of) the publicans and harlots whom thou didst receive and pardon.

For the welfare of our holy fathers NN,<sup>2</sup> and all those who serve under them, we, etc.

O merciful God, who in mercy governest all, we, etc.

O thou who art glorified in heaven and worshipped on earth, we, etc.

For sinners, that they may repent, and for the penitent, that they may be made righteous, and for the righteous, that they may be perfected, we, etc.

Have compassion on us, and pardon our trespasses in thy lovingkindness, and pour out thy compassion on our souls, and be reconciled to us all, and have mercy upon us.

ROGATION OF THE NINEVITES <sup>1</sup>

Tishbukhta for Monday of the Rogation, and also for Fridays of the Great Fast, by Mar John, or as some say by Mar Bar Šoma. In suffering, and with tears and entreaty. We call to thee, good Lord.* Be to us Physician and Guide. For bitter is our suffering, and our pain is hard (to bear).* There are not among us just men who may propitiate thee. For our iniquity hath waxed strong and our trespasses have increased.* They have stirred up and disturbed the sea and the dry land. And all that is in them, with our evil deeds.* In our time that which is written is come to pass. For the end of the worlds hath come upon us.* Save us in thy mercies from storms. Which have confused and shaken the heights and the depths.* O good Shepherd, feed thy flock. For whose sake thou hast borne suffering.* Vouchsafe to priests and kings alike. To<sup>2</sup> dwell in peace and quietness.* And may we be thine according to thy will. Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.* Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. For ever and ever, Amen and Amen.

Another, by Mar Khnana of Khdhaiwa. In suffering and with tears, come, let us draw near. Come, let us draw near to penitence.* For our iniquity hath waxed strong, and without number. Without number are our offences.* The crafty foe hath found a place. Hath found a place, and lo, he spoileth us.* Blessed be he that hath fought and conquered him. Hath fought and conquered him by diligence.* The Lord of our race by the Son of our race. By the Son of our race hath honoured our race.* And through our slackness the evil demons. The evil demons have laughed at our weakness.* Our wounds are corrupted and putrid. And putrid to those that pass on the way.* Come, let us draw near to that Physician. To that Physician who healeth without price.* In penitence of soul let us come to him. Let us come to him, to Jesus our King.* For he in his lovingkindness will cleanse us. Will cleanse us from the stains of our soul.* And let us all give him praise. For ever and ever, Amen and Amen.

Another for Wednesday of the Rogation. In suffering and with tears it is meet that all men. Should weep and lament for their infirmity.* And more than all it is meet that I. Should weep and lament without ceasing.* For the watchful ones and men recoil from my wickedness. And I cannot show my wounds.* Body and soul are corrupted and defiled. With the scars of lusts.* For I desired the world with its hateful deeds. And the prince of the world hath gotten domination over me.* He hath overthrown me and cast me out without pity. Like a lion ready for (his) prey.* He hath robbed me and humbled me and mocked me. Like Adam among the trees.* He saw that I was careless like Eve. And he had no pity on me, for he slayeth men.* To thee I cry, who in thy goodness didst form me. Cover my nakedness and heal my wounds.* Seek me when I am lost, and take hold of my life. For thou alone hast compassion without reward.* In the day of thy revelation make me glad, O our Lord. That I may see thy face without shame.* Pity me both here and hereafter.<sup>1</sup> For thou alone art the Friend of men.* Blessed is the Compassionate one, who aboundeth in mercies. For in (his) lovingkindness he hath compassion on those who are not worthy.* And let us all give him praise. For ever and ever, Amen and Amen.

In the Rogation of the Ninevites, Hallelujah is thus said between the Hulali:—

to thee, O God. Halle-ingih-lujah, yea Hallelujah. In thy mercies have compassion on us, O God. Halle-ingih-lujah, yea Hallelujah. O thou who art full of mercies, have mercy upon us. The other side answers, O our Lord, have mercy upon us. O our Lord, receive our request. O our Lord, be reconciled to thy servants.

BLESSING OF THE MONTHS <sup>1</sup>

The Lord of the whole earth.<sup>2</sup> Order the month, and bless it. To be the crown of the year, in thy lovingkindness. And make the month blessed. Even Ps. xcvi. 5.
——<sup>3</sup> joyful in thy compassion. May our request enter before thee. O Lord of months and of years. Prayer is the key of creation. May it open for us the door of mercies.* Bless, O my Lord, this month. And order it with all fruits. And give in it mercy and compassion. And increase in it peace and tranquillity. And keep, O my Lord, in thy compassion. This country and its inhabitants. From the harm and opposition. Of the Devil, the Apostate.* Bless, O my Lord, this year. And its crown likewise. And let there not be in it fear. Neither commotion nor terror. Let ——<sup>3</sup> come in joy. And be accepted like the request. Of Elijah and the son of Amram. May their prayer be a wall to us.* Bless, O my Lord, the months of the year. The seasons and weeks and days. Bless the vineyards and things planted. Bless the crops and fields. Bless, O my Lord, ——<sup>3</sup> which hath come. And may it be enriched with all blessings. And let there not be in it punishments. Nor sufferings nor distresses.* Bless, O my Lord, this year. And the months and the days. And priests and the children of the Church. And this country and city.

Let<sup>3</sup> thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us. By the holy angels. And by mortal sons of men. May this village be blessed. And may this country and its inhabitants. Be blessed with all blessings. And made rich with all good things. And may blessed times come to them. And may all lands be made prosperous.

The Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace. Bless our assembly, O our Saviour. And make thy lovingkindness to dwell in it. And grant us the power to glorify thee. The assemblies above and those below. And all to love one another. And to gain love and concord. As the spiritual ones have gained. One will, that they may be approved by thee.* Thou art compassionate from all eternity. And merciful for ever. What is the wickedness of creation. Compared with the overflowing mercies of thy lovingkindness?<sup>4</sup> Sprinkle the face of our nature. With the dew of mercy and pity. And rescue us from the hand of the Evil one. And from the tares, the sons of error.* May Adam and the camp of the just. And Moses and the chain of the prophets. And Peter and the company of the apostles. Stephen and all the martyrs. And Ephraim and the assembly of teachers. And Antony and the hermits. Beseech thee, O our Lord Jesus. That thou have mercy on the world.* The departed, who clothed themselves with thee, O our Lord. In the water of baptism. By thee may their bodies be cleansed. From the defilements of sin. To the departed who have eaten of thy body. And have had joy in thy living blood. Grant, O our Lord, a memorial. In the country where the just abide.

FARCINGS OF THE PSALMS<sup>1</sup>

Psalm 1. Blessed is he who hath borne thy yoke, and hath meditated in thy law, O Lord, by day and by night.

2. Like a horse without understanding, the arrogant men raged, and crucified Christ.

3. When I spake of thy truth, O our Lord, the wicked rose against me ; deliver me from their attack.

4. There is none like the Lord, in whom I have trusted ; who rescueth me from the snares and wiles of the evil ones.

5. Thou hast corrected me, O Lord, that thou mightest make me wise ; reject not my request.

6. Have compassion on my weakness, O thou who didst fashion me, and correct me in thy love.

7. Blessed be God, who directeth and comforteth his servants.

8. O Son, whom the children praised in Jerusalem with their hosannas, save thy worshippers by (thy) request.

9. We will confess thee for that thou hast turned us back from error<sup>2</sup> to the knowledge of thee ; may thine adversaries be judged.<sup>3</sup>

10. Because the ungodly have laid wait for the righteous with their wiles, and have blasphemed thy Name, let them be judged without mercy.<sup>4</sup>

11. The sinners have dealt craftily with me ; in thee, O Lord, have I trusted.

PRAYERS ON VARIOUS OCCASIONS<sup>1</sup>

When there is a scarcity of rain.<sup>2</sup> In thy goodness spread thy lovingkindness on our wickedness. Repeat. And pour forth thy mercies, O Merciful one, on us who are exiled from thee, and make thy compassion, O Compassionate one, to flow forth on our unrighteousness, and overshadow our confusion with thy pitiful wings; have compassion in thy pitiful pity on our sinfulness; and enrich our poverty with thy gift, O good Giver; and answer our afflicted state in times of affliction; and satisfy our hunger from thy table, O thou who feedest the worlds; and sprinkle the dew of thy kindness on our fields; and inebriate our ploughed fields and our lands with the rain of thy good pleasure; and bring our souls out of the prison house of distresses, and fill our hearts with thy true hope and strong trust, for thou dost care for our life, and suppliest all things that may help us in thy lovingkindness and mercies, Lord of all, etc.

Another. Have pity, O my Lord, and mercy on our evil generation, for its sighs have waxed strong, and its good things have become small; and let the right hand of thy Majesty rest over the world and its inhabitants; and let them that dwell therein abide in quietness beneath the shadow of thy wings; and let wars cease and contentions come to an end; and let variances be brought to nought and chastisements be withheld, and may peace be assured and tranquillity reign in every place continually, that thereby we may propitiate thy Godhead, and be approved by the good pleasure of thy Majesty, and abstaining from evil things confess and worship and glorify thy glorious Trinity, at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Prayer for the crops. Glory to thee, who dost plant all trees that they may bear pleasant fruits for the joy of thy servants; bless, O my Lord, these crops of thy servants, and may the fruits which propitiate thy Majesty be increased twofold therefrom, and may we lift up to thee glory for the things which thou suppliest, for ever. Amen.

Prayer for the sick. O thou who givest life to all in thy compassion, and raisest all in thy good pleasure, and drivest away all pains and sicknesses in thy mercy; heal, O my Lord, this thy servant in thy compassion, and raise him up from his sickness in the abundance of thy lovingkindness, that he<sup>1</sup> may confess thee for thy salvation (shown) to him, now and at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Prayer for one tempted by a devil. O Healer of all pains, and Assuager of all plagues, heal, O my Lord, this thy servant, of the plague of the Enemy; and as thy lovingkindness drove out Legion from him who dwelt among the graves, and didst cast him into the sea and overthrow him, and didst give ease to thy servant, so, O my Lord, also from this thy servant let thy power drive him away, and thy good pleasure root him out; and may (thy servant) be to thee a dwelling-place, and may he be signed with the living sign of thy cross, and bear thy pleasant yoke, and be joined to thy flock, O our compassionate Maker, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for ever. Amen.

Prayer for infants. May he who blessed the childhood of Isaak, so that there welled forth from him the promise of life in this world, and they saw within him the sign of salvation, bless thee and exalt thy parents, and make them glad with thy growth and the welling forth of thy wisdom; and may the right hand and lovingkindness of the Highest keep thee now and at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Prayer when a man kisses<sup>2</sup> the cross.<sup>3</sup> May the power which is hidden in the cross make me to gain power and courage for the war with the demon, the enemy, by the mercies of our good God. Amen.

Prayer when a man kisses the book of the Gospel. May the power which is hidden in the Gospel, full of life and grace, fill my mind with wisdom, that I may know the meaning of the word. Amen.

Prayer when a man kisses the tomb<sup>1</sup> of the saints. May our Lord and our God make us partakers of thy virtue, O our holy father, and may we be worthy of mercies and compassion by thy prayers. Amen.

Prayer<sup>2</sup> when a man goes on a journey. O God of Abraham, and of Isaak, and of Jacob, God of the just fathers and the prophets, God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, I make request to thee and entreat thy greatness, at this time when I set forward on this journey, that thy help may accompany me, and that thy lovingkindness may help me, for thou keepest my soul with my body from all adversities, and rescuest me from all harm. As thou wast with Joseph in the land of Egypt, and with Daniel in the lions' den, and with the company of Ananias in the fiery furnace, and with Jeremiah in the miry pit,<sup>3</sup> so also be with me, O Compassionate one, lightening the burden of this my journey, and overthrowing the enemies and evil ones before me, and be thou my Sustainer and Saviour, that the cause for which I set forth may receive a good fulfilment; and pour forth on me all good things. At my request to thee, O Compassionate one, grant me to meet with kindness (in) the land whither I go, and cause me to return, O my Lord, with my mouth filled with gratitude, and my tongue with praise, that I may return to my dwelling and my house with joy and gladness, to lift up praise and honour and confession and worship to thy living and holy Name, now and at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Prayer when a man enters a boat or ship. In the confident hope of thy mercy, O Lord, we pray and make request of thy overflowing mercies, make the sea peaceful before all who make a voyage in this ship of thy worshippers, and open the full and overflowing treasure of thy helps in their voyage; and may they go in peace and return in tranquillity, their hearts rejoicing, and their minds glad in the prosperity which they gain from thy rich treasure, O Lord, full of mercies ; and be thou to them, O Lord, a guide and a way, and an overseer by day and by night, and vouchsafe that they in soul and body may be perfect, and deliver them from the harm of the enemy in thy lovingkindness and mercies, that they may lift up to thee praise and honour and confession and worship, now and at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Prayer of a man for himself. Lord, thou knowest how I should call to thee ; I am only a brute beast, and know nothing. Thou hast brought me to this age of life ; save me for thy mercies sake ; I am thy servant, and the son of thy handmaid. O Lord, give me life in thy good pleasure. Amen.

Another. O Lord, as thou knowest and willest and pleasest, grant to me even those things which help my poverty and weakness and infirmity ; for mercies and compassion and lovingkindness are thine for ever. Amen.

Prayer when a priest washes his hands at the time of the Creed.<sup>1</sup> May God, the Lord of all, wash the filth of our trespasses and sins with the hyssop of his compassion, and cleanse the defilements of our iniquities with the overflowing sea of his mercy for ever. Amen.

When he wipes his hands. May the Lord wipe away the contamination of our sins in his lovingkindness and mercies for ever. Amen.

Prayer in fevers. In thy Name, O good Father, and in the Name of the Only-begotten, our Lord Jesus Christ, and in the Name of the Spirit of holiness, living and holy, I drive out the fever from thy servant N, son of M ;<sup>2</sup> and I destroy thee, O shivering fever, by that Power who called to Simon Peter's<sup>3</sup> wife's mother, who was held of a fever, so that she stood up and was made whole, and began to minister to our Lord. Now also, O Lord the mighty God, make firm the knees of this thy servant N, son of M,<sup>2</sup> and may he rise up and be made whole of this sickness by the power of the God of Gods and Lord of Lords ; and by thy help heal this thy servant, and make him whole, by the prayer of St. Mary the blessed, the mother of the Light, and by the prayer of all the saints of our Lord, now and at all times, Lord of all, etc.

Grace before meat.<sup>1</sup> Stretch forth, O our Lord and our God, the right hand of thy mercy from the height of thy holiness, and bless and hallow this food of thy worshippers, in the name of thy glorious Trinity; and enrich it with the benefits and blessings which come from thee, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for ever.<sup>2</sup> Our Father, etc. (without farcings).

Grace after meat.<sup>3</sup> A thousand thousand and ten thousand times ten thousand thanksgivings to God the Lord of all. May this food be multiplied and increased, and remain steadfast and never fail, by the prayers of the twelve apostles, and the just and righteous fathers who were and are approved by their Lord in every generation. May this table be as the table of our father Abraham, and not fail or fall short of heavenly blessings in every age while this world remaineth; may the houses of the faithful be blessed, and their offerings<sup>4</sup> be accepted, may their departed be quickened, may their trespasses and sins be pardoned, and may they be worthy of the good things of the kingdom, O thou who art glorious, and feedest all in thy lovingkindness and mercies, now and at all times, Lord of all, etc. Our Father, etc.

Or this. O thou who didst satisfy thousands in the desert, so that they ate from a few loaves, bless, O my Lord, this table, that it may be full and rich; that the poor may eat and be satisfied, and that the orphans may be supplied from it, and all classes be supported by it, and have joy from its good things; as the table of chosen Abram, and David the king and prophet, and Solomon and Hezekiah, and Constantine the victorious. So, O my Lord, may this table of thy servant be blessed and enriched with good things, by the overflowing mercies of thy lovingkindness. Bless, O our Lord, the husbandmen (who sowed the corn) for it; bless, O my Lord, them that prepared it ; bless, O my Lord, them that eat of it ; bless the house and them that dwell in it. Make, O my Lord, thy blessing to overshadow the house and abide in it ; and may they that dwell in it ever be kept from evil things. Bless beasts and men ; bless vineyards and orchards ; bless crops and fruits, and all of us together, now and at all times, and for ever and ever. Our Father, etc.

Prayer for hallowing unclean water.<sup>1</sup> This only. Thee, O mighty, holy, and glorious God, we confess and worship, and with the boldness which thou hast given us we ask of thy kindness to stretch forth the right hand of thy mercy, and bless and hallow this water ; and to make thy help to abide in it ; that wherever it is placed or poured out, or floweth forth or is thrown, it may cast thence all defilement and uncleanness from a dead man, and from things<sup>2</sup> strangled<sup>3</sup> ; and that all who drink of it, or who use it, may gain from it cleanliness and comeliness and purity of soul and body ; and may it give, by thy pure gift, help and salvation to souls which desire and rejoice in the holiness and order of the household of thy Majesty ; and for all thy helps and graces towards us we will lift up to thee praise and honour and confession and worship, now and at all times, and for ever and ever. Amen. He makes the sign of the cross on the water.

Prayer said over a bride when she enters the church after forty days. O compassionate and merciful Christ, our God, whose lovingkindness is poured forth on all, pour forth thy lovingkindness and help on this bride, and sanctify her by thy mercies, and make her worthy to love the good and hate the evil, and to do deeds that are approved by thee; and may fruits of gladness come from her bosom, and grow up in the faith of thy holy Church; and may she walk before her bridegroom according to thy good pleasure, and look to him with her eyes as is right, and hear with her ears his commands and confess them; and may her mouth speak fitly about him; and with her heart may she truly love him, and with her hands do his will; and may her feet walk circumspectly in holiness. And may bride and bridegroom and groom's man and bride's maid be kept from all harm by the prayers of her who bare thee, the second heaven, St. Mary the blessed, and of all thy saints, now and at all times, and for ever and ever. Amen.

He makes the sign of the cross on her head.

Blessing said over a boy and his mother, forty days after his birth, when the mother brings him into Church. O Lord the mighty God, the Creator of heaven and of earth, and of all that is in them, who gave the law to the first fathers, and didst command therein that every male when forty days old should come to thy holy temple, and make an offering to the priest, and that he should pray over him, and that he should be purified, and didst fulfil this command, even thou, O my Lord, by the entrance of thy beloved Son into the temple when forty days old, when the aged Simeon took him in his arms, and confessed, and asked of him a release from his life; now also, O Lord God, bless and sanctify this child N, who hath come to thy holy Church, which is the dwelling-place of holiness, to ask of thee to grant him that the milk which he draweth in may be increased, and that he may be kept from the Evil one and his hosts, and may grow in holiness and the true faith all the days of his life. Amen.

For the boy's mother. And mayest thou, the mother of the boy, be moved in the hidden man which is in the heart, to good works, and may there come forth from thy loins sons and daughters who may propitiate God by their goodly deeds; and mayest thou have joy in the blessings of the Lord; and thou and thy son, may ye be kept from all harm by the prayers of the Virgin clothed in light, the second heaven, St. Mary, who bare Christ our God,<sup>1</sup> and by the prayer of all the saints, now and at all times, and for ever and ever. Amen. He makes the sign of the cross over their heads.

Prayer for a woman who asks for the prayers of the Church. O our Lord Jesus Christ, the secret Son<sup>2</sup> of the hidden Father, who didst make thy mercies to bow down to our weak and feeble race, and didst come down from heaven to earth, and didst take man's body from the Virgin Mary, the daughter of David, and didst fulfil the law of Moses thy servant, when on the eighth day thou madest an offering of circumcision; and by a bodily growth didst offer purification for purification<sup>3</sup> as it is written; for thou art the acceptable offering, and sweet odour, and by thee thy Father is reconciled to our weak and feeble race; do thou, O Lord, the mighty God, now give pardon and forgiveness and purification to this thy handmaid N, who hath presented herself this day in thy holy temple, and hath come to (me) thy weak and sinful servant, and asketh blessings and prayers, and gifts of grace from heaven, given though the priesthood from thy mercy, O Creator of us all. Yea, when (we) make request to thee, O Lord Almighty, return answer, O Lord, in thy mercies to this thy handmaid at this time, and send on her the grace of the Holy Ghost; that she may be sanctified and cleansed from all uncleanness of flesh and spirit, and be adorned with purity and holiness, that she may please thy will and keep thy commandments, now and at all times, and for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer over new cloths and vessels<sup>4</sup> offered to the Altar. O Lord God of our fathers, who in the first ages didst mystically typify beforehand the mysteries of the faithful Church by the hands of the head of the high<sup>5</sup> priest, Moses the prophet, when thou didst command him with holy oil to sanctify the tabernacle and all its cloths and vessels,<sup>4</sup> that they might be set apart in grace and holiness, because thou art holy; we also, O merciful Lord, Friend of man, make request to thee and beseech thee, according to thy promise to thy holy apostles, to send thy grace which worketh all blessings, and purify and sanctify this cloth,<sup>1</sup> and bless it, that it may be for priestly use as becometh the ministration thereby of thy divine and pardoning mysteries; and anoint it with thyself, who art the oil of complete perfection; and may we be to thee pure and holy temples in which thy Godhead dwelleth, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Or this. O Lord the God of hosts, Almighty, holy, and glorious, who art eternally holy, and dwellest in light that man cannot attain unto, whose glory and holiness hath filled all things, and who hast not left thyself without those who shall glorify thee, and hast created the companies on high to glorify and to sing Holy to thy Majesty, not that thou needest praise, but that they who glorify thee may be magnified in thee, and hast created the worlds in thy loving-kindness, and hast raised up high priests to thy honour, and hast set firm a tabernacle for thy dwelling-place,<sup>2</sup> and hast decked it with glorious cloths and vessels,<sup>3</sup> and censers and chalices, and candlesticks and cups, and whatever else is (used) in the Mosaic service which thou hast commanded; now also, O Lord, we thy servants, saved by the cross of thine Only-begotten, beseech thy mercies to hallow these cloths and vessels<sup>3</sup> on which our hands have been laid, and which have been offered for the service of thy altar, to be for the honour of thy habitation,<sup>2</sup> and the praise of thy holy Name, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. And receive, O my Lord, as an oblation the will of these persons who have offered them, and of whosoever have been partakers with them, for thou art a Sea who pourest forth blessings in thy lovingkindness and mercies, and to thee is due confession from the mouth of all speaking beings whom thou hast created, now and at all times, and for ever and ever. Yea, and Amen. He makes the sign of the cross on the cloths and vessels.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>4</sup> The year is divided into periods of about seven weeks each, called Shawu'î. These are : Advent, Epiphany, the Fast, Resurrection, the Apostles, Summer, Elijah and the Cross, Moses, Hallowing of the Church. The two last are only four weeks each

on the following Sunday the service of the fourth Sunday of Elijah is used. There is only one Festival of the Cross, but in the district of Tal in Kurdistan a separate memorial of St. Helena is kept in September. On Sept. 13 (not 14 as elsewhere) the Invention of the Cross is chiefly commemorated, not the Exaltation. The Holy Eastern Church also combines the two.

Second Sunday of the Hallowing of the Church. [Also Mar Yukhánan the Arab],	.	.
Third Sunday of the Hallowing of the Church,	.	.
Friday. Mar Augin, <sup>3</sup>	.	.
Fourth Sunday of the Hallowing of the Church,

<sup>1</sup> If Easter fall late, all or some of the Sundays of Mar Mushi are omitted; and (apparently) if it fall as late as possible, the last Sunday of Elijah also. If Easter fall on the earliest possible day, the fifth and fourth Sundays of Elijah will have to be interchanged so as to follow the rule given above (page 278). But this arrangement is not explicitly ordered.

<sup>2</sup> i.e. 'Entrance.' On this day the people move from the summer chapel to the nave of the church for their daily prayers.

Additional Note.—Every eventuality with regard to Easter seems to be provided for in the above rules. In the first part of the Kalendar the following modifications are said to be usually observed. If the Nativity fall on a Sunday, St. Mary is the following Friday, there is only one Sunday of the Nativity, Epiphany is on Friday, and the Saints' days come after instead of before the Sundays given in the table; if on a Monday, there is only one Sunday of the Nativity, Epiphany is on Saturday, and the Saints' days similarly come after the Sundays; if on a Tuesday, there is only one Sunday of the Nativity, and Epiphany is on Sunday.

- October* 1. Khanánya<sup>1</sup> (Ananias), who baptized Paul ; first Metropolitan of Damascus.*

twelve thousand martyrs.*
- December* 22. Mar Quriaqus (Cyriac), ‘killed by Halinus in Persia.’
Mar Auráham (Abraham), Doctor.<sup>8</sup>

If any of these days are observed, and the Liturgy is celebrated, the most suitable lessons from the former table are read : thus, those for the January Festival of St. Mary are read on all her festivals ; those for the Confessors or Mar Awa are generally used for the other days.

GLOSSARY OF TECHNICAL ECCLESIASTICAL TERMS

Abukhálím(ă), a book containing collects and some occasional offices, such as the office for the preparation of the elements.

After, see Qdhamwathar.

Aghúna, martyrdom (ἀγών). So Aghunistā (ἀγωνιστής), a martyr.

Anidha, (1) a departed Christian; (2) the book of the burial services for laymen, women, and children.

Annunciation, Syr. Subára, Advent, 25 days.

Antidoron (or rather Antídhoron), Syr. mkaprána, a portion of the holy loaf not consecrated, given to communicants after their communion (Greek ἀντίδωρον).<sup>1</sup> The Greeks give it to non-communicants. Also called eulogiae.

Apisqúpa, a bishop (ἐπίσκοπος). The Episcopate is divided into three divisions: (1) Patriarchs, (2) Metropolitans, (3) Bishops. The last are also called simple bishops.

Apitrúpa (ἐπίτροπος), a steward or churchwarden. Also rāb baita (pl. rābai bati).

Apostle, Syr. Shlikha, (1) the Epistle for the day, always taken from St. Paul. So the Greek ἀπόστολος. (2) Any apostle or missionary, especially the Twelve and the Seventy.

Arkidhyáqun or Arkidhyaqúna, an archdeacon (ἀρχιδιάκονος). The presbyterate is divided into three divisions: (1) Archdeacons, (2) Chorepiscopi, (3) Priests. According to some, the first two are interchanged. In the vernacular often contracted to arkan.

Athlita, a martyr. So the Greek ἀθλήτης.

Basaliqi, see Royal Anthem.

Bathqyama (daughter of the promise), a nun.

Bati, see Verses.

Ba'útha, see Rogation.

Before, see Qdhamuwathar.

Bém or bema, (1) usually the raised space between the sanctuary doors and the dwarf wall in the nave parallel to them (= σολεύα, σολεύας, σολείον, or σολία nearly); (2) rarely the sanctuary = Greek βῆμα.

Bírúna, an episcopal mitre, head-dress, or hood. Perhaps = Greek βῆρος, Lat. birrus, a priestly garment.

Bráshith, a verse from Genesis i., said on some festivals; lit. In the beginning (page 165).

Bukhra, see Firstborn.

Burákha, lit. blessing. The marriage-service book.

Canon, Syr. Qanúna, Gk. κανών, (1) any ecclesiastical law, also any rule or regulation in grammar, etc.; (2) in the liturgy, the ending of several long prayers which are said in a low voice, marked by the raising of the voice, and in most cases by the use of cymbals; (3) an antiphonal chant or part of a psalm introduced into some of the services, especially in the fast.

Carshúnic, Arabic written in Syriac characters, as in the case of the liturgical Gospels in the town of Mosul.

Cathólicos, Syr. Qathulíqa, a name of the Patriarch (καθολικός). Said by the East Syrians to be so called because he has all the divisions of the priesthood in himself, and all jurisdiction.

Chaldeans, Syr. Kaldáyí, the later Magi or Astrologers. In modern times, the Uniats, or East Syrians who acknowledge the Pope.

Chorepiscopus, Syr. Kurapisqúra (χωρεπίσκοπος). The second division of the second order, the Presbyterate. See Arkidhyáqun. These officers were never bishops among the East Syrians.

Conclusion, Syr. Khutháma, or Sealing. The Blessing.

Continuation, Syr. H'pakhtha, the second part of certain anthems.

Crowning, see Kulala.

Dapa, an altar slab.

Dawidha, the psalter, from Dáwidh, David. This book contains the psalms with prayers and fancings, the canticles of Moses and Isaiah, and the psalter prayers; and usually also the litanies.

Dinkha or Beith Dinkha, the Epiphany.

Diupátkhin, 'the book of the living and the dead' (Rubrick in Takhsa). The diptychs, δίπτυχα, or list of persons to be prayed for in the liturgy.

Dukhrána, see Memorial.

Evening Anthem, the third anthem sung at the evening service on ferias. A collection of these anthems proper to the various seasons is found in the Kashkul (q.v.); but as this book is rare, many copies of the Qdhamuwathar have alternative anthems, one for each week-day.

Farcing, Syr. Giyûra, a clause interpolated in the Psalms, Lakhumara, and Holy God, in the manner shown in the preceding translation. The Greek στιχηρόν is somewhat similar.

Feast, Syr. Idha. This name is usually confined to feasts of our Lord, saints' days being called memorials.

Firstborn, Syr. Bukhra, an eucharistic loaf.

Firstfruits, Syr. Rishitha, (1) the offerings given to a bishop, metropolitan, or patriarch; (2) human nature; (3) our Lord.

Geza or Gaza, lit. the treasury (q.v.), a large volume containing hymns and anthems proper to festivals.

Ghantha, lit. inclining. Some of the long prayers in the liturgy, said with bowed head and in a low voice, are so called.

Giyûra, see Farcing.

Gospel, Syr. Iwangaliyun (εὐαγγέλιον), (1) the four Gospels, which are only counted as one; (2) the portion appointed for the Gospel for each day; (3) the book of the liturgical Gospels.

Great Feast, in the Urmi vernacular, Easter day.

Gudha, one of the two choirs, 'before' or 'after.'

Gultha, (1) an ecclesiastical vestment now obsolete (shape unknown); (2) an altar cloth.

Haikla, see Temple.

Hallowing of the Church, Syr. Qûdash 'idta, the last four weeks before Advent.

High priest, Syr. Rab kahni or Rab kumri, a bishop. So the Greek ἀρχιερεύς.

Hiuparkîya, an ecclesiastical province, under a metropolitan (ὑπαρχία = ἐπαρχία of the Greeks. Plural, usually hiuparkîyas).

Hiupathîdqna (ὑποδιάκονος), a sub-deacon (now obsolete). The diaconate is divided into deacons, sub-deacons, and readers. We notice that the Greek rough breathing becomes h in Syriac, unlike the modern Greek pronunciation, and the upsilon has the sound of an English u.

Holy God, the prayer beginning with these words, recited by all (p.10).

Holy of holies, Syr. Qdhusk qudhshi, (1) the space under the canopy in front of the altar; (2) all the sanctuary.

Holy thing, Syr. Qudhsha, the eucharistic species.

Horn, see Qarna.

Hosannas, Sunday (or Festival) of, Palm Sunday.

House of Absolution, the south side of the sanctuary.

House of the Altar, the east side of the sanctuary.

House of the Deacon, the baptistery, on the south of the sanctuary, used also as a vestry, etc.

House of the Door, the west side of the sanctuary.

House of the Holy thing, or of the Treasury (q.v.), the north side of the sanctuary.

H'pakhtha, see Continuation.

Hulála (pl. Huláli), one of the twenty-one divisions of the psalter, corresponding to the Greek κάθισμα.

'Idha, see Feast.

Ikhidháya, a monk ; lit. a hermit.

'Iri, see Watchful ones.

Istátyúna, the same as Madrásha, q.v. (apparently from statio).

Iwangaliyun, see Gospel.

Jordan, Syr. Yúrdnan, the font. See Wazna (the usual word).

Kahna, a priest in his ministerial aspect (sacerdos), as opposed to qashísha (vernacular qasha), which is used with reference to his rank. The word kahnútha (priesthood) includes all three orders, even the diaconate.

Kaldayi, see Chaldeans.

Karuzútha (pl. Karuzwátha), the litany-bidding prayer, said by the deacon. Greek έκρενή.

Kasa, the chalice.

Káshkul (lit. containing all), a large book containing the evening anthems and the Motwas at the night service for ferias in the different seasons.

Khadh parsupa, see One Person.

Khnana, earth from the tombs of the martyrs, used at weddings, etc.

Khudhra, lit. Cycle, a large volume, containing the parts of the liturgy and daily offices proper to Sundays, Feasts of our Lord, and the principal saints' days. The lections are not written at length.

Khutháma, see Conclusion.

Kirutaníya (χειροτονία), ordination (not other layings-on of hands).

Knitting of the bridechamber, a part of the marriage ceremony, in which the bridechamber is blessed. So called because it was the custom to make an osier screen in the large family room to fence it off.

Kulála, or Crowning, (1) a ceremony at baptism and marriage. So in Greek στεφάνος=the nuptial crown, στεφανοῦν or στεφανοῦσθαι is to marry, or be wedded; (2) martyrdom.

Kurapisqúpa, see Chorepiscopus.

Kurásta, the book of the Burial Service for the clergy.

Kushápa, lit. Beseeching. Some of the long prayers in the liturgy, said by the priest kneeling and in a low voice, are so called.

Kwantha, a hood, now obsolete.

Lakhumára, an ascription of praise, said by all (page 3). So called from its first words, To thee, Lord.

Laqna, a vessel containing oil, used at baptism. Gk. λάγνος, Lat. lagna. See Qarna.

Lectios, Syr. Qiryáni, (1) all the portions of Scripture read at the Liturgy, including Epistle and Gospel; (2) those from the Old Testament and Acts only.

Letter psalm, Syr. Letters (Athwátha), a portion of the cxix. Psalm, which is acrostic.

Liturgy, (1) Syr. Qurbána or Offering (q.v.), the Eucharist; (2) Syr. Qudásha or Hallowing, one of the three services for the Eucharist, ascribed to Mar Adai and Mar Mari, to Nestorius, and to Theodore the Interpreter.

Little feast. In the Urmi vernacular, Christmas day.

Ma'álta, lit. Entrance, the first day of the Hallowing of the Church, the fourth Sunday before Advent. So called because on this day the East Syrians go into the church for their daily prayers, having during the summer said them in the outer chapel.

Má'apra, (1) a long vestment worn outside the albe and stole by bishops and priests at the Eucharist. Among the West Syrians it is a mitre or a woman's head-dress; (2) a veil put on a child's head at baptism.

Madrásha, a doctrinal hymn.

Mádhbkhá, lit. the sacrificing place, (1) the altar; (2) the sanctuary. So θυσιαστήριον, which has both meanings.

Malka, (1) the priest's loaf in the Liturgy; (2) the holy leaven, said to be descended from the Apostles. Ordinary leaven is khmíra.

Mandíla, the chrisom or white baptismal robe. Gk. μανδύλιον, Lat. mantele, a napkin; also in Arabic.

- Mar*, lit. My lord. Title of honour given to all bishops, alive and dead, and to certain other saints, as St. John Baptist, St. Ephraim, St. Stephen, St. Cyriac. The feminine is Mart (q.v.).
- Marmitha* (pl. Marmyátha), a subdivision of a hulala (q.v.). Gk. στάσις, but the Greek divisions are not the same as the East Syrian.
- Mart*, lit. My lady. Seldom applied to any one but the Blessed Virgin (Mart Mariam).
- Martúta*, the pallium worn by patriarchs (obsolete).
- Martyrs' Anthem*, sung at the end of Evening and Morning Prayer. There is one for each morning and each evening.
- Mas̄tabtha*, a raised pace in front of the altar.
- Matuníya*, a genuflexion. So μετανοία.
- Memorial*, Syr. Dukhrána, (1) a saint's day; (2) a commemoration of the faithful departed.
- Mitrapuléita*, a metropolitan (μητροπολίτης), see Apisqúra. Also called Mitran or Matran.
- Mkaprana*, (1) see Antidoron; (2) a small veil or napkin.
- Momyána*, an exorcist (obsolete).
- Morning Anthem*, an anthem from the Khudhra or Geza, said after the psalms at Morning Service on Sundays and Festivals.
- Motwa*, (1) an anthem at the night service, sung sitting, whence its name. Gk. κάθισμα. These vary with the season, and are found in the Kashkul for ferias, and in the Khudhra and Geza for other days; (2) the anthems at the burial service.
- Mqablána*, see Veil.
- Mshamshána*, see Shamasha.
- Mysterics*, Syr. 'Razi, (1) the Eucharist (rarely also in the singular 'raza); (2) any other sacrament (chiefly in the singular).
- Nahtra*, a candlestick.
- Napqa*, a monk, lit. one who has left the world, or who is exercised in warfare. (So Sunhadus, Book vii., Preface.)
- Naqúsha*, an oblong board and mallet of wood, struck together to call people to church. Gk. σήμαντρον. (The Greeks also make them of iron or brass.)
- Night Anthem*, an anthem from the Khudhra or Geza, said after the Qali d'Shahra on Sundays; also on festivals and on feriss in Lent.
- Nithi Mar*, lit. Let him come, O my Lord: the Invocation in the Liturgy and baptismal office.
- Nuqáya*, the mixed chalice.
- Nusárdéil*, the Sunday of the Twelve Apostles.

- Offering*, Syr. Qurbána, (1) the Eucharist ; (2) any gift.
- One Person*, Syr. Khadh Parsúpa, the Patron Saint.
- Ordering of the Mysteries*, Syr. Ṭukas 'razi. The consumption of the eucharistic species at the end of the Liturgy by the priest and sacristan. At this time, in practice, the officiating priest and assistants make their Communion.
- Palu*, in the Urmi vernacular, the fourth or middle Wednesday of the Great Fast ; lit. division (for palgu).
- Pathúra*, (1) a table ; (2) the paten ; (3) occasionally both chalice and paten.
- Paṭaryarka* or Paṭaryarkis, πατριάρχης, a Patriarch. See Cathólicos.
- Peace*, Syr. Shlama, the kiss of peace. So Gk. εἰρήνη.
- Pilása*, the paten.
- Piryaduṭa*, originally the deputy of a Chorepiscopus (q.v.), then the Chorepiscopus himself. Also called Sa'ura or Visitor. The authorities often confuse these names and Archdeacon.
- Piškha* (the Passover), Maundy Thursday.
- Priestly prayer*, a collect. (These may only be said by priests.)
- Purshana malkaya*, lit. the portion of the malka (q.v.), the priest's loaf in the Eucharist. The general name for the holy loaves is bukhra, firstborn, q.v.
- Qala d'gawa* (pl. Qali), lit. Song of the congregation. The anthems on the two Wednesdays at the night service in place of a Motwa are so called (page 130).
- Qala d'shahra* (pl. Qali), lit. Vigil song. The extra hulala sung at the night service on Sundays and festivals after the Motwa are so called.
- Qaltha* (pl. Qalyátha), lit. Little song, or according to others, A short (portion). Anthem and psalms said after the hulali at the night service before the Motwa (as a preparation for the liturgy). These are found in the Khudhra, and are said to date from the time of Mar Narsai, circ. 520 A.D.
- Qundára*, an episcopal vestment worn above the martuṭa (pallium) and beneath the kwantha (hood). Said in the book of Heavenly Intelligences<sup>1</sup> to be the sign of honour given by the Arab power to the patriarchs.
- Qandéila*, a lamp. Gk. κανδήλα (sic), Lat. Candela. Especially the lamp in the sanctuary, which is ordered always to be kept burning, though this is not done in practice.

- Qankáya*, a Sacristan, who must be a priest or deacon (according to the books), helps in the preparation of the elements, administers the cup, cares for the sanctuary, etc.
- Qanki* (a plural noun), the sanctuary; so the books, and now in some districts; in others the baptistery. Probably = cancelli.
- Qánun dkhilat*, a form of Qanána (see Canon, No. 3), beginning with the word Dkhilat = Terrible art thou, sung solemnly in the Liturgy on the greatest festivals.
- Qanána*, Qánun, see Canon.
- Qaríwa*, Qaryuta, see Shoshwina, Shoshwinta.
- Qarna*, a horn, Lat. cornu, (1) the altar being divided into three parts, the north and south parts are so named; (2) a vessel for containing the holy oil for baptism. The laqna contains ordinary oil, with which a little of the holy oil is mixed.
- Qarúya*, (1) a reader, whose office is the third of the three subdivisions of the diaconate (now obsolete). See Hiupathiaqna. His office was to read the Qiryáni or lections from the Old Testament and Acts; (2) any reader.
- Qashísha* (vernacular Qásha), a priest. See Kahna, Arkidhyaqun.
- Qathulíqa*, see Catholicos.
- Qathulíqi* or Qathulíqáita, Catholick (epithet of the Church only).
- Qdhámuwáthar*, lit. Before and after. More fully, Ktháwa daqdhám wadhwáthar, lit. Book of before and of after. The book containing the anthems, etc., for ferias and festivals as far as they do not vary with the season; so called because the weeks are called 'before' or 'after' according as the first or second choir begins the service. See Introduction.
- Qdhush qedhshi*, see Holy of holies.
- Qilítha*, a monastery or cell; now used for the Patriarch's house; Lat. cella; Gk. κέλλα, κέλλη, or κέλλιον.
- Qiryána* (pl. Qiryáni), see Lections.
- Qléiríqi*, the clergy. Gk. κληρικοί.
- Qsatha*, lit. that which is broken, the eucharistic loaf, before or after baking.
